FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

“I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE”

Another beautiful reading from John’s Gospel on this Fifth Sunday of Lent; it is a fitting beginning to the last full week of Lent. Soon it will be Palm Sunday and we will hear the Passion of our Lord and then move into the days of Holy Week and the days of the Sacred Triduum that stand as the most important in the liturgical year. But this week we have a glimpse of the meaning of all that is yet to unfold in the days ahead. We are on a journey with Jesus toward his cross and resurrection.

In our gospel this week, Jesus is confronted by a problem, a sorrow that we all have faced or certainly will: the death of a loved one. Lazarus, Martha, and Mary, a brother and two sisters who are a part of the Lord’s circle of friends are about to teach us the meaning of faith in the Lord Jesus. When Lazarus falls ill, his sisters send for Jesus: “Master, the one you love is ill” (John 11:3). At the beginning of the amazing events that are about to take place as a result of this message Jesus reveals something vital: “This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it” (11:4). Jesus walks his disciples, and Martha, and Mary through various aspects of what it means to have faith as he proceeds to raise Lazarus from the dead and give him a new lease on life: “And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him” (11:15). Thomas, who would later doubt the Lord’s own resurrection from the dead understands almost immediately that the things that are about to take place are going to have dire consequences for the Lord himself: “So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, ‘Let us also go to die with him’ ” (11:16). Thomas is right. This raising of Lazarus from the dead will finally convince the enemies of Jesus that they need to put an end to him; his power and renown now definitively threaten their own.

Martha does not even wait for Jesus to arrive. When she hears that he is nearby she runs out to meet him: “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask God, God will give you” (11:21). Here expressed is Martha’s absolute faith in the saving power of Jesus. Martha goes on to express her faith in the resurrection of the dead “on the last day” (11:24). Jesus uses this moment to express to Martha and all of us the true meaning of the resurrection: it is a reality that is present in the person of Jesus Christ: “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who believes in me will never die” (11:25-26). Martha’s sister Mary too ran quickly to Jesus when she heard that he was nearby and also expresses her faith in Jesus: “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died” (11:32). When Jesus sees Mary’s grief he is himself deeply moved by it: “he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, ‘Where have you laid him?’ ” (11:33). The “crowd” in John’s gospel always represents the antagonists of Jesus and they are never at a loss to criticize, deride, and doubt the Lord’s intentions and they do not disappoint on this occasion: “Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?” (11:37). But Jesus is not one to be intimidated by such disbelief, antagonism, and accusation: “So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, ‘Take away the stone’ ” (11:38-39). As that stone is rolled back, Jesus is about to crush the power of disbelief and death.

As we move toward Palm Sunday and Holy Week, we can take hope in knowing that death is never the final word. The final word for all of us is in the person of Jesus Christ who conquers all things, even death. Our goal through this Lent has been to grow in deeper friendship, communion, with the Lord so that our own faith grows stronger and we are better able to understand the power that faith in him has. Faith in the Lord has the tremendous power to banish fear, and doubt, and most of all despair. If we have trust in the Lord Jesus he will roll back the stones that keep us from knowing the fullness of life and joy that he alone makes possible.

WELCOME HOME TO HEALING

MONDAY EVENING CONFESSION

Bishop Serratelli has asked all parishes of the Diocese of Paterson to have confessors available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation on the Monday evenings of Lent between 7:00-8:30. If you have been reluctant to come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, have been away from confession for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to re-connect with Christ and his Church. There is no such thing as having been away from confession “too long” to come back. Celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation is the opportunity to let go of burdens that many carry for a long time. The Lord of mercy is always ready to pardon, to heal, and to welcome you home to his embrace. Please think about using Lent as an opportunity to celebrate sacramental confession and absolution.

BENEDICTION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT AND STATIONS OF THE CROSS
FRIDAY EVENINGS OF LENT

"WE ADORE YOU O CHRIST AND WE PRAISE YOU BECAUSE BY YOUR HOLY CROSS YOU HAVE REDEEMED THE WORLD." Those familiar words from the Stations of the Cross remind us that the Lord's redemption of sinners through the pouring forth of his blood on the cross continues for us. The Lord's redemption of us and his drawing of us into friendship with him is experienced in a deep way when we walk with him along the Way of the Cross. STATIONS OF THE CROSS WITH BENEDICTION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT WILL TAKE PLACE ON THE FRIDAY EVENINGS OF LENT AT 7:30 IN THE CHURCH. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration before the Stations of the Cross. The period of Eucharistic adoration will conclude with Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please take some time to make a visit to church for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us for Stations of the Cross, a devotion that helps us to unite ourselves more closely with the Lord on the way to Calvary and to appreciate that the Lord Jesus walks with us as we carry burdens that are, at times, very heavy and who assures us that the crosses that we carry are never the end for us but an opening to eternal life that we will share with the Lord who opened for us the gates of paradise. The Stations of the Cross help to assure us that in our difficulties the Lord walks with us and strengthens us.

THANK YOU
ROSARY SOCIETY CANNOLI SALE

Thank you to the Rosary Society ladies, and some gentlemen who they have drafted, for making the cannoli sale such a great success. The devotion of the Rosary Society to our parish and their selfless work of putting together the Cannoli sale each year is a great gift to our parish. Thank you!

INCREASED OFFERTORY
CELEBRATING THE LIVING GOD WITH GRATEFUL HEARTS

Thank you to all of those who have participated in our increased offertory plans. Your increased support of our parish is a gift that helps to provide for our stability and growth into the future. Your participation is vital and important. Please consider taking part in the increased offertory plan if you have not already done so.

For the Christian, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the event that makes sense of all of the experiences of our lives – because of his triumph over sin and death we share divine life and the hope of life with him in eternity. We care for one another along the journey of faith.

Through the sacraments we share in God's own life. That is why the Church that Jesus Christ founded is so important; through her we celebrate the life giving mysteries that Jesus Christ gave us and we are united as a community of believers who care for others.

When we celebrate the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, we stand before the inexhaustible power of God's love; humbling is the truth that we participate in God's life strengthened by the Sacramental life of the Church. Our parish is the center of those celebrations.

As pastor it is my responsibility to help our parish sustain the vibrancy of our community of faith through our deepening faith in the Living God. We all share in that goal. Your generosity and goodness has never failed in helping us meet the many challenges we have faced in caring for the temporal needs of our parish. I thank you and keep you in prayer always, especially at Mass.

Your generosity to your parish has never failed. No one can do everything but everyone can do something to maintain a bright future for our parish. Your goodness will return to you as a blessing.

Fast and Abstinence
© J. S. Prida Co., Inc.

Lenten Regulations on Fast and Abstinence

The Lenten regulations concerning fast and abstinence are as follows:

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence "substantially," or as a whole, is a serious obligation. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty - All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year) extends from the First Sunday of Lent to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity.

WELCOME HOME TO HEALING

RECONCILIATION ON MONDAY NIGHTS
THROUGHOUT LENT

Attention 2nd Grade Parents

As weekly mass is an integral part of our lives as Catholics, it is important that our children attend weekly mass. This is especially important as they prepare for the Sacrament of First Eucharist and equally important after they receive their Sacrament. While our parish offers many masses during each weekend for us to attend, during the next several weeks, we require that all children who will soon receive the Sacrament of First Eucharist, attend the Sunday 9:30 AM mass together as a group. Attending mass together began on Sunday, February 26, 2017 and continues through each of the remaining weekends of preparation.

These dates that your children will be attending 9:30 mass together are as follows:

4/2, 4/23, 4/30

We require at least one parent or guardian to accompany and stay with the child during Mass. When you arrive, please sign the attendance form that will be located at the front and rear entrances of the church. After Mass please bring your child to their respective classroom for their weekly instruction.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

We Are STILL in NEED of Catechists!

Our ability to provide effective programming for so many of our children enrolled in our program is only made possible if we have enough volunteers to serve as catechists. Please carefully review the information in the registration letter with regard to our need for Catechists and return the Catechist Volunteer Form that was enclosed in the registration packet to the ministry center ASAP. If you would like more detailed information about becoming a catechist, please contact Trish at pfiliaci@gmail.com or leave a message at the Parish Ministry Center 973-256-5200.

Confirmation Program

OUTREACH OPPORTUNITIES

Please see the following list for possible ministry opportunities that all students can become involved with:

Fr. English Food Pans

Please support the Fr. English Center and support a family or two by making a meal for them to enjoy. Food pans and recipes are available during each confirmation session. All pans should be clearly marked with the meal that it contains and they should be brought back to the next month's confirmation session FROZEN.

Altar Servers

This is an important ministry for our parish and your support and involvement once per month is needed! We are especially in need of servers for the Saturday and Sunday evening masses. Please contact the Parish Ministry Center (973-256-5200) if you are interested in becoming an altar server.

Lectors

Readers Wanted! We are in need of lectors to read once per month during one of our liturgies. Please contact the Parish Ministry Center (973-256-5200) if you are interested in becoming a lector.

Our Music Ministry Needs You!

Join us in our Adult and Children's Choirs as we share our love for the Lord and praise Him through music. For more information, contact Stella at 973-256-5200 x-23 or talk to her after mass.

Faith Formation Assistants

Classroom Assistants are needed for our Faith Formation Program. Please contact Trish Filiaci at pfiliaci@gmail.com if you are interested in volunteering.

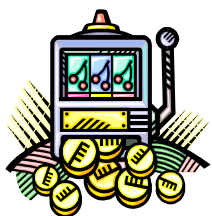

Food Bank

Community food bank dates have been set for this year. It is a wonderful ministry and opportunity to work with others to help feed the hungry. For more specific information about dates and what is involved in this ministry, please contact Laura Sodano at LSodano@CFBNJ.org.

Special Olympic Events

Volunteers are needed for upcoming Special Olympic Events in our area. Please contact Chris Troyano for more specific information: ctroyano@glenridge.org.

Knights Atlantic City Bus Ride

Join the Knights for a day of fun in Atlantic City on Wednesday, April 26th!! We will be leaving at 9:00 AM from the Holy Angels parking lot. Arrive early for complimentary coffee and donuts. All are welcome! Only $30.00 per person, and you receive $25.00 back in Slot Money. You can't beat those odds!! To reserve your seat, please contact John O'Donnell at 973-696-2204.

Children's Books Needed!

We are searching for children's books, appropriate for young children, related to:

God, Creation, Trinity, the Holy Spirit, Jesus, Lent, Easter, Advent, Christmas, Prayer, Discipleship, Forgiveness, Mass, etc...

If you have books at home that you would like to donate, related to any area of our faith, our Faith Formation Sunday Morning program would put them to very good use! All book donations can be dropped off at the Parish Ministry Center.

Thank You!

Catechist Volunteers Needed!!

Your help is greatly needed! Please consider being a Catechist Volunteer for the Faith Formation Program. Choose the weekly Sunday Morning Program or one of the other programs which meet monthly on a Saturday or Sunday afternoon. Please complete the form below.
