“Wake up to find out that you are the eyes of the world...”- Dead & Company, June 7, 2023

I got to see Dead and Company last week at the venue forever known to St. Louisans as RIVERPORT, no matter how many times corporate America buys the naming rights and changes the name, now called Hollywood Casino Amphitheatre. Anyway, it was a great show! I went with my friend Tom, who was in town on business from DC. He is such a genuine and good man. We had a blast! Duly noted, I’ve been a fan of the Dead even longer than PHISH!

They played one of my favorites, “Eyes of the World”- such a joyful song! It reminds me of this weekend’s readings, especially the Gospel- as Jesus calls and sends his Apostles out into the world to bring his light to the world, to be His Eyes to the world, so also he calls us to be His Eyes in the World as his disciples, his followers. When people see us, do they see Jesus? When we see others, do we see the Christ in them? Something to think and pray about as we reflect on being eyes of the world and to the world. As St. Teresa of Avila wrote, “Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.”

This is also Father's Day weekend and of course I am reminded of my dad, Joe Dunlap, who at 78, still has less gray hair than his son, I think. Yeah, I definitely have more gray hair than he does, and I am almost 27 years his junior. Sheesh. I am also reminded of my grandfathers, Clarence Dunlap and Bob Ringness, who have long gone to their eternal rewards. Besides my dad, I am mindful of the other men that still serve as role models to me in my life, who provide the example of what it means to be a man for others, in God's own image, to me, to their families, and to so many. For all of them, sacrifice and sacrificial love are common threads. All have different stories, many in different circles, with that one common bond: sacrificing what they want, what they need, for the good of their family. Happy Father's Day, Dad, as well as to all of our fathers, godfathers, and the men who show us our Heavenly Father's love in our lives! We are grateful for the big things and little things you do for us! Thanks for being Jesus's Eyes of the World for us!

The Annual Catholic Appeal keeps "truckin'" on toward our ACA challenge goal, which lies just ahead of us. If you have already given this year, thank you so very much. If not, please join me in making a pledge this year and get us to our challenge goal, no matter the amount. No matter which method you choose, through the miracle of modern technology, CPOP will get the credit for your gift. So it doesn't matter how you give, just give! Have you signed your pledge card yet?

Liturgical Ministries

Looking for ways to get involved at CPOP?

Consider joining one of our many liturgical ministries! Come and participate in the holy sacrifice of the Mass in a special way.

There are opportunities to proclaim God's Word as a Lector, distribute the Blessed Sacrament to the faithful as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, aid and welcome the congregation as an Usher, assist the Celebrant as an Altar Server, setup for Mass as a Sacristan, and lead the congregation in song as a Cantor.

We are always looking for more people to participate in these liturgical ministries.

Children entering the fourth grade are eligible to be trained as servers.

Contact Dominic Richards at drichards@christprinceofpeace.com or speak to him after Mass!

Do you have an hour to spend with our Lord? Christ, Prince of Peace has Adoration of The Blessed Sacrament every Tuesday starting at 8:30 a.m. until 6:30 p.m.

GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. The book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the church office at 636-391-1307.

PLEASE UPDATE YOUR MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

We have received many phone calls from parishioners who are trying to reach out to other parishioners only to not have the correct phone number or email address.

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct? Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory. It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year.

Have you changed your phone number? Do you no longer have a landline? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published?

If you have not already informed the Church Office about changes to your record, please let us know NOW so that the information in the Guide Book and Directory is correct. Please contact Jeanene at 636-391-1307 or jcrain@christprinceofpeace.com.

Experience a close encounter with Jesus through the 500-year-old Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola, a nine-month retreat in everyday life.

For more information, visit:

www.bridgesfoundation.org

Bridges Foundation offers a life-changing experience of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola in Everyday Life

For more than 30 years, the Bridges Retreat has been helping individuals connect and integrate the 500-year-old Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola into their busy lives. The 8-month retreat helps participants draw closer to God and Jesus, create a more disciplined prayer life using a variety of prayer styles, find spiritual guidance for making big decisions; and form a clearer picture of their purpose and future. Here's what is involved:

The opportunity to have a full experience of the Spiritual Exercises over an extended period of time, as envisioned and created by St. Ignatius, the founder of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits).

A commitment to about an hour of prayer each day, following a modern translation of the original text.

Personalized, one-on-one guidance from an experienced, trained prayer companion.

Weekly or monthly small community meetings at four locations throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area, in addition to an online option for those outside the area or those who need a virtual experience.

The retreat begins in September 2023, and registration is limited each year to about 40 participants. The retreat is open to Christians of all denominations and is designed to meet the spiritual longings of persons at all stages of the life journey.

Free information sessions will be offered at a number of Greater St. Louis-area sites this summer, as well as a virtual "Zoom" session. For more details about the retreat and information session schedule, visit: www.bridgesfoundation.org. For questions, contact Steve Givens, executive director, at: executive.director@bridgesfoundation.org or 314-401-2072.

WOMEN'S WHITE HOUSE RETREAT

All women of the parish are invited to join us on our annual retreat at White House. This will be a silent, guided retreat based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. It's a peaceful break from the chaos and confusion of everyday life. It's like a 3-day vacation with Christ on their beautiful 80-acre campus high on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River. All meals and private lodging are provided. Our retreat begins the evening of September 7th and concludes September 10th after lunch. There is no set fee to attend a retreat at White House! White House operates on a free will offering basis, asking those in attendance to simply give what they feel they can at the conclusion of the retreat. To register call the White House at 314-416-6400, or visit www.whretreat.org to find additional dates. Contact Kathy Palumbo for more info at kathleen.palumbo@att.net or 314-486-4251.

MEN'S WHITE HOUSE RETREAT

It's that time of year to extend an invitation to all the men of our parish in making a weekend retreat at White House Retreat. This year the Jesuit retreat begins at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 21 through Sunday, September 24, ending at 1:00 p.m. All men of the parish are invited. Don't miss out in the spiritual and physical renewal that benefits every man who makes a retreat. If you have ever made a retreat before or never have, please consider this once a year opportunity. Ask any man who has ever made a retreat at White House and he will volunteer that never has he been more at peace with himself and his God. A retreat once a year is a vital necessity these days.

White House is located in South County on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River and is situated on 80 acres of beautiful landscaped property where silence for the weekend provides the opportunity for a man to meditate and listen to his God. Due to the recent Covid situation, the meals serve will be plated and the wearing of masks are optional, not mandatory.

For help, assistance or questions, please contact Tom Jones, 314-578-4511 or by email at goldeneagle1946@yahoo.com.
