Giving Tuesday Is This Week

On December 1st!

#GIVINGTUESDAY

As we are in the “season of giving”, please consider donating to St. John the Baptist through our #iGiveCatholic online appeal today. These donations will help us in so many ways.

- Offset the cost of our Youth Faith Formation materials. We did not charge our families any fees to participate this year.
- Continued improvement of the landscaping for our property.
- Help reduce our building fund debt.

We are a blessed community. Thank you for your generosity!

Confession & Eucharistic Adoration

Will be available next Saturday

December 5th

2:00 - 3:00 pm

“Humility...it robs your pride of its power.”

Pride leads you into darkness where you can’t see the face of God!

Humility leads you into the light where you can see the face of darkness and flee!

In Christ—Dcn. Severo †

Thanksgiving Reflection Video

Did you get a chance to watch our Thanksgiving Reflection video? It is still available to view on our website and on Facebook.

Thank you to Fr. David, our Music Ministry, Trey Albus, George Esquivel, Morris family, Bolivar family, Diaz family, Grunenwald family, Marrs family, Gauna family, Rodriguez family, Maloney family, Maldonado Family, and Deacon Severo and Noelia Alvarado for coming together to create this video.

Missalettes for the Advent Season are available in the gathering area to take! Since we are working to reduce the spread of illness, these missalettes will be yours to keep and bring with you to Mass, instead of having them shared by everyone each weekend.

Our Youth Faith Formation classes are completed for the 1st Semester of this school year! Classes should begin again sometime in January. That date will be announced at a later time.

We want to extend a heartfelt “Thank You” to all our teachers who have worked so hard to keep our children safe and enriched in our Faith!

Saint Nicholas Day on December 6th recognizes the third-century saint who became an inspiration for the modern-day Santa Claus.

St. Nicholas is known for selling all his possessions and giving his money to the poor. All around the world, children leave their shoes or stockings out the night before in the hopes to find small gifts in the morning.

1st Sunday in Advent Reflection

Do you have a memory of the experience of feeling the presence of God in a moment so electric that it was as if God had “opened the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before him”? Perhaps it was the birth of your child, or the recovery of a lost love, a retreat experience, or a phone call from the exact person you were just thinking about.

We wait for Christ to come again in time, but we long for him to touch us in our own time, our own lives. Think about those blessed moments of spine-tingling awareness that God is HERE, right now, opening doors that seemed closed, showing a way to reconciliation with those who were estranged, gently leading us through new insights and ancient, rock-solid creeds.

Imagine the servants, struggling to stay awake so they can greet the Master with a nice meal and warm hospitality when he returns. I think Advent invites us to stay awake every day, to watch every day for the gentle presence of our Master who is already here.
