Scripture Readings
 June 16, 2019
 The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading: Proverbs 8:22-31

God created Wisdom before he created the earth or the skies. This spirit stood beside God every day until the earth was complete, then "found delight in the people of the earth." This indicates that the spirit of wisdom was later personified by Jesus.

Second Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Paul says that we are now at peace with God through our faith in Jesus. We also hope to see the glory of God. This hope will not leave us disappointed because of the love God has shown in sending us the Holy Spirit.

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Jesus tells the disciples that when he leaves them, a Spirit will help guide them to the truth. This Spirit will announce what he hears from Jesus, rather than speaking on his own. Everything God has also belongs to Jesus, which is why those things announced by the Spirit will actually come from Jesus.

Solemnity of Pentecost

Happy Pentecost Sunday! Today is an opportunity to experience the presence and the power of the Holy Spirit. The roots of Pentecost can be found in the Jewish festival of Weeks (Shavuot), the fifty-day celebration following Passover. The Greek word for Pentecost (Pentekoste) means “fiftieth,” and in early Christianity it referred to the entire fifty days of Easter. Early Christians reinterpreted the Jewish festival as a commemoration of the coming of the Holy Spirit since Acts records that the Holy Spirit came to the disciples when the festival of Pentecost was fulfilled (see Acts 2:1-11).

Pentecost celebrates not only the completion of Easter, but its fruition as we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit. “For, bringing your Paschal Mystery to completion, you bestowed the Holy Spirit today on those you made your adopted children by uniting them to your Only Begotten Son. This same Spirit, as the Church came to birth, opened to all peoples the knowledge of God and brought together the many languages of the earth in profession of the one faith” (Preface of Pentecost). These, then, are the themes we celebrate today: the completion of the Paschal Mystery, the coming of the Holy Spirit, adoption through union with Christ, and the communion of the Church and in faith.

With the completion of the Easter Season, we return to Ordinary Time on Monday and the paschal candle is returned to the baptismal font and is lit only for baptisms and funerals. With that said, from the moment of our baptism, we are people of the Spirit. The Spirit dwells within us and is constantly increased and strengthened by the grace of God. As it did for the disciples, the Holy Spirit fills us and prompts us to do incredible things. “Come Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful. Kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your spirit and they shall be created and you shall renew the face of the earth. Amen.”

Father’s Day Collection

Next weekend, our second collection will be for Seminarian Education. This is an additional way to support our future spiritual Fathers. We have the unique opportunity to see seminarians first-hand. Sebastian and Carlos are a sign of hope for our Church. We have a role in their formation; helping them in a special way to adapt to a new culture. Support of this collection is an affirmation of their decision to study for the Priesthood and an acknowledgement of their call to serve God by serving His people. As always, thank you for your kindness.

Catholic Heart Work Camp Youth Trip

This year ten teenagers of our parish will once again participate in Catholic Heart Work Camp. The week of July 14-20, they will be traveling to Boston. This is our third year participating in this “faith in action” trip. This summer, over 13,000 participants will serve throughout the country in different cities. CHWC provides teenagers and adult leaders service opportunities to restore homes, feed the hungry, lift the spirits of children, and bring joy to the lonely. Each “camp” is equipped with a staff, director, manager, musician, nurse, and priests to celebrate the Sacraments. Participants have an opportunity to share their faith with peers, increase their faith through catechesis and prayer, and put their faith into action by working each day in different locations and capacities. I am grateful to all of you for your support of our young people on this experience. Please continue to pray for them as their faith is strengthened and put into practice.

Peace,
Fr. Jared

NEWS FROM THE RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OFFICE

Religious Education registration is open for 2019/20. Please note that registration forms were emailed home via Flocknote. You can also print out the forms from the website.

In the upcoming 2019/20 school year, the 1st, 2nd and 3rd grades will be using the new format that we introduced with the 1st grade this year, “Class Attached to Mass”. It will be offered on Sundays at the 9:30 and 11:30 Masses. This format allows families to make a connection from classroom catechesis to Mass. This year’s first grade families said that they loved being at Mass with other families and becoming a part of the St. Catherine community. I will hold a gathering on September 4 at 7:00 pm to review the format of the “class attached to Mass” for the 1st and 3rd grade parents.

A quote from Pope Francis from his book,
*Dear Pope Francis: The Pope Answers Letters

Question by Ana Maria age 10, Brazil. “Why do you think children have to go to Catechesis (Religious Education)?

Pope Francis: “You go to catechism to get to know Jesus better! If you have a friend, you enjoy being with him and getting to know him better. You enjoy being with your friend, playing together and getting to know his family, his life, where he was born and where he lives. This is a good thing. Religious Education classes help you get to know your friend Jesus better and His great family, the Church.”

We look forward to a new year of getting to know our friend Jesus better and His great family.

Thanks and God bless,
Lisa Gervasio, DRE

LITURGICAL Q & A

Each week we will post a question and answer about the liturgy. If you would like to submit a question, please do so to lisahward@aol.com.

Why do we sign our forehead, lips, and heart with the cross at the introduction to the gospel?

When the Gospel is about to be read, the priest or deacon says: 'A Reading from the Gospel according to St. ____.' The congregation then responds, 'Glory to you, oh Lord,' making a small cross with their thumb over their forehead, lips, and chest. We are asking that the word of God pierce our mind, lips, and hearts.

We welcome our recently baptized new members in the church to our parish community:
