26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgment, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

Kyrie

Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy)
Christe eleison. (Christ, have mercy)
Kyrie eleison. (Lord, have mercy)

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Ez 18:25-28

Thus says the LORD: You say, "The LORD's way is not fair!" Hear now, house of Israel: Is it my way that is unfair, or rather, are not your ways unfair? When someone virtuous turns away from virtue to commit iniquity, and dies, it is because of the iniquity he committed that he must die. But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, he does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life; since he has turned away from all the sins that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

Responsorial

PS 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (6a) Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD,
and your love are from of old.

The sins of my youth and my frailties remember not;

in your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.

He guides the humble to justice,
and teaches the humble his way.

R. Remember your mercies, O Lord.

Second Reading

Phil 2:1-11 [2:1-5]

[Brothers and sisters: If there is any encouragement in Christ, any solace in love, any participation in the Spirit, any compassion and mercy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, with the same love, united in heart, thinking one thing. Do nothing out of selfishness or out of vainglory; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves, each looking out not for his own interests, but also for those of others. Have in you the same attitude that is also in Christ Jesus,] Who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Alleluia

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Open our hearts, O Lord, to listen to the words of your Son.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.' He said in reply, 'I will not, ' but afterwards changed his mind and went. The man came to the other son and gave the same order. He said in reply, 'Yes, sir, 'but did not go. Which of the two did his father's will?" They answered, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him."

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy)

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus,
Dóminus Deus Sábaoth.
Pleni sunt caeli et terra glória tua.
Hosánna in excélsis.
Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Domini.
Hosánna in excélsis.

Communion Antiphon

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope. This is my comfort when I am brought low.

PARISH NEWS

From the Principal

Last week we welcomed students back to campus for the first time utilizing Limited In-Person Instruction (LII). LII is a way to bring students in small stable cohorts for up to two hours in order to receive in-person instruction from their teachers. Comprehensive Catholic Distance Learning continues at full capacity, LII is in addition to the full online program. LII is a great opportunity for personal interaction, socialization and having questions answered. Plus, we love seeing students back on campus!! Last week, we also began our process of STAR testing. The data from the Renaissance STAR standardized tests is vital for teachers, as it is used to drive instruction and pinpoint exactly where students are in their learning. We STAR test four times per year and examine the data for student growth and performance. This data will also be critical for our Accreditation process, which begins this October with shareholder surveys. CTK Parishioners will be asked to participate in the surveys. Watch the upcoming bulletins for more information.

3. Begin a "Did you know (insert Marian fact)?" educational campaign in the parish bulletin developed around the year of planning by current month ideas.

Saint Vincent de Paul

On September 27th, the Feast Day of St. Vincent de Paul, and in Celebration of the 175th Anniversary of the Society of St Vincent de Paul in the United States, our members in appreciation of their fellow parishioners for their ongoing support in helping the poor, will have Holy Cards in the back of the Church and at the Parish Center for families to pick up. St. Vincent said, "Go to the poor; You will find God." We thank you for taking that to heart.

Your Pro-Life Minute

As the upcoming Fall 40 Days for Life campaign begins, Sept. 23-Nov. 1 and as October is designated Respect Life Month by our United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, there is something everyone can do for the innocent unborn: Pray! Not everyone can stand at an abortion clinic, but everyone can pray for every person tempted to abort their child. Our Lady told us many souls are lost "because they have no one to pray for them." So, let us all pray, starting now! Pray for the success of this important life and soul-saving movement; pray for those who find themselves in difficult situations; pray for healing for all who suffer the effects of abortion. Let's all make it a daily habit, starting now, to pray for the unborn and for those who may have no one else on this earth praying for them. Let us love through prayer. All human life is sacred at Christ the King!
