A Message from Ed Langlois, Catholic Charities

Dear parishioners,

As a reporter for the Catholic Sentinel for 30 years, I wrote about Catholic Charities of Oregon often. Now, as communications director for Catholic Charities, I see the inside scoop. And let me tell you: I admire Catholic Charities even more.

Our staff walk neighborhoods to assist homeless people. We build affordable housing and coach people on managing finances. We offer mental health counseling across cultures. And there's a lot more.

Believe me, the streets of Oregon are safer, cleaner and kinder because of Catholic Charities, your church social services arm.

And so, I want to invite you to our Celebration of Hope. Set for Friday, April 21 at the Portland Art Museum, it will be an evening of joy, great food and stories about how, with your help, Catholic Charities helps people move forward in hope.

At the gala, you will hear the story of Olena. Olena lived in Eastern Ukraine when Russian forces attacked in 2015. And in 2022, she lived not far from Bucha, the Ukrainian town where Russian troops committed atrocities that shocked the world. Listen to her fears, hopes and dreams after finding refuge in Oregon.

Join us in honoring Joe Weston, one of Oregon's great philanthropists. He's been a phenomenal stalwart not only for Catholic Charities, but for your food pantries and especially your Catholic schools.

FAITH PREVAILS

THE MIRACLE OF BOLSENA

Based upon the true story of a Eucharistic Miracle in 1263, Faith Prevails follows the journey of Fr. Peter as he wrestles with doubts about the Real Presence.

With over 450,000 views worldwide, this film received the Stars and Stripes Award for its Catholic evangelization efforts.

Join us for a presentation by Solenne Santiago (director/producer) as she takes us behind the scenes and shares the inspiration for the movie, the challenges overcome, and how it impacted her own faith as an 18 year old filmmaker.
