2001 – SEPTEMBER 11 – 2026

A generation has passed, twenty-five years, since September 11, 2001. Those who witnessed the horrors of that day will never forget the experience; the feelings of anger, and sorrow, and helplessness are still vivid. It was a day that evoked the strongest of emotional responses and left us groping for firm ground amidst so much evil. Pointless destruction that led to death for the unsuspecting. Witnessing the tragedy from a distance, I remember today the words of the Psalm that came to mind, “The LORD examines the righteous, but the wicked, those who love violence, he hates with a passion” (Psalm 11:5). The Lord is not far from us as evil has its way; he provides comfort and consolation amidst the blinding pain. God’s love always prevails.

On September 11, 2001, acts of generous selflessness and heroism diminished cruel and pointless violence. Amidst the horrible agony and suffering, the bravery of firefighters, police officers, emergency workers, who willingly put themselves in harm’s way for the sake of others, strangers in fact, was a witness to the power of good conquering evil. After twenty-five years, the memory of unspeakable acts of murderers still bring to surface a searing sadness. The Christian, however, always looks forward with hope. We must never allow hate to stamp out justice based on love.

The death and resurrection of Jesus Christ promises us that life will always have the upper hand over death. Christ did battle with death and vanquished its power. Even the abrupt brutality of those who take innocent life are no match for the love of God, “and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us” (Romans 5:5). We believe that the goodness of God will ever prevail.

We live with confidence in the strength of goodness and with the bright hope that comes from the power of divine light in the midst of darkness. Those who rely upon the power of evil are always in the end vanquished by the darkness they seek to create and spread. We place our confidence in the saving power of God’s mercy: “Let us fall into the hands of the Lord, not into any human clutches; for as his majesty, so too his mercy” (Ecclesiasticus 2:18).

So many in this area knew someone who perished on 9/11 or know someone who lost a loved one or a friend on a day that dawned with the promise that each new day holds. Those who were lost remain close to our hearts and prayers, as are those who continue to live with the sorrow of a family member or friend lost.

We mark the twenty-fifth anniversary with prayers for the dead, grieving, and we also pray for the gift of God’s peace and ask for the blessing of God on the United States of America. We pray for peace in our world. The words of the psalmist commend us to face the future with a vision informed by God’s purposes, “I will listen to what God the LORD says; he promises peace to his people, his faithful servants— but let them not turn to folly” (Psalm 85:8).

At the conclusion of the Universal Prayer, following the recitation of the Creed, this week, we will have a moment of total silence for all of those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001. Sometimes we lose sight of the value of silence in our prayer. This moment of silence helps us to focus on the gift of God’s life poured out for us, through the power of the Holy Spirit, in the gift of his Son, Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. In this moment of silence, we reflect too on the precious gift of life that was given to us by God and we pray for those souls who had their lives stolen from them in an act of cruelty that remains almost unimaginable.

We pray that the silence of this moment gives honor to both God and the sacred memory of those who perished in the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. In this moment of silence, we lift them up in prayer to Almighty God and pray that God’s mercy will gather them to himself so that they live in his presence forever.

It is not incidental that we commemorate one of the most tragic events in our history: the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. Memory is vital for our self-identity as a nation and our ability to learn from history’s lessons. Holocaust Survivor and Nobel

Peace Prize Laureate, Elie Wiesel, wrote, "Without memory, there is no culture. Without memory, there would be no civilization, no society, and no future." We remember not only events, more importantly, lives, each one precious before God.

The heart remembers. As I prepared to write this column, I thought of two men I knew who perished on September 11, 2001 each in one of the towers. James P. Ladley (1959-2001), whose wedding to my cousin Sheri Hawke I presided over in 1996 and Daniel F. McGinley (1960-2001) who was two years ahead of me in the seminary at Seton Hall and chose another path of life after graduation. In researching their names now, it feels almost if you are doing excavation for a history project long removed from our present concerns. For those who love them still, I am sure that the pain of the loss can feel brand new and the void of absence bottomless with each missed birthday, anniversary, and milestone in the lives of their children. The heart does remember and God's love promises that the departed are always as close to us as a prayer. James was forty-two years old, with two young children; Danny was forty, with five children. Today, both would probably be thinking about retirement and grandchildren. That was all robbed from them and their families. On that day, 2,975 other families were left to grapple with the same loss. We honor their memories not to feed a spirit of vengeance but rather one of love. Their names are sacred to the hearts of their loved ones and always known to God.

We continue to mourn the destruction of the lives, the hopes and dreams, of almost three-thousand human beings, given life by God, created in his image, imbued with God given dignity and a member of the human family destined by God for life eternal. Even in the midst of tragedy and sorrow our hearts are raised in thanksgiving to God for the gift of each human life as we marvel and find consolation along with the psalmist in God's continued remembrance of his creation: "What is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him?" (Psalm 8:7)

On this sad anniversary our first thoughts must turn to the sacred memory of those who lost their lives on that clear, bright late summer morning; we pray that the God of all mercy gathers them to himself and that they live forever in "a place of refreshment, light and peace" (Eucharistic Prayer I). We remember especially all of those who lost their lives as they selflessly rushed to the assistance of their brothers and sisters in their hour of distress: firefighters, police officers, and emergency workers.

We also lovingly pray for the loved ones of the departed who remain. The wound of piercing finds temperance by the passage of years but time will never dim the sacred memory of those who were lost nor fill the void of painful absence created for thousands of families.

In our remembrance of past loss that is ever vivid, we consecrate ourselves to honoring the departed by praying and working for peace. Still bearing the wounds of his cruel death, the Risen Lord stood in the midst of his disciples with the gift of his presence: "Peace be with you" (Luke 24:37). We pray for peace and deliverance from evil. Each time that we pray the Our Father, we pray, "deliver us from evil." It is our certain Christian hope that evil can be overcome through the power of God's grace, which has flooded the world through the saving passion, death, and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Twenty-five years later, we remember, we believe and we open our hearts to the power of God's grace so that each of us may be instruments of peace and reconciliation in our nation and our world.

May God bless the United States of America, through the intercession of our patroness, the Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of Peace. Eternal rest grant to all of the victims of September 11th and may perpetual light shine upon them. Amen.

DIOCESAN MINISTRIES APPEAL BE A GOOD SAMARITAN

In the days ahead, we will begin our participation in the Diocesan Ministries Appeal. Along with all of the parishes of the Diocese of Paterson, we are beginning the Diocesan Ministries Appeal (formerly called the Bishop's Annual Appeal).

The generosity of our parish community in last year's Appeal was a generous expression of your goodness and assisted many in need. Additionally, as a result of your generosity our own parish received a significant rebate from the Appeal. Thank you, as always, for your generosity.

The name of the Appeal has been changed to better reflect the meaning of the work that the Appeal makes possible. The Appeal serves the vital ministries of the Diocese of Paterson of which we are all a part. The theme of the appeal this year is "Be a Good Samaritan." We are one community of faith, who care for one another, led by the Good Shepherd, Jesus Christ and strengthened by the Eucharist.

Everything we have is a gift from God. The more that we give of ourselves the more that we are cooperators with God in his work and the more open we are to the power of his grace. Our care for others and our encouragement of those in need is our gift to God who gives us every gift and blessing.

As we begin the Diocesan Ministries Appeal we are not merely charged with a goal to achieve but with a mission to carry out what makes the love and message of Christ known to others. That is a humbling and noble task. It is about us and the mission of Christ that we carry out under the guidance of his shepherd.

This is a task that helps us to share in the mission of Christ. Your support of the Diocesan Ministries Appeal allows us to participate in the work of so many who care for the poor, educate the young, and serve in the work of preparing our future priests. Your contributions to the Diocesan Ministries Appeal serve to help care for our retired priests. Your generosity is much needed.

The Appeal helps the local Church of Paterson to fund so many ministries that are vital to so many, particularly the poor, and the marginalized that are cared for by the outstanding work of Catholic Charities agencies on many levels. The Appeal also helps to fund the education of seminarians who will be our future priests. The Appeal helps to care for our retired priests, some of whom have serious illnesses.

Additionally, the parish receives a rebate from the Appeal which helps to attend to our needs in our own local community. Each year the parishes of the diocese are given a goal to reach so that the diocese is able to serve those who need the assistance and support of the local church. Our goal this year is the same as it has been for many years, $30,262.

You are always generous in supporting so many vital ministries of our parish and diocese; when called upon for sacrificial giving, you never fail to respond. The needs of funding the works of the local church do not pause. The Diocesan Ministries Appeal helps to support vital ministries that so many rely upon for assistance and compassion.

THE DIOCESAN MINISTRIES APPEAL FUNDS THE FOLLOWING:

• OUR CATHOLIC CHARITIES AGENCIES

The largest percentage of Appeal funds support our diocesan Catholic Charities with donations to these programs and services:

- Day care and extended day care for working poor families
- Assisted transportation for the elderly and medically frail
- Individual and family counseling
- Emergency food banks
- Adult day care for economically disadvantaged seniors
- Housing and case management for persons with HIV/AIDS
- Case management for adults and children with HIV/AIDS
- Group homes for adults with disabilities
- Family Support and case management for families with developmentally and intellectually disabled adults
- Pastoral care, spirituality programs and religious education for adults with developmental and intellectual disabilities
- After-school and summer programs
- Furniture for low-income families
- Clothing pantries
- Substance abuse counseling
- Home repairs for seniors
- Chore services for low income seniors and the disabled
- Legal services for low income immigrants
- Meals on Wheels for seniors and the disabled
- Case management, job training and support services for returning men and women veterans and older veterans
- Preventive loss of housing and finding new housing for low income individuals and families
- English as a Second Language classes
- Inner-city Community Gardens to grow fresh produce for food pantries
- Food Back Pack Programs for low income children on weekends
- Programs for Youth at Risk

• SCHOOL SUPPORT

With the help of the Diocesan Ministries Appeal last year, much was done to support Catholic schools in the inner-city area, including capital improvements such as roof replacement, HVAC upgrades, interior lighting and exterior doors.

The Appeal also helped fund financial aid to assist families to afford Catholic school education, technology upgrades to enhance the academic programs offered in the schools and support of school activities such as music, art and sports that give a well-rounded educational experience.

• SEMINARIAN EDUCATION AND OUR DIOCESAN PRIESTS' RETIREMENT RESIDENCE

The Diocesan Ministries Appeal helps fund the education of our seminarians and Nazareth Village, our diocesan priests' retirement residence in Chester. This is especially important since the number of seminarians has increased dramatically in recent years, along with the cost of their formation.

The Appeal helps both of these groups of men: those who are preparing for a lifetime of service to the Church and those who have faithfully served for decades. Preparing students for the priesthood is an important responsibility of the whole Church and our generous support goes a long way in providing a quality education to candidates for the priesthood.

• PARISH REBATES

Half of the amount received over our parish goal will be returned to our parish for our own needs. Not only does the Appeal support many worthwhile ministries throughout the diocese, it will also help our own parish if we reach and exceed our goal. Last year we received $26,798.

96 cents of every dollar raised is applied to the Appeal needs as outlined above. The 4 cent balance for fundraising expenses is far below the guidelines recommended by the Better Business Bureau Wise Giving Alliance.

We are responsible to meet our goal and I know that you will do what you can to help us do so. No one can do everything but everyone can do something. I ask you to please prayerfully consider a gift or a pledge to the Diocesan Ministries Appeal so that so much good work done in the name of the Lord may continue and grow.

I also ask for your prayers for the success of the Appeal. God bless you for your goodness. At the conclusion of the Parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus tells the lawyer who first questioned him about inheriting eternal life, "Go and do likewise" (Luke 10:37). We pray that we will not let opportunities to do good in the Lord's name pass us by.

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF SORROWS SEPTEMBER 15 PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Dear Mother Mary, your heart was pained so much on your earthly pilgrimage by the sufferings your family and your nation endured. A sword of sorrow pierced your loving heart each time you experienced the pain of sin which wounded your innocent Son and all those around you. We need you, Mary, to be with us in our sorrows, that we may not give up or despair, but keep hoping in God's love for us, and in the fulfillment of His promises. We too want to console your tender heart, so pained by our sins, which continue so grievously against your Son today. Sweet Mother of Sorrows, we love you. Amen.

Sincerely in Christ,

Monsignor T. Mark Condon
Pastor
