Dear family,

Accessed at: <https://www.liveabout.com/funniest-caddyshack-quotes-4175605>

“Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.” - Jesus

What does the pic have to do with this weekend’s readings? Well, if you know, you know. In other words, IYKYK.

Finish the sentence: I try to live like _____. I am going to venture a guess that if you really thought about it, you could name a person or maybe a couple that you model your life after. In our gospel this Sunday, Jesus is asked about paying taxes to the Romans, trying to trap him. Hmm. If he says the tax is lawful, he is essentially a supporter of the Romans and betraying his own people. If he says don’t pay the tax, well, then he is fomenting a rebellion against Rome. (Fomenting is a dollar word by the way.) Either way, he gets the answer wrong for some group. But Jesus avoids the question entirely, never actually answering if the tax is lawful, by telling his followers to pay the tax because it is Caesar’s face on the coins. Then Jesus takes it a step further by telling all present to give back to God what has his image. At the point of creation of humanity described in the book of Genesis it says, “God created mankind in his image; in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.” We are literally made in the image and likeness of God. God permeates our life. Think about it. Saying “Good bye” is a shortened version of “God be with you.” On our currency are the words “In God We Trust.” We mention him in our pledge of allegiance, and on and on. Even though we might want to sometimes compartmentalize Him, thinking of Him only when we need something, or here at Church, “getting our religion on”, the truth is that he’s here, he’s there, he’s everywhere! He’s everywhere we are and everywhere we want to be.

This weekend is the Annual Deacon Collection to benefit the Office of the Permanent Diaconate. We are so blessed to have two permanent deacons here at CPOP, Deacon Pat Belding and Deacon Greg Bialis. Their role is to assist the pastor and priests at Mass and other liturgies. The Diaconate is truly a vocation of service, just like the sacrament of marriage that both have been called to for many years. I am so grateful for all they do for me and for our parish! If you think God may be calling you to this vocation, please see one of our deacons or me for more information!

October is Respect Life month. Being “pro-life” means much more than merely protecting the lives of the unborn, although this certainly holds primacy of place according to our Church’s teaching. Please continue to pray for and work toward a greater respect for all human life, from the moment of conception to natural death. Sign up for the 40 Days for Life in the vestibule!

Looking ahead... Wednesday, November 1, 2023 is the Solemnity of All Saints, a holy day of obligation. Mass times are at 6:30 & 8:00 a.m. and 12:10 p.m. (All-School Mass) and 7:00 p.m. Hope to see you there!

Thursday, November 2, 2023 is the Commemoration of All Souls, when we pray for the souls of all of the faithful departed. We will have a special Mass of Remembrance that evening at 7 p.m., as we remember all of those who have had funerals at CPOP over the past 12 months. Members of those families have been personally invited to attend, but all are welcome as we pray for all of those who have gone before us. We invite you to write the names of deceased family members and friends in our book of the dead. We will also have an altar of remembrance set up in church, and we invite you to bring pictures, funeral cards, and other mementos of deceased loved ones to place on the altar of remembrance. Both the book of the dead and the altar of remembrance will remain in church for the duration of the month of November.

Upcoming Events:

DEACON FORMATION COLLECTION

DEACONS: Caring for you since A.D. 33
Please support this year's Deacon Formation Collection.

Did you know that over the last four decades, dozens of Deacons of the Archdiocese of St. Louis have in addition to their parish service, volunteered countless hours of selfless, loving care for those in our midst who are suffering and in need? Deacons can be found sharing the Joy of the Gospel, offering us comfort in every facet of daily life in nursing homes, hospitals, prisons, schools, airports, businesses and more. You can help our future deacons be Christ's hands and feet with your charitable donation to this year's Deacon Formation Collection. Deacon formation in the archdiocese relies heavily on the support of this annual collection, held this weekend, Oct. 21-22. Please be as generous as possible. God bless you for your support!

A big thanks and shout out to the St. Louis County Police Officers who visited our students to discuss safety during Faith In Blue week!

Did you know that November is the month
we as Catholics remember our deceased family and friends in a special way?

Each year CPOP sets up an Altar of Remembrance for those who have lost someone special in this past year.

You are invited to bring a picture of your loved one (in a frame) and it will be placed on the Altar of Remembrance during the month of November, for us as a community to pray for and remember all those who have died. There will be a box located in the vestibule for picture drop off.
