Scripture Readings
November 24, 2019
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

First Reading: 2 Samuel 5:1-3
 Samuel describes how all the tribes of Israel went to David in Hebron and said they were his bone and his flesh and it was he who led them back to Israel. The Lord told David he would be a shepherd to His people. David made an agreement with the elders and was anointed king.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:12-20
 Paul explains to the Colossians that God has made them fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light and that through the Son we have redemption and forgiveness of sin. He describes Jesus as the image of the invisible God, the head of the church and in Him all things hold together.

Gospel: Luke 23:35-43
 Jesus is mocked by the crowd as he hung on the cross. Above him was an inscription that read "This is the king of the Jews." One of the men being crucified with Jesus tells Him to save them and Himself, while the other asks that he be remembered when Jesus is in his kingdom. Jesus said in reply, "Amen I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Adult Faith Enrichment

On Tuesday, November 19, we will have a presentation on how we as Catholics approach and experience death, as well as how we celebrate funeral rites. Bishop Serratelli wrote a Pastoral Letter on this topic in 2014. In it he stated, "Today, we are beginning to witness a minimizing and even elimination of rituals surrounding death and burial. An increasing number of Catholics are breaking away from traditional Catholic funerals." (7) "Nonetheless, death still remains a reality and must be faced. Catholic funeral rites offer the bereaved a needed time to grieve and to strengthen their faith. They offer those left behind a way to face death by celebrating life in Christ. They provide a needed moment to affirm the basic truths of faith at a painful moment. When the rites are followed, they offer a faith-filled way to find meaning, to remember and to pray for the deceased and to move forward with hope." (13)

The presenter will be Fr. Michael Whalen, CM. Fr. Whalen is a Vincentian priest who teaches Sacramental and Liturgical Theology at St. John's University. In addition, he has keen insights into the spiritual life. There will be two presentations: the first is at 4 pm and the same presentation will be given again at 7:30 pm. Both presentations will be held in the Parish Center. Please sign up for one presentation in the back of church.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

As always, I invite all of our parishioners to come together to celebrate Eucharist on Thanksgiving morning at 9am. It is a wonderful opportunity for our parish family, made up of so many different families, to come together as a parish family. "Thank you" is a simple yet very important prayer to say. The term "eucharist" means thanksgiving. Before we gather with family and friends later in the day around a table filled with so many blessings and love, we gather around THE table, the altar to give thanks to God from whom all blessings flow.

At that liturgy we will read the petitions of thanksgiving which have been provided by parishioners. Each year, listening to those petitions makes me aware of how uniquely blessed we all are. It also makes me aware of how faith plays such an important part in our lives. In the face of struggles it is sometimes easy to overlook our blessings. Each year however, I hear of how thankful individuals are even in the face of sickness and difficult circumstances. I invite you to bring an item that you will partake in at your meal. As a parish family, we will invoke God's blessing upon those items which we will share with our family and friends.

I am continually thankful for your kindness, faithfulness, and joy. I am blessed to be a part of this community. May we all be truly thankful for all that God has given us!

Celebrating the Joy & Blessings of the Season

The thought of Christmas sounds a long way off. However, I'd like you to save the date for our fifth Celebrating the Joy & Blessings of the Season. Since 2015 we have presented an annual Christmas concert, featuring artists such as Ronan Tynan, Anthony Rodriguez, Imperial Brass Orchestra, and Will & Anthony. Each year it is a wonderful evening of entertainment and socialization. It is a great opportunity to relax in the midst of the December busyness, build community with fellow parishioners and others from outside, and to support the parish. This year, the concert will be on Saturday, December 7 at 8 pm. Once again, we bring to St. Catherine's high caliber talent. This year we welcome Chanticleer. Tickets will be $50 with open seating and a wine and cheese reception to follow.

Check out the website at www.chanticleer.org for more information about them, including pictures and sound clips. Save the date! Saturday, December 7 at 8 pm. Tickets are on sale now and available after Masses and in the parish and religious education offices.

Campaign Secretary Position

We are seeking to fill a temporary secretarial position to assist with the capital fundraising campaign. The position will run from February to June, approximately 15 hours per week. Duties include assisting with campaign communications; organizing various meetings and events; tracking enlistment and solicitation assignments and results, campaign commitments, income and expenses; maintenance of campaign records and files; and production of various reports. Qualified candidates must be computer savvy and have working knowledge of Microsoft Office Products (Word, Excel, Access and Publisher), a pleasing and positive personality, excellent communication skills, and should be willing to work a flexible schedule with some evening and weekend work required. Qualified candidates should send a cover letter and/or resume to Fr. Jared at jbrogan@stcatherine-ml.org by December 16. Compensation will be commensurate with experience.

Peace,
Fr. Jared
