Is God calling you to deeper discipleship? The Lay Pastoral Ministry Program is sponsored by the Archdiocese and equips lay Catholics with the knowledge and skills you need to evangelize, teach and serve more effectively. Evening and Saturday classes, flexible components and part time studies let you maintain family and work commitments while you discern God’s call and prepare for new opportunities. Cincinnati locations include the main campus in Mt. Washington and Good Shepherd Community in Montgomery, with classes beginning in August. Call 513-231-1200 for information or to set up an interview.

From the Pastor’s Desk

In the charity of your prayers, please pray for the soul of Pat Niehaus, whose Funeral Mass was on Thursday, June 8th.

Due to overwhelming success, tickets from the June 11th riverboat cruise are sold out and no longer available.

Mark your calendars and plan to go to Italy with Fr. Barry in the fall of next year, October 2-12, 2018 for five days in Florence and five days in Rome with side trips. If you are interested in an itinerary, call the office at 513-871-1162.

Care for Creation: “I would like, from the outset, to show how faith convictions can offer Christians and some other believers, as well, ample motivation to care for nature and for the most vulnerable of their brothers and sisters. If the simple fact of being human moves people to care for the environment of which they are a part, Christians in their turn ‘realize that their responsibility within creation, and their duty towards nature and the Creator, are an essential part of faith.’” — Pope Francis, Laudate Si, no. 64

The Little Sisters of the Poor (476 Riddle Rd, 45220) are currently hiring for an STNA and LPN—part-time/full-time, evenings/nights, must be state certified; and a receptionist—part-time, outgoing and dependable, must be able to multi-task, interacts daily with resident, employees, and guests. For information and to apply, please call Beverly Manning at 513-281-8001.

Missionary Organizations in the U.C. seeking short-term or long-term volunteers in the U.S. or overseas—Are you seeking meaningful retirement? Are you a youth or family with mission interested? Parishioners 16-75 years of age can volunteer abroad or in the U.S. for the short or long term. Did you know there are 200 Catholic missionary organization in the U.S. seeking volunteers? Opportunities include: several weeks of housing rehab work in the Southwest or Appalachia, to several months serving food banks and shelter in Florida, to a year of ESL teaching in China, to three years with Maryknoll in Africa. For more information, contact: Catholic Network of Volunteer Services at 800-543- 5046 or www.catholicvolunteernetwork.org. Also, contact Dr. Mike Gable at our Archdiocesan Mission Office for advice and for more details. Call Dr. Gable at 513-421-3131 ext. 2630 or mission@catholiccincinnati.org.

If you and your spouse are celebrating your 25th, 50th, or 60th wedding anniversary in 2017, please let us know by calling the office.

Would you like to remember St. Rose in your will? It is one way to say thank you for the many things for which you have been given.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. John 3:16-18

Opening Prayer

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflecting on Living the Gospel

God chose to create and redeem humanity in an unequalled act of love. Divine Life and love extend beyond the inner intimacy of the three Persons of the Holy Trinity to us in an eternal, shared love drawing us toward a fuller share in God. The mystery of the Trinity calls us to go both beyond ourselves and deeper into ourselves—to an intimacy with God that delights us and brings us to share that delight with others. Thus is the Trinitarian grace, love, and fellowship manifested in our midst. God is triune mystery, yes! But even more mystery-laden is that God shares divine Self with us in such a gracious manner and “receives us” as God’s very own.

It seems as though God’s graciousness never ends—not only with sending the Son, but further with inviting us into a share in divine Life and love. In this context of shared Life and love we might think of the simple, ordinary ways we reach out to others—a smile, a helping hand, a kind word—as ways we actually manifest the mystery and majesty of our triune God. Such love as this can only be matched by those who share in divine Life! We are to be in relationship with each other as the three divine Persons of the Holy Trinity are in relationship with each other. This sounds impossible to us humans who experience hurts, broken relationships, lack of graciousness so much of the time. Perhaps this is why the mystery of the Holy Trinity has been revealed to us: as God’s beloved who have been saved by the Son and given Life in the Spirit, as those created in God’s image, as those who share their delighted hearts.

Closing Prayers

May we strive to knit all believers together into a self-giving community of love.

May we more fully express our belief in Jesus by living as he did.

Our Father . . .

For Reflection:

- I experience God’s love and Presence when . . . This helps me love and be present to others in that . . .
- I experience God as a loving trinity of Persons when . . .

Suggestions for group and individual use:

1. Pray aloud the opening prayer (in The Roman Missal called the “collect”);
2. One person read aloud the gospel;
3. Each read prayerfully “Reflecting on Living the Gospel” and spend some time in personal prayer;
4. Share together responses to “For Reflection”;
5. Pray the “Closing Prayers.”

Gospel

John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.
