Scripture Readings
February 7, 2021
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7
In this passage, Job laments the drudgery and pain all people sometimes experience in life. He talks of troubled days and restless nights. But he does mention that the days move along swiftly, which can remind us that our time here on earth is quite limited and should be well spent.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23
Paul explains to the Corinthians that he has no choice, but must preach the gospel. He tells of making himself all things to all people, in order to save some of them. He reminds them that he does this willingly, in the hope of sharing in the blessings of the gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39
Jesus cured Simon and Andrew's mother of a fever, then others with illnesses or demons came to see him. He cured those who were ill, and cast out the demons of the others. Then he went off and prayed alone until his followers sought him out. Jesus and his disciples then moved on to other villages to proclaim the good news.

Mass Intentions

We are asked to pray for the dead. One way to do this is to have a Mass offered in memory of a loved one. Contact the parish office to schedule, parishoffice@stcatherine-ml.org Offering is $15.

2020 contribution statements will be available by request by the end of February. Please email the office parishoffice@stcatherine-ml.org to receive one.

Redeeming Love:
A Catholic Understanding & Approach to Questions about Identity, Sexuality, and Gender

In today's society, questions about identity abound, especially in the areas of sexuality and gender. Our young people are barraged with messages not so subtly suggesting how they should understand themselves and their feelings. What does Catholic teaching have to offer on these sensitive and critically important questions, and how can we share this with the young people we serve? Find out on Saturday, April 17. TBD whether live or virtual.
