PASTOR'S COLUMN

Brothers and Sisters,

I wanted to update you, my parishioners, to express my care and concern for you during these uncertain and trying times. I imagine that there is much on your minds and hearts about what the future holds and where the Lord is in all this. He is here and with us, and we can confidently turn to Him with our worries and difficulties. We have a great opportunity now to intensify our spiritual life, practice virtue and serve those around us - a great opportunity to grow in holiness. So please review my earlier statement which has several suggestions of what to do right now. In addition, here are some updates so that you know your parish is here for you and offering all we can:

- The parish office will continue with the normally scheduled hours.
- The church will remain open while the parish office is open: Mon. 9am-1pm, Tues.-Fri. 9am-4pm. Please feel free to come and make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, even if only for a few minutes. I have placed booklets for the Stations of the Cross, books and pamphlets on prayer and devotional reading to use while making a visit. On Thursdays the church will be open from 9:00 a.m. - 6 p.m. for our usual time of Eucharistic Adoration.
- My daily homilies will be posted like the Sunday homilies for those who wish to listen to them.
- We hope to live-stream Sunday Mass at 10:30 every Sunday on our webpage.

Archbishop Sample's Mass at the Cathedral 11:00 a.m. on Sundays will also be live-streamed (archdpdx.org)

- If any CTK parishioners would like to participate in my private Masses, please contact Jenett at the parish office. We would be able to accommodate 7 people per Mass. Since the time of these Masses will vary, you would be contacted the day before with the time that the Mass would be taking place. In order for this to work, we will have to be very strict about the number of people attending (only those who were invited for that day). Thank you for your understanding and patience.
- Confessions will continue as normal (see below)
- If anyone is in danger of death, please call me right away.
- St. Vincent de Paul is taking donations as usual. Please feel free to drop off foodstuffs in the back of church in the 40 Cans for Lent receptacles or at the parish office. This is a time when we really need to look out for those in need.
- For Palm Sunday, I will offer the usual Palm Sunday Mass privately and will bless the palms. They will be placed on a table at the entrance of the church so that you can pick one up at your convenience.

Let us continue to lift each other up in prayer and beseech Heaven to bring an end to this virus. As St. Pio would often say, "Pray, hope and don't worry."

Yours in Jesus,
-Msgr. John Cihak
