Increased Offertory Program

Thank you to all parishioners who have completed and submitted your Commitment Card to the church. As a reminder, all commitments need to be submitted to the church no later than March 26th in order to be accounted for in the final Summary Report. Please complete and submit your card to the church even if you are unable to make a change to your current level of giving. For those registered parishioners not currently supporting the church with regular offertory gifts, please consider a monthly gift to support the needs of our parish.

ENCOUNTER NUTRITION

We encounter Evelina in Zambia as she and other mothers in her community learn new ways to provide nutritious meals for their growing children and families. How do we ensure that those who are hungry have not only food but true nourishment? Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Giving has never been easier!

Our parish is offering Online Giving, a web-based electronic contribution application. We are providing this service so that you have the option to manage your contributions online or with your offering envelopes. This service is safe and secure. And it is convenient for you and for our parish staff. Schedule recurring gifts or make one-time donations on any device – computer, tablet, smartphone. You can also pay for things like your Tricky Tray tickets! To begin using online giving, go to: www.osvonlinegiving.com/4284. You can also download the App: "Online Giving Our Sunday Visitor".

Mary's Rosary Circle

We pray the rosary for healing of anyone in need of God's help, especially for cures and preventions of cancer patients. The circle meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month, meeting in the Chapel at 6:30 PM. All are welcome to attend—everyone's prayers are needed.

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ, Msgr. T. Mark Condon

Second Sunday of Lent
"Jesus . . . led them up a high mountain by themselves"

In the midst of busy days and the pressing needs of daily life it is easy to let the days of Lent pass by without making the best of them. Lent is a special time of grace that gives us the opportunity to examine our lives and to do our very best to make sure that our relationship with God is the most important truth in our lives. Every day of Lent is a day to remember how vital it is to be open to the power of the Holy Spirit so that we are guided by the gospel of Jesus Christ above all else.

We are still at the beginning of Lent; there are four more Sundays of Lent left; there is still time to make this season a time of grace and renewal. Days fly by, the spring approaches and Easter will be here quickly. It is important that we not lose the opportunity to use Lent to deepen our relationship with the Lord. If you are looking for something to do that will make this Lent an especially deep experience of your faith, think about taking part in daily Mass or at least taking part in Mass one additional day a week. When we take part in daily Mass, we appreciate the richness of the readings of Lent as the mysteries of our salvation are unfolded for us each day. Daily Mass helps us to see how close God's presence is to us and how God reveals himself to us each day in many ways. Through daily Mass, Christ leads us up the mountain with him to teach us, to draw us closer to himself through his word and through the gift of his Body and Blood in the Eucharist.

Even though Easter Sunday is five weeks away, today's gospel gives us a glimpse of the glory that Christ will definitively reveal through his life-giving death, his resurrection from the dead and ascension into heaven. Our reading from Matthew's gospel on this Second Sunday of Lent tells us that, "Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother and led them up a high mountain by themselves" (Matthew 17:1). The Lord wants this experience of the Transfiguration that the disciples are about to have to be especially intense; as he takes them up the mountain they move closer toward the heavens and to the place where God reveals himself in a unique way. It is easy to recall Moses going up the mountain to receive God's law.

Now, in Jesus something more will be revealed of God's intention to redeem his people through his Son. Now on the mountain, in the place where God dwells, the disciples are given a remarkable, even stunning, look at the true glory of the Master they have been following: "And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light" (17:2). The disciples must have been awed by the majestic glory of God as Jesus is transfigured in glory before them. But there was even more than this dazzling light to see, "And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him" (17:4). Jesus speaks with these two great figures of the Old Testament; Moses, liberator of the people of Israel from slavery and Elijah, the great prophet, who stands as the representative of all of those prophets of old who told of the coming of the Messiah. Jesus is the new and definitive liberator of God's people from sin and death.

This experience of the transfiguration must have been almost bewildering to the disciples; not uncharacteristically, Peter seems especially out of sorts, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" (17:4). Peter, no doubt wants to do something to honor the presence of these singularly important figures in the history of Israel. But Peter, it seems, was cut off in mid-sentence: "While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him'" (17:5). Having seen that the law and the prophets pointed toward the Son of God as the Messiah, the Deliverer, through the presence of Moses and Elijah, now the disciples are prepared by God's own voice to understand that the Son of God, Jesus Christ, will need to suffer bitterly and die before the full meaning of God's plan is revealed in the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

Of course, the disciples were overwhelmed by this revelation by God, "When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, 'Rise, and do not be afraid.' And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone" (17:6-8). As at the beginning of the Transfiguration, when Jesus took them up the mountain, the disciples are once again alone with Jesus. They are the ones who are to stand with him in the moments of his testing, his passion, and his death. They are given this experience of the Transfiguration to strengthen them and to give them hope and trust in God's mercy as they will see their dreams for Christ and liberation for their people smashed and destroyed in the most brutal terms. Even with this remarkable experience of the Transfiguration the disciples will fail. They will leave Christ in solitary isolation in the agony and death that lies before him.

We too have the hope of the resurrection revealed to us through God's word and the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Eucharist. Beginning Lent with fervor, we can quickly grow tired of trying to address those issues in our lives where we need to work harder in order to deepen our relationship with the Lord. Lent is a difficult course but if observed as faithfully as possible it will lead to a joyful Easter. In our second reading for this liturgy, Saint Paul reminds us to take heart and to be strong in the gospel we have received: "Bear your share of hardship for the gospel and with the strength that comes from God" (2 Timothy 1:8). The Lord Jesus reveals his love to us in so many ways, we pray for the grace to respond to that revelation of his love by making this Lent a time of reconciliation and healing by embracing God's mercy. As the days of Lent pass by we have the opportunity to encourage one another along the way so that we remember that the witness of our own faith might be the witness that others have been waiting for in order to deepen their own relationship with the Lord. May this Lent lead us to an Easter of joy and renewal.

Welcome Home to Healing
Monday evening confession

Bishop Serratelli has asked all parishes of the Diocese of Paterson to have confessors available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation on the Monday evenings of Lent between 7:00-8:30. If you have been reluctant to come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, have been away from confession for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to re-connect with Christ and his Church. There is no such thing as having been away from confession "too long" to come back. Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation is the opportunity to let go of burdens that many carry for a long time. The Lord of mercy is always ready to pardon, to heal, and to welcome you home to his embrace. Please think about using Lent as an opportunity to celebrate sacramental confession and absolution.

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Stations of the Cross
Friday evenings of Lent

"We adore You O Christ and we praise You because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world." Those familiar words from the Stations of the Cross remind us that the Lord's redemption of sinners through the pouring forth of his blood on the cross continues for us. The Lord's redemption of us and his drawing of us into friendship with him is experienced in a deep way when we walk with him along the Way of the Cross. Stations of the Cross with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will take place on the Friday evenings of Lent at 7:30 in the church. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration before the Stations of the Cross. The period of Eucharistic adoration will conclude with Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please take some time to make a visit to church for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us for Stations of the Cross, a devotion that helps us to unite ourselves more closely with the Lord on the way to Calvary and to appreciate that the Lord Jesus walks with us as we carry burdens that are, at times, very heavy and who assures us that the crosses that we carry are never the end for us but an opening to eternal life that we will share with the Lord who opened for us the gates of paradise. The Stations of the Cross help to assure us that in our difficulties the Lord walks with us and strengthens us.

Confirmation for Adults
Sessions begin March 16th

Many Catholics have never completed the process of their full initiation into the Church by receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. If you are an adult baptized Catholic and have not been confirmed but would like to be confirmed, please contact the parish office so that you may begin the preparation sessions on March 16TH at 7:00 PM that will lead to receiving the gifts of the Holy Spirit in Confirmation at Easter. It is never too late to take the opportunity to receive the strengthening of the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Happy Saint Joseph's Day
Rosary Society Cannoli Sale

March 19th is the Feast of Saint Joseph, Husband of Mary. We pray for the intercession of Saint Joseph, patron of the universal Church, for our parish. Next weekend the Rosary Society traditionally will set up a Saint Joseph's Table to sell their wonderful cannoli. Thank you to the Rosary Society ladies, and some gentlemen who they have drafted, for all of the work that they have put into making the cannoli. Please take a moment to stop by their tables following Mass next weekend.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor T. Mark Condon

Lenten Regulations on Fast and Abstinence

The Lenten regulations concerning fast and abstinence are as follows:

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence "substantially," or as a whole, is a serious obligation. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty - All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year) extends from the First Sunday of Lent to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity.

Attention 2nd Grade Parents

As weekly mass is an integral part of our lives as Catholics, it is important that our children attend weekly mass. This is especially important as they prepare for the Sacrament of First Eucharist and equally important after they receive their Sacrament. While our parish offers many masses during each weekend for us to attend, during the next several weeks, we require that all children who will soon receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist, attend the Sunday 9:30 AM mass together as a group. Attending mass together began on Sunday, February 26, 2017 and continues through each of the remaining weekends of preparation.

These dates that your children will be attending 9:30 mass together are as follows:

3/12, 3/19, 3/26, 4/2, 4/23, 4/30

We require at least one parent or guardian to accompany and stay with the child during Mass. When you arrive, please sign the attendance form that will be located at the front and rear entrances of the church. After Mass please bring your child to their respective classroom for their weekly instruction.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

We Are STILL in NEED of Catechists!

Our ability to provide effective programming for so many of our children enrolled in our program is only made possible if we have enough volunteers to serve as catechists. Please carefully review the information in the registration letter with regard to our need for Catechists and return the Catechist Volunteer Form that was enclosed in the registration packet to the ministry center ASAP. If you would like more detailed information about becoming a catechist, please contact Trish at pfiliaci@gmail.com or leave a message at the Parish Ministry Center 973-256-5200.
