St. Benilde Catholic Church....Rooted and Built Up in Christ

For the past 60 years the Archdiocese of New Orleans Holy Name Society has been broadcasting nightly, at 6:00 pm, the rosary on AM Radio Station 600. All are welcome to join the Society in the St. Benilde library on Wednesday, October 23.

St. Benilde's Boy Scout Troop recently promoted Caden Cruthirds to Eagle Scout, the Boy Scout of America's highest rank.

Caden has been involved in St. Benilde's troop for 8 years. During that time, he has participated in different service projects and learned a wide variety of information. He earned 40 merit badges to prepare him for different things later in life. His Eagle Project was to refresh the St. Francis statue in our courtyard behind the Parish Center which made the area much more inviting for prayer.

Earning the rank of Eagle Scout represents more than just an achievement, it signifies a commitment to the Scout Oath and Law, a dedication to serving our community and a lifelong pursuit of personal growth to always be prepared and help others in need. Congratulations Caden!
