30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 25, 2020

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice;
turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty
Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Ex 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans.

"If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in?
If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial

PS 18:2-3, 3-4, 47, 51

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength,
O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!

Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock!
Extolled be God my savior.

You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

Second Reading

1 Thes 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

To limit potential COVID-19 spread, congregations are asked to temporarily not sing out loud, but to sing in their hearts. We all eagerly look forward to the return of full-throated singing at Mass as soon as it is medically advisable.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 25 2020

Alleluia

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Whoever loves me will keep my word, says the Lord, and my Father will love him and we will come to him.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mt 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

Online Worship Aid

An online worship aid is available on our website, www.ctk.cc Scroll down on the Home page to find the Online Worship Aid. Click on the link to find all the Readings, Mass parts, and music for the Sunday.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy)

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dóminus Deus Sábaoth.
Pleni sunt caeli et terra glória tua.
Hosánna in excélsis.
Benedíctus qui venit in nómine Domini.
Hosánna in excélsis.

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

PARISH NEWS

From the Principal

2020-2021 is the writing year at Christ the King Catholic School for the Western Catholic Education Association's accreditation process. This is our chance to review all components of school life from Catholic Identity, to curriculum, to mission and vision. Part of this process is collecting feedback from all shareholders of the school, which includes you, the parishioners of Christ the King Church. In the weeks to come, you will find a link to our online survey. Please take a moment to complete the survey. Your feedback will allow us to improve our practices and offer the best in Catholic education for our students. Thank you, in advance, for your time and participation.
In Christ the King,
Sarah Taber

Special Collection

There is a special collection for World Mission Sunday this weekend. Envelopes located in the church and Parish Center near the Offertory boxes.

Your Pastoral Council Nominees

The following parishioners have applied to be members of your Pastoral Council. Please prayerfully consider each as you read what they have submitted about themselves. You will have the opportunity to vote for any five of the nine candidates, November 5– 12.

Marc Bianco My wife, Stephanie, and I have been parishioners since 1987, and our four children attended our parish school K-8. I am a dentist by profession. In the parish, I have served as a member of the School Advisory Council, a catechist teaching First Holy Communion and Baptism Preparation, and for more than 10 years I have coordinated our parish's involvement in Brother Andre's Cafe homeless shelter downtown. I can bring to the Pastoral Council many years of experience, a love of and loyalty to Christ the King parish, a genuine love of all things Catholic and foremost, a love of our Lord God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Brooke Buccieri

I was baptized as a Catholic in 2005. Recently widowed, I moved back home to Portland last December to be close to my family after living back east. I chose to become a member of Christ the King as I was deeply moved by the beautiful diversity of our community, our commitment to the Catholic sacramental life and our rich faith tradition. I graduated from the U of Iowa in Communication and Business Administration. My career has been in management, HR, purchasing (Kroger, Wacker Siltronic and Fred Meyer), and as President of my late husband's real estate holding corporation. In my parish in Connecticut, I served as a volunteer

Pastoral Assistant, charged with coordinating and delivering the parish staff retreat, evaluating and supporting existing ministries in light of the parish mission, developing and implementing new parish programming, working on parish social activities, and being prayerfully present to all parishioners and their needs and concerns in support of the Pastor. Here at Christ the King, I recently helped with the Women's Retreat and the Search. It would be my honor to serve our Lord and His people upholding our parish mission as a member of the Pastoral Council. I would bring to the role a unique knowledge of parish operations, practical real-world business experience, and a commitment to practicing both active listening to the thoughts and concerns of all Christ the King parishioners, and prayerful discernment of His will for our parish.

Bill Casey

I am a cradle Catholic, married to my wife Colleen for 32 years. Colleen and I with our two girls moved to Portland in 1999 and have been members of the parish ever since. My daughters attended Christ the King School, Elizabeth through 8th and Michelle through 6th. I am an Electrical Engineer and have worked for PGE for the past 25 years in the Power Operations Department. Colleen was a producer for OPB's pledge drives for 18 years and has been doing freelance work for similar organizations across the country for the past 5 years. As a family we have been involved with Altar Serving, Reader, Coffee and Doughnuts, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, and various social gatherings over the years. We lost Michelle in May of 2019 in a tragic accident and were blessed with endless support from Monsignor Cihak and the parish.

Steve Garbitelli

My wife, Mary Beth, and I joined the parish in 2019 along with our five children, four of whom attend our parish school. I graduated from the University of Notre Dame and Catholic University of America, and serve as a canon lawyer working as the Director of the Tribunal for the Archdiocese of Portland. Before I was hired by Archbishop Sample, I worked as a canon lawyer for the Archdiocese of Denver and the Diocese of Portland, Maine. As a life-long Catholic who has spent my career working for the Church, I have learned much about how parishes can be a source of vitality for living out our vocations. I strongly believe that parishes need to promote beauty in liturgy and music, service to others, education, and Christian family life. I'm grateful for the welcome we have received in the parish and I welcome the opportunity to work more closely with Msgr. Cihak and fellow parishioners in supporting our parish's mission of evangelization.

Janet Hooton

I have been a member of the parish since 2004. I attend daily Mass, Bible study and RCIA. I have Consecrated myself to Jesus Christ through Mary and to St. Joseph. I have volunteered as a Reader, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Money Counter and at St. Vincent de Paul. Last summer I was involved with the landscaping at the Parish Office, School and the Church. This year during COVID, I helped make phone calls for Sunday Masses and served as a Porter. I would like to serve the Church and help

Monsignor Cihak's vision and our parish's 3-year plan going forward. I would like to bring sensible ideas and common sense practices to the table. I want to help bring people to God. Please consider me for the Pastoral Council.

Ron Orme

My wife, Diane, and I have been members of the parish since 1971. Our three children attended our parish school, and at one time Diane served as the parish secretary. I am a graduate of Oregon State University, and spent my career in education first as a teacher and then as an elementary school principal in the North Clackamas School District at five schools, retiring in 1994. In our parish these past nearly 40 years, we served with six different priests in a variety activities and projects: construction of playground equipment, our parish Clackamas Fun Festival, occasional teaching in the school, the Men's Club, cooking and serving parish breakfasts and Pizza Nights, the School Advisory Council, Parish Coordinators of "Disciples in Mission"; and several fund-raising committees when both the school and church began to grow and expand. My passion is to serve the Church, promote the wonderful diversity of our parish and our pastor's vision of being a strong Eucharistic Parish. I feel strongly about the Catholic education and formation of our youth and the need to strengthen and focus additional attention to the formation of strong Catholics who will be our next generation of leaders. I believe social events and faith-filled opportunities are important for all parishioners to enjoy and attend. Christ the King is a vibrant parish community, and I would be honored to serve on the Pastoral Council.

Mike Pashley

I converted to the Catholic Faith in 2015, but my wife, Molly, and I have been parishioners since 2003. We have been married 50 years and have two grown children. Going through RCIA was absolutely a turning point in my life and made me focus on the Church's priorities and less on my selfish and insignificant wants and needs. For the first time in my life I've come to know that Jesus is alive and with us every day in all ways. It would be an honor to represent you on the Pastoral Council and try to make a difference in whatever way I can.

Jason Roberti

Our family has been part of Christ the King for 6 years. My wife, Ingrid, and I have been married for 20 years and we have three children and one on the way! Professionally, I have worked with International Paper for 30 years in the North America Container Group, serving many businesses in our community. Our family participates in several ministries in the parish including Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Family of Faith, Saint Vincent De Paul, Catholic Couples Group, our son Austin is an MC, and Ingrid serves on the maintenance and safety committee. Previously we were parishioners at St John the Baptist in Edmond, Oklahoma before returning back to the Pacific Northwest. During my time there I belonged to "That Man is You," which had a great impact on my Catholic formation. I also belonged to Rotary and served as the treasurer and president of the Oklahoma City Heartland Rotary Club. As active members of Christ the King parish our family is committed to serving and building our parish community.

Antonio Rodriguez

My wife, Mercedes, and I have three children, ages 13, 11, and 9, and we have been members of the parish for five years. Our children attend our parish school and are altar servers. I'm involved in our local Knights of Columbus, and our family was awarded the 2019 Family of the Year for the State of Oregon. I also serve on the Multicultural Committee, direct the annual Our Lady of Guadalupe play, St. Vincent DePaul, and Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to the Homebound and at Mass. Our family volunteers to help clean the church. My experience with these various ministries will enable me to offer immediate support toward our parish's pastoral plan.

- Ballots will be available starting November 5th - 12th in the church foyer, e-bulletin, and on the website, www.ctk.cc.
- Your ballot may be placed in a ballot box at Mass, brought or mailed to the parish office, or emailed to office@ctk.cc
