THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

An encomium for a good and worthy wife, this passage from Proverbs extols all the virtues which a worthy wife possesses – fidelity, industriousness, skill, charity to the poor, and fear of the Lord.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Once again, Paul reassures the Thessalonians, who are anxious about the coming of Christ, that they need not fear being unprepared because they are “children of light.”

Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus narrates the parable of the talents – in the story, the silver pieces given to the three men. Two of the men invest their coins and double their worth, but the third buries his coins in the ground and earns no return. The message of Jesus is that we must use to the fullest the talents we have received.

HAPPY FEAST OF SAINT CLEMENT

November 23rd

Who Was Saint Clement?

Early Life

- Born circa 35 AD in Roma, Italy, Clement was Italian by birth but grew up in the Roman Empire.
- Son of a Roman Senator named Faustinus.
- Known as Clemens by birth, he picked the Clement name upon his appointment and became the first pope to use this name.

Papacy

- Was known as a great historian.
- Solved many problems between Christians, this started the precedent for the Pope making the rules regarding religious beliefs.
- Started to write and record laws regarding the church.

Banishment and Miracle

- Emperor Trajan banished Clement to Chersonesus, (now in the Ukraine) which was used as a prison colony. There, he had to work hard labor in the mines.
- He arrived to find prisoners dying of dehydration. He followed a lamb and struck an ax in the ground where it stood, which released a clear and steady stream of drinking water. This miracle led prisoners to convert to Christianity.
- He is the Patron Saint of metal workers, stone workers, and sailors.

"Follow the saints because those who follow them will become saints."
