IN OUR PRAYERS

Prayer for the Sick

Ever-living and ever-loving, Lord God, You are the everlasting salvation of those who believe. Hear us on behalf of all who are sick. We ask you to have mercy on them that, bodily health may be restored. We thank You and praise You through Jesus the Christ. Amen. Watch, O Lord, with those who wake, or watch, or weep tonight, and give Your angels charge over those who sleep. Tend Your sick ones, loving Lord. Rest Your weary ones. Bless Your dying ones. Soothe Your suffering ones. Pity Your afflicted ones. Shield Your joyous ones. Give strength and vigilant awareness for all Your care gives through Christ our Lord. Amen.

- Sister Mary Christa Kroening, OSB

For a Holier Episcopate, A Holier Priesthood, A Holier Church

"We must be confident that this time of trial will bring a purification of the entire Catholic community, a purification that is urgently needed if the Church is to preach more effectively the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all its liberating force. Now you must ensure that where sin increased, grace will all the more abound (cf. Rom 5:20). So much pain, so much sorrow must lead to a holier priesthood, a holier episcopate, and a holier Church." —Pope John Paul II April 23, 2002

School Virtue
OF THE WEEK

SELF-CONTROL

Self-control means a joyful mastery over one's passions and desires. Practicing self-control can look like denying ourselves things that we really want, either as a sacrifice, or because they are not good for us. For example, sometimes I want more than one or two cookies, and I know if I act on this, it can make me sick.

Dear Jesus, there are so many things I want that I don't really need. May I practice the virtue of self-control over these desires and offer them up as a sacrifice to you. Grant me the grace to practice self-control, especially when the things I desire aren't good for me, like eating too much junk food, or spending all of my free time on the computer, phone, or video games. May my actions and desires be pleasing to You, Jesus! Amen.
