PARISH NEWS

St. Vincent de Paul

In reference to today's gospel, to be messengers of God, we must know what it is God wants to say and do through us, as he sends us out to bring love to others. Our pantry needs diced tomatoes, laundry soap and toilet paper. Our donation box is located at the back of church. Thank you for your support.

Jamba Juice Fundraiser

CTK Youth will be selling Jamba Juice Discount cards after weekend Masses the month of June to raise money for this summer's trip to the Steubenville NW Youth Conference. Cards are $10 and can be used for over $20 in savings. We appreciate your support of this important venture for our youth.

Coffee & Donuts

Coffee & Donuts apostolate is looking for volunteers!!! Please prayerfully consider joining us to continue this important time for parishioners to gather and fellowship after Mass. Please contact Bill & Colleen Casey at 503-772-3535 or ctk1.coffee@gmail.com

CTK T-shirts, Last Day to Order - June 30!

To boost school spirit and community, and to offer a fun alternative to our regular uniform polos, the school will be starting "T-Shirt Tuesdays" next school year. Every Tuesday, all year long, students can wear this specific CTK t-shirt (long or short sleeve) with their regular uniform bottoms.

Parishioners are encouraged to order and wear your t-shirts too!

Here is the link to order: Group order Link: <https://www.customink.com/g/crx0-00ck-v48x>

The t-shirts are unisex and available in youth and adult sizes in both long and short sleeve options. This is a group order, with the items being shipped directly to your home. The group order closes June 30 and items will ship two weeks from that date.

Saint of the Week

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Sapienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time in for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the eleven dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.
