THE THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

GAUDETE IN DOMINO SEMPER

The Third Sunday of Advent already; these days of Advent cascade by with increasing rapidity. We shouldn't miss the opportunity in this season to immerse ourselves in the beautiful mysteries of our faith. The Third Sunday of Advent is usually everyone's favorite – there is something about it that speaks to us deeply as it takes its name from the Latin entrance antiphon to Mass for this Sunday: "Gaudete Sunday." I can still remember singing the Latin in the seminary: Gaudete in Domino semper: iterum dico, gaudete: modestia vestra nota sit omnibus hominibus: Dominus prope est – to paraphrase this quote from Saint Paul's Letter to the Philippians (4:4-5): "Rejoice in the Lord always: again I say rejoice. Let your good sense be obvious to all. The Lord is nigh." As we now more directly prepare ourselves for the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord, Christmas, Saint Paul gives us good and encouraging advice.

Christmas is a celebration of God's nearness to us in the person of his Son, Jesus Christ. Our first reading for this liturgy from the Prophet Isaiah also takes up our cause for rejoicing in the Incarnation, the Son of God taking on our humanity in flesh and blood: "Those whom the Lord has ransomed will return and enter Zion singing, crowned with everlasting joy; they will meet with joy and gladness, sorrow and mourning will flee" (35:10). In a 2007 homily on Gaudete Sunday, Benedict XVI noted that: "the whole of Advent is an invitation to rejoice because 'the Lord comes,' because he comes to save us." That is the central truth of Advent, God comes to save us. That is why we can rejoice no matter how we feel about life, the future, or the past.

Almighty God is always active in the present calling us to deeper life in Jesus Christ, His Son, through the power of the Holy Spirit. The joyous call of the season can actually be a painful reminder to many rather than a cause for celebration. Those who have lost a loved one, or suffer from poor health, a broken relationship, or a lost job can almost feel like the Advent and Christmas season taunts them when they are at their lowest. That is understandable.

In the midst of our own preparations for Christmas we are called to take up the task of John the Baptist ourselves so that it may be said of us as the Lord Jesus said of the Baptist: "Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way before you" (Matthew 11:10). Our task is to make a pathway open for the Lord to travel thus giving others something to rejoice about by encountering his presence in us, faithful disciples sustained by his word and strengthened by his sacraments, particularly the Eucharist. No one can solve all problems, either for individuals or for society generally, but there are opportunities that we have every day to put our faith into action by lightening the burdens of others and showing them that even in difficulty or anxiety we can rejoice because of the nearness of God and the strength that he gives us. But it takes patience and perseverance. That is why the words of Saint James' Letter are so appropriate for Advent and the whole year: "Be patient brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm because the coming of the Lord is at hand" (5:7-8). As we move closer to Christmas we pray for the grace to always patiently rejoice in the presence of God in our lives and that we respond to his call with the gift of our lives to do his will for us.

ANNUAL COLLECTION FOR RETIRED RELIGIOUS

The annual collection for Retired Religious is among the collections to which the members of our parish are most generous. That is as it should be. Women and men who have committed themselves to consecrated life through profession of the evangelical counsels are a blessing for the Church. They are a living sign for all of us in what it means to live our baptismal vocation to be the presence of Christ for others. For many, many years the religious of the United States, particularly religious women, built the Catholic School system, built Catholic hospitals, served orphans, the sick, and the destitute. They did all of this out of love for the Lord and his Church. A decrease in their numbers has, in part, led to radical changes in the way that the Church approaches those ministries where religious played so vibrant a role.

Those who entered religious life as very young women and men never could have imagined that they themselves would need to ask for help just to survive. They always lived very modestly, asking little of the institutions where they served, and in many cases they were given virtually no monetary stipend. But with convents, monasteries, and motherhouses bursting at the seams with vocations in the 1930's, 40's, 50's, and even into the early 60's the sheer number of members of their communities actively serving various apostolates made care for the ill and firm of their communities certain. Those days are over. Today, the many religious communities of our country are caring for an aging population and with severely diminished vocations. First of all, we all need to pray for an increase of vocations to religious life. Religious life is a difficult life but it is a beautiful life and I know that religious now serving would tell you of the deep joy found in serving the Lord in religious communities dedicated totally to the care of others. Second, we need to care for these religious who have cared for us, teaching us, attending to us in illness, and being an example of what it means to be a disciple of the Lord Jesus.

THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION IN ADVENT

Our parish reconciliation liturgy with individual confession and absolution takes place on Saturday, December 17, 2022 at 10:00-12:00. The Sacrament of Penance, Reconciliation, is a wonderful way to prepare for the Christmas celebration with a heart and mind renewed and freed from heavy burdens. In the Sacrament of Reconciliation we humbly confess our sinfulness and ask pardon from the Lord Jesus and his Church. People will often say that they have been away from confession "too long." Not possible. The Lord is always waiting for us with the gift of his merciful love that brings us healing and wholeness.

CALENDAR RAFFLES

Another fundraising request . . . this season, particularly, you have been inundated with requests for help. Thank you for all that you have contributed to the many good works of the Church and our parish, specifically. One more request . . . the response to our calendar raffle has been very good so far but we hope to do more than just break even. If we sell one thousand more raffles we will make a $10,000 profit for our parish. One thousand more raffles sounds overwhelming but we have already sold over five hundred. If everyone who comes through our doors on the weekend buys just one ticket at $10.00 a piece we will do very well. I thank all of those who have participated in the calendar raffle and I thank you for your never failing generosity and goodness.

CHRISTMAS FLOWER MEMORIALS

Our church is always decorated so beautifully for Christmas. Christmas Flower Memorial envelopes are available at the doors of the church. Please print the names of departed loved ones on the envelope and return it to the collection or parish office by December 19, 2022. The names of those memorialized through the Christmas flowers will be placed in a Christmas Book of Remembrance. Thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor T. Mark Condon
