FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

“THE LORD, YOUR GOD, SHALL YOU WORSHIP AND HIM ALONE SHALL YOU SERVE”

With Ash Wednesday we entered the holy season of Lent. We are now at the very beginning of our forty-day journey from Ash Wednesday to the great Easter Vigil. Lent is an invitation to conversion of heart. Every season of the liturgical year is filled with grace but Lent forces us to take a long hard look at our relationship with God, his Church, and all of our relationships in general.

Lent is not only a season of introspection. Lent is a season of prayers, fasting, and almsgiving. In other words, we actively do those things that open us to the powerful grace of God so that our hearts are changed.

Lent does demand that we ask ourselves demanding questions but it also requires that we do not grow weary but that we persevere in our commitment to our Lenten devotions so that the Word of God becomes more and more a part of our commitment to construct our lives according to God’s purposes.

What is it that we prize above all else? If we don’t place our relationship with God above all else then we have work to do this Lent. And that is why we have Lent every year. So that we are able to focus our attention on being open to the power of God’s grace for conversion and so that we accept the power of his love as a means of encouragement and hope. The starkness of the season – with its violet colored vestments at Mass – and lack of decoration in church – calls us to examine first things and to strip away everything that does not serve our relationship with God.

Lent challenges us to internalize an essential truth of our faith: we are not given life to simply enjoy its pleasures. We are given life in order that we might live in friendship with God and to serve one another.

Our first reading from the Book of Genesis shows forth the mighty power of God: Almighty God creates from nothing, he brings us into existence through his power: “The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being” (Genesis 2:7). God infuses the breath of his own life in us and we are made to take every breath that we breathe for the glory of his name. But, of course, we are distracted from our God given purpose. It is nothing new; humanity has been led astray from its relationship with God from the very beginning. Selfishness and hubris remain the destructive elements to harm our openness to the love of God.

The serpent in the Book of Genesis can be a stand-in for all of those wrong decisions, those evil intentions, those lost opportunities to live in communion with God that have taken place all through human history. When women and men are tempted to believe that they can take on the status to have full dominion and sovereignty over their own lives, it is never a good thing and always has an unhappy conclusion. When all is well, life is fulfilling, and we feel that we know a lasting and permanent peace. It is tempting to think that we have accomplished this all on our own. That is the mentality that the serpent in the Garden of Eden was counting on: “No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil” (3:5). He was not disappointed, after partaking of the fruit of the tree of good and evil, Adam and Eve realized the folly of their decision: “Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked” (3:7). Their nakedness is indicative of the lack of protection and help that they needed to live. Adam and Eve had decided to throw aside the mantle of God’s love and they were naked, not only physically but spiritually, without it. Now death would exercise its dominion over them. But all was not lost. There would be another opportunity to live in paradise.

All through history, God seeks us, calls us to himself, and asks us to respond to the gift of his love even when we are stubborn and would do otherwise. The LORD sends the gift of his Son, Jesus Christ, into the world through the power of the Holy Spirit in order to redeem us and to set his creation back into proper harmony with him. God’s gifts to us are matchless. The graciousness of God’s self-giving, however, requires that we actively focus our attention and energy on discerning and then doing God’s will.

Though the Son of God, Jesus is also human; he too knows the temptation to power and he knows the inclination to trust in his own power alone. But the Son of God responds perfectly to the will of his Father. As we move through Lent and we hear the readings of the season proclaimed at Mass, we come to understand that God is not only present to us in all of the joys of life but is also present – and sometimes more so – in the burdens we all must carry in one way or another along the Way of the Cross.

It is not coincidental that the gospel that we hear proclaimed today is of the temptation of Jesus in the desert. In the desert, the place of physical and spiritual desolation, Jesus is stripped of all of the trappings of the world; he is alone and in need of God's protection. In the desert he could have easily given into the temptation to believe that a simple affirmative answer to the devil's temptations could have brought him the comfort, even worldly power that could have delivered him from the barren desert. But Jesus, living in perfect communion with his Father, does not give into such illusions. Jesus is the model for all of us who seek to put God first in our lives.

Anything or anyone that we let take the first place that God deserves in our life is always going to lead us toward an unhappy conclusion. The final answer of Jesus to the temptations of the devil in this week's reading in Saint Matthew's Gospel is the perfect reflection for us throughout the days and weeks of Lent: "The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve" (Matthew 4:10). During these grace-filled days of Lent, let us pray to put God first in our lives so that everything else in life finds its proper place.

DAILY MASS FOR LENT

So very often, people ask, "What can I give up for Lent?" It is helpful to give up some food during Lent to remind us to purify from our lives all those things that do not serve our friendship with God. However, one of the best things that anyone can do for Lent is to attend daily Mass. Those who take part in the celebration of the Eucharist daily will tell you that it grounds their day and helps them to find strength and peace that they never knew was possible. If you cannot take part in daily Mass, at least think about taking part in Mass on one extra day each week; I guarantee if you do that you will experience Lent and celebrate Easter in a way that you never have before.

WELCOME HOME TO HEALING MONDAY EVENING CONFESSIONS DURING LENT

Bishop Sweeney has asked all parishes of the Diocese of Paterson to emphasize the special gift of the Sacrament of Reconciliation during the Lenten Season. Because confession is such an important way to prepare for Easter, the Bishop has asked every parish of the Diocese of Paterson to have a confessor available on the Monday evenings of Lent between 7:00-8:30 in the evening. I encourage you to take this opportunity to receive the Lord's healing mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. People often say, "I have been away from confession too long, there is no way I can go." Not true. The Lord is always waiting for us to welcome us home to his healing love. Taking advantage of the grace of sacramental confession will change your heart and renew your relationship with the Lord and his Church. For more information, please visit www.welcomehometohealing.org. The first Monday evening that the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available in the church is February 23, 2026. Please take this opportunity to experience God's mercy and love through sacramental confession. Once you have celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation during Lent your celebration of the Resurrection of Christ from the dead at Easter will bring you special peace and joy.

BENEDICTION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT AND STATIONS OF THE CROSS FRIDAY EVENINGS OF LENT 7:00 PM

"WE ADORE YOU O CHRIST AND WE PRAISE YOU BECAUSE BY YOUR HOLY CROSS YOU HAVE REDEEMED THE WORLD." Those familiar words from the Stations of the Cross remind us that the Lord's redemption of sinners through the pouring forth of his blood on the cross continues for us. The Lord's redemption of us and his drawing of us into friendship with him is experienced in a deep way when we walk with him along the Way of the Cross. STATIONS OF THE CROSS WITH BENEDICTION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT WILL TAKE PLACE ON THE FRIDAY EVENINGS OF LENT AT 7:00 IN THE CHURCH. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for adoration before the Stations of the Cross. The period of Eucharistic adoration will conclude with Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please take some time to make a visit to church for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us for Stations of the Cross, a devotion that helps us to unite ourselves more closely with the Lord on the way to Calvary and to appreciate that the Lord Jesus walks with us as we carry burdens that are, at times, very heavy and who assures us that the crosses that we carry are never the end for us but an opening to eternal life that we will share with the Lord who opened for us the gates of paradise. The Stations of the Cross help to assure us that in our difficulties the Lord walks with us and strengthens us.

MESSAGE OF POPE LEO XIV FOR LENT

Lent is a time in which the Church, guided by a sense of maternal care, invites us to place the mystery of God back in the center of our lives, in order to find renewal in our faith and keep our hearts from being consumed by the anxieties and distractions of daily life.

Every path towards conversion begins by allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit. There is a relationship between the word, our acceptance of it and the transformation it brings about. For this reason, the Lenten journey is a welcome opportunity to heed the voice of the Lord and renew our commitment to following Christ, accompanying him on the road to Jerusalem, where the mystery of his passion, death and resurrection will be fulfilled.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor T. Mark Condon
Pastor

WELCOME HOME TO HEALING

RECONCILIATION ON MONDAY NIGHTS
THROUGHOUT LENT

This Lenten season, each Catholic parish in the Diocese of Paterson will have Confession available every Monday evening from 7:00-8:30 PM. If you have been reluctant to come to the Sacrament, have been away for some time or just found it difficult to get to a Saturday afternoon Confession time, this is a wonderful opportunity to reconnect with Christ and His Church. Don't be afraid! Information will be provided. Ask the priest to help you. Experience the gracious mercy of God!

www.WelcomeHomeToHealing.org

Stations of the Cross & Adoration with Benediction

Stations OF THE CROSS Each Friday evening of Lent we will have Stations of the Cross followed by Eucharistic adoration with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament at 7:00 PM in the church. Please take some time to make a visit to church for this most blessed occasion.

Lenten Regulations on Fast and Abstinence

The Lenten regulations concerning fast and abstinence are as follows:

The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted. Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast. On a day of abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence. The obligation to observe the laws of fast and abstinence "substantially," or as a whole, is a serious obligation. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty - All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year) extends from the First Sunday of Lent to the Solemnity of the Holy Trinity.

Our Faith Formation Program Needs Your Support!

As we begin to plan for the upcoming faith formation year, we need to ensure that we have enough catechists (teachers) in place prior to opening 2026-2027 registration.

The sessions for the children are now conducted from the convenience of your home through 40-minute Zoom reviews every few weeks. Grades 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 have only SIX sessions in total for the year. Our confirmation candidates and first communicants have a few more sessions, as both groups of children are preparing to receive sacraments. The reviews are prepared for you and easy to follow as a conversation with the children about what they have already learned while working at home in their eBooks. As stated, we cannot open registration in the Spring unless we have enough catechists to work with the children. PLEASE consider joining this integral ministry and thank you in advance for your involvement.

Please contact Patricia Filiaci, our Coordinator of Faith Formation, for more details: pfiliaci@gmail.com. Thank You!

Rosary for the Sick

Rosary will be said for the sick of our world on the first and third Thursdays of the month. This will take place in the Chapel following the 11:45 AM Mass. Please join us as everyone's prayers are needed.
