FORWARD IN FAITH
A HOPEFUL CAMPAIGN
$135,000 PLEDGED

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR “FORWARD IN FAITH” CAMPAIGN THAT WE ARE BEGINNING IN ORDER TO REPLACE OUR BADLY DAMAGED PARKING LOT. Your support is necessary to complete this essential repair. We already have $135,000 in pledges to date and over half of that has already been fulfilled. For those who have already contributed, thank you. If you have already contributed by making a pledge please complete the form on page 8 in order to reserve your commemorative brick for the Holy Angels Walkway of Remembrance.

I ONCE AGAIN ASK YOU TO MAKE AN INVESTMENT IN OUR PARISH FAMILY. Around the same time as the emergency repairs on the school building three years ago, I had hoped to be able to repair our parking lot. Regrettably, the cost of the estimates I obtained in 2015 has risen between 10%-15%. It will never get any cheaper to repair the parking lot – the cost, now, is well over $225,000.

There was a minor repair made to the parking lot for around $6,000 two years ago to address the most damaged part. I am embarrassed to tell you that was a bad decision on my part. THE PATCH JOB MADE MATTERS EVEN WORSE. The area near the elevator and the chapel now becomes like a lake when it rains and floods in the winter and freezes over. It is not safe.

But as vital as safety is, as essential as the Banyan School and the rental of our property is to our future, that first impression that is made when people come to our parish is not incidental. Repairing a parking lot isn't simply a construction issue. IN A VERY REAL WAY, A PARKING LOT CAN BE VIEWED AS AN EVANGELIZATION TOOL.

A parking lot that has holes, cracks and is unsafe does not present a welcoming message to parishioners and visitors alike. We want and need our facilities to be an expression of happiness and joy and welcome to that family new to the neighborhood who is looking for a Church to join. BECAUSE OF YOUR INCREDIBLE GENEROSITY OVER THE YEARS, WE HAVE MADE VAST IMPROVEMENTS TO THE INTERIOR AND EXTERIOR OF OUR CHURCH. WE CAN BE PROUD OF ALL THAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED. Now, we need to address that final exterior piece – our parking lot.

With your help, the first impression that everyone will get the moment they pull into our Church grounds is that Our Lady of the Holy Angels is a thriving, active and welcoming Catholic faith community and the jewel of Little Falls and star of faith in the Diocese of Paterson that we know it is.

You will recall that when we prepared to renovate the church it was said, “It will never work.” You will remember that before we built the elevator, it was said, “Impossible.” Look around at this building. Look at that elevator – how many would find it impossible to get into this church building without it. You made it happen. We will meet this challenge as well.

I have no doubt that we will make this happen. No one can do everything but everyone can do something. I AM ASKING EVERY HOUSEHOLD TO MAKE A PLEDGE OF $1,200 OVER SIX MONTHS – THAT IS $200.00 A MONTH. THAT IS A VERY SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT. IT IS A SACRIFICE. I UNDERSTAND. BUT YOUR INVESTMENT IS ESSENTIAL AND NECESSARY FOR OUR FUTURE.

Every household that makes an investment in this campaign has the opportunity to have a brick engraved with their name, or in memory of departed loved one, and placed at The Holy Angels Walkway of Remembrance that will be placed near our bell tower – which is, by the way, the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Highway. Each brick is a symbol of our faith and the reality that we all form this community with the strength of our faith built on the foundation stone of Christ.

IN ABOUT THREE WEEKS WE WILL BEGIN THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE FIRST SECTION OF A MONUMENT TO COMMEMORATE YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS AND MEMORIALS IN THIS CAMPAIGN. THE FIRST SECTION IN THIS COMMEMORATIVE MONUMENT, WHICH WILL BE COMPRISED OF A WALL WITH THE BRICKS AFFIXED TO IT, WILL BECOME THE HOLY ANGELS WALKWAY OF REMEMBRANCE. Each household that makes a pledge or a contribution to the campaign will be able to designate a commemorative brick or memorial brick to be inscribed with their name or the names of departed loved ones. Additional bricks may be reserved at $200.00 each. Please take advantage of this opportunity to become part of the permanent history of Our Lady of the Holy Angels Parish.

Please know how grateful I am to you for your support and investment in our future. NO ONE CAN DO EVERYTHING, BUT EVERYONE CAN DO SOMETHING. Most of all, I ask for your prayers for the success of this project and for the security of our future. AS LONG AS WE REMAIN WELCOMING, AND HOPEFUL, WE WILL NOT BE DOWNSIZING, BUT INCREASING THE FAITH, HOPE, AND LOVE THAT WE CELEBRATE AND RECEIVE IN THIS SPECIAL PLACE.

God bless you. Please know of my remembrance of you each time I stand at the altar.

INDIVIDUAL CONFESSION AND POPE FRANCIS MOST REVEREND ARTHUR J. SERRATELLI, S.T.D., S.S.L., D.D. BISHOP OF PATERSON

The summer provides us, hopefully, with an opportunity to slow down a little bit and to reflect upon our lives of faith. One means to make an effective evaluation of our lives of faith is to take the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation through individual confession. Bishop Serratelli's article on the Holy Father's emphasis on the sacrament is a helpful means to encourage more frequent use of the sacrament by all of us.

During the pontificate of the warrior, Julius II, in 1510, Martin Luther visited Rome. On entering the city, he dropped to his knees, exclaiming "Salve, Sancta Roma!" He was in awe of this great city. Here Peter and Paul had walked. Here both apostles preached the gospel. Here the Prince of the Apostles and the Apostle to the Gentiles both died for the faith. Luther went to Rome with pious thoughts of martyrs and saints. He left the city disappointed. The young monk from Erfurt had found a city steeped in sin and corruption.

Luther's stay in Rome left him with little good to praise about the Eternal City. He is reported to have said, "If there be a hell, Rome is built over it." Nothing escaped his stinging criticism. Only one place was spared: the Hospital of the Holy Spirit. Both pilgrims and Romans held this hospital and its adjacent Church of the Holy Spirit in high esteem.

Today, the Church of the Holy Spirit stands across the street from the world headquarters of the Jesuit order. It is one block south of the Via della Conciliazione and one block east of St. Peter's Square. As early as the 8th century, a church stood on the site of the present church. It bore the name Santa Maria in Sassia, because pilgrims were coming from Saxony (Sassia). Here pilgrims from Northern Europe were welcomed to Rome and given both spiritual and material assistance. In the 12th century, Pope Innocent III ordered the very first hospital in Europe dedicated to the Holy Spirit to be built on this site. Thus, today's Church of the Holy Spirit stands on a spot made sacred by a long history of bringing mercy to the body and the spirit of those in need.

Pope Francis is a man of pastoral action. He has taken a cue from the history and location of the Church of the Holy Spirit in Sassia. On December 15, 2013, when he spoke of his program for pastoral reform, he made a surprising request of the senior members of the Roman Curia. He asked them to take turns hearing confessions in this church located a few blocks away from their offices.

The media and the masses have instinctively taken to the way that our Holy Father expresses the heart of gospel, the mercy of God, through visible actions. Images of the Pope's reaching out to the marginalized, the poor and the disabled have warmed the hearts of Catholics and non-Catholics alike. While the media delights to headline his request made of the curia members to hear confessions, the same media give no attention to the Holy Father's words about the value of individual confession.

When it comes to speaking about the mercy of God given to us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Pope Francis has spoken with great clarity; the Holy Father's enthusiastic advocacy for individual confession manifests that he understands the sacrament personally both as penitent and as priest. Again and again, (that is, on April 30, 2013; June 14, 2013; September 30, 2013; October 25, 2013; November 20, 2013; December 15, 2013, and February 19, 2014), the Pope has returned to the theme of individual confession. In the first few months of his pontificate, I dare say, he has spoken about confession more than frequently than any other pope in the same time span. Beneath the headline-catching and common sense daily meditations of our pastor pope, Francis has dished up a healthy portion of sound teaching about the need for confession. I wish to offer a brief overview of solid and needed encouragement that he has given to all of us.

In his famous interview with the Italian Jesuit magazine Civiltà Cattolica, Pope Francis, in characteristically pointed style, said, "I see the Church as a field hospital after a battle." A hospital for the wounded. This is the key to understand the Pope's teaching on confession. It is precisely in the Sacrament of Reconciliation that Christ "heals wounds and warms the hearts of faithful." All of us are sinners. We are wounded and we need to bring our wounds to Christ for healing. The Pope has said that we may "think that going to confession is like going to the dry cleaners to get out a stain, but it isn't. It's an encounter with Jesus who waits for us to forgive us and offer salvation."

Today, in our age of individualism and subjectivism, many people, even faithful Catholics, believe that confession is not necessary. At his weekly general audience on November 20, 2013, Pope Francis confronted this misconception head on. He said, "Certainly, God forgives every repentant sinner, but the Christian is bound to Christ and Christ is united to his Church. God, in his sovereign mercy, forgives everyone, but he wanted those who belong to Christ and his church to receive forgiveness through the community's ministers. Through the presence and words of a priest, penitents have the certainty of forgiveness in the name of the church."

The forgiveness of sins in the Sacrament of Penance is the fruit of the Paschal Mystery. On Easter Sunday night, the Risen Lord appeared to the disciples. They were locked in the Upper Room. "Peace," he said to them. And, then he breathed on them the Holy Spirit, saying "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven" (Jn 20:21-23). That gift of peace through forgiveness of sins is given in the Church through the ministry of her priests.

When we sin, we sin against God and one another. Every sin is not just a "me-and-God" affair. Our sins hurt one another. They dim the luster of the holiness of the Church, the Bride of Christ. In confession, the priest represents the whole Church and all those against whom we have sinned; this is why it is necessary to confess our sins before him.

Very beautifully, the Holy Father reminds us that "forgiveness of our sins is not something we can give ourselves. I cannot say: I forgive my sins. Forgiveness is asked for, is asked of another, and in Confession we ask for forgiveness from Jesus. Forgiveness is not the fruit of our own efforts but rather a gift; it is a gift of the Holy Spirit who fills us with the wellspring of mercy and of grace that flows unceasingly from the open heart of the Crucified and Risen Christ."

To place ourselves humbly and honestly before a priest, to lay bare our soul, is not easy. Many people feel embarrassed at the idea of confessing their sins. Once again, with frank and direct speech, Pope Francis acknowledged this. He said, "Even embarrassment is good. It's healthy to have a bit of shame... it does us good, because it makes us more humble... The sacrament of reconciliation is a sacrament of healing...To go to Confession...is to encounter the love of Jesus with sincerity of heart and with the transparency of children, not refusing, but even welcoming the "grace of shame" that makes us perceive God's forgiveness."

The Pope urges us, "Don't be afraid of confession." What better time than Lent to make a good confession! A general confession of our sinfulness in a communal setting may make us feel good. But, it is naming specific sins that we have committed, asking for forgiveness and receiving the absolution from the priest that leads to true repentance and conversion. So important is the individual confessing his or her sins to the priest, that Pope John Paul II has taught that, "Individual and integral confession and absolution are the sole ordinary means by which the faithful, conscious of grave sin, are reconciled with God and the Church" (Misericordia Dei, April 7, 2002).

In light of the Pope's teaching, it is good to recall what makes for a good individual confession and what does not. The penitent must approach the priest in private, carrying only a repentant heart, the penitent approaches unaccompanied except for the powerful grace of the Holy Spirit that has led him or her to this moment, and confesses all mortal sins in so far as they can be recalled. If there are mortal sins, it is not enough simply to choose one or two. If there are no mortal sins to confess, it is not enough simply to express in a general way one's sinfulness. The penitent must confess sins. Never is it permitted for a family or group of individuals to approach a priest and together make a general statement of sinfulness. This does not constitute the sacrament. In fact, it robs the individual of the gift that the Church is so eager to offer: the gift of personal encounter with our merciful Lord and the grace of true repentance and conversion.

"Concreteness and honesty and a sincere ability to be ashamed of one's mistakes," Pope Francis reminds us, are essential for making a good confession. "There are no shadowy lanes that can serve as an alternative to the open road that leads to God's forgiveness, to the awareness, in the depths of the heart, of His forgiveness and His love."

Pope Francis wisely offers us the Church's rich understanding of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. He does not want us to be the elder son in the Parable of the Prodigal Son, standing on the doorstep of the Father's house and unable to fully participate in his banquet of love. And so, taking his teaching from the Word of God, he reminds us, "Confession of sins, done with humility, is something the Church requires of all of us."
