Each year the Missouri Bishops write a letter to all men of the diocese to promote membership in the Knights of Columbus referred to as "the Bishops Blast". Bishop Rice has asked that his letter be given out this weekend. Copies are at each entrance of the church.

Due to everyone's generosity these past several weeks, $1897 was raised for the school and $1631 for the Bereavement fund. May God abundantly bless you for your kindness and support!

Anyone interested in learning more about our faith, become a Catholic, or already a Catholic and needs to be confirmed are welcome to attend our RCIA classes beginning mid September. Registration forms can be found at the main entrance of the church, or you can call the parish office @ 748-5183.

PSR Classes will be starting soon. If your child is not attending Catholic School, PSR is a requirement for your child to receive future Sacraments. Registration forms can be found at the main entrance of the church. As soon as we have everything finalized, we will announce the start of the classes.
