HOUSEHOLDS IN GOD'S SERVICE

In the ancient world, "household" was a wide-reaching concept. When Joshua today speaks of his household serving the Lord, he meant not just those people who lived inside his walls or those related to him by blood or marriage; he meant slaves or servants and their families, and anyone indebted to him in any way. Even his livestock and other possessions would be consecrated to service of God. In our world, we value allowing individuals their freedom to choose how they live, and wouldn't think of offering our pets to the service of God. But, as we discern our vocation as disciples baptized into Christ, we can come to realize how far-ranging the "households" of our lives still are: how we act toward our spouses, children, roommates or anyone we live with; our behavior with neighbors; or in public as we encounter many "strangers" every day in stores or traffic who suddenly are "next door" to us. How can we use our time, our resources, or gifts for selfless reasons rather than personal gain? No matter what life our witness to the Good News calls us to, we all have a "household" that must be consecrated to service of the Lord our God.

LETTER FROM THE OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

2110 Broadway • Sacramento, California 95818 • 916/733-0200 • Fax 916/733-0215

August 17, 2018

Dear Friends in Christ:

I am ashamed of the senseless harm and failures of priests and bishops recently revealed in the Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report and the scandalous revelations about Archbishop Theodore McCarrick. The repulsive and evil horror of these sins wounds the whole Church. I apologize for what has transpired. I must atone by committing myself to further bolster our local effort to serve God's people in the Diocese of Sacramento with the reverence and dignity they deserve. Those who have been harmed and betrayed often suffer for years. They most deserve this care from the Church.

These shameful events have raised questions and concerns among the faithful and the greater community. I honestly acknowledge the sins and failings of the past in Sacramento. In addition to owning and atoning for what happens in the past, together with my brother priest, I must continue to demonstrate our commitment to care for the victims and prevent these sins from happening again.

Over the last decade we have made strides in Sacramento to create safe environments for the families entrusted to us. My brother priests and I must be more diligent to earn the trust you generously give to us. As your bishop, I assure you that in the Diocese of Sacramento:

- ◆ The bishop, priests, deacons and pastoral staff take seriously all complaints of sexual misconduct.
- ◆ I have an independent review board of laity, women and men, who assist me in reviewing complaints.
- ◆ Any accusations alleging criminal activity has been and will continue to be reported to law enforcement and/or child protective services.
- ◆ All steps will be taken to protect the Faithful, especially children and young people, including fingerprinting and background checks for all clergy and laity working with minors; safe environment training for children, staff and clergy; and zero tolerance for anyone credibly accused of abusing a minor.
- ◆ Victims are provided with the pastoral care they need.
- ◆ Anyone who has a complaint of sexual misconduct by clergy is urged to call the designated hotline. The number is 866-777-9133.

Please pray for those who have suffered from sexual abuse, that they may experience God's profound love for them and God's healing grace.

I also ask you to pray for all my brother priests and deacons who earnestly strive to grow in holiness and serve you with devotion.

Let us keep one another in prayer. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Mother of Mercy intercede for us so that we may be purified by the wisdom and mercy of her Son, Jesus.

Respectfully,

+Jaime Soto
Bishop of Sacramento

Discussing moral issues with family and friends can be a challenge in a culture that strongly promotes the idea that there is no objective truth. Speaking from a wealth of personal experience, renowned, author and theologian Dr. Edward Sri provides 5 "keys" to enable Christians to oppose with logic and love what Pope Benedict XVI called the "dictatorship of relativism." He also clarifies the proper understanding of what it means to judge, and the importance of making good judgments.

Declaración de Misión

Nosotros, la familia de la Iglesia de Santa Rosa de Lima, somos llamados por virtud de nuestro bautismo y guiados por el Espíritu Santo para ser discípulos de Jesús. Como discípulos de Jesús nos dedicamos a fomentar el crecimiento del Reino de Dios en la tierra, alabando a Dios y viviendo los valores Evangelicas de amor, justicia, perdón y servicio a los demás.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Narcisca de Jesús Martillo Morán nació el día de san Narciso (29 de octubre, 1832), hija de campesinos ecuatorianos. Vivió su vida como costurera y doméstica. Falleció en Perú en 1869. Su fe se distinguió por su amor a la presencia de Jesús Sacramentado en la Eucaristía, sus prácticas de penitencia y sus obras de caridad.

Cuando aún era joven, conoció la vida de la recientemente beatificada y ahora santa, Marianita de Jesús, "la Azucena de Quito" (1618-1645). La vida de esta santa mujer latina la inspiró a vivir como mejor cristiana, buscando ser guiada espiritualmente por una serie de directores espirituales.

En esta laica beata, encontramos dos puntos de reflexión para nosotros los latinos. El primero es la necesidad de conocer nuestros santos latinos no sólo para recurrir a ellos sino para imitar su santidad. Lo segundo es la necesidad de buenos directores espirituales, ya sean sacerdotes, religiosos, religiosas, laicos o laicas. La dirección espiritual es una práctica antigua en nuestra Iglesia y muchos hombres y mujeres han sido directores espirituales para guiar a personas como Narcisca, ayudándoles en el camino a la santidad.

CASAS AL SERVICIO DE DIOS

Antiguamente, la palabra "familia" tenía un significado muy amplio. Cuando Josué habla hoy de que su familia servirá al Señor, no se refería solo a las personas que vivían dentro de sus paredes ni a sus parientes de sangre o políticos; se refería a los esclavos o criados y sus familias y cualquier persona que estuviera en deuda con él por algún motivo. Incluso su ganado y demás bienes debían consagrarse a servir a Dios. En nuestro mundo, valoramos mucho la libertad de los individuos para elegir de qué manera vivir y no se nos ocurriría poner a nuestras mascotas al servicio de Dios. Pero, al discernir nuestra vocación como discípulos bautizados en Cristo, llegamos a comprender la diversidad de las "familias" de nuestra vida: la manera en que obramos con nuestros cónyuges, hijos, compañeros de habitación o con quien sea que vivamos; nuestro comportamiento con los vecinos o en público ya que cada día nos topamos con muchos "extraños" en los negocios o en la calle, quienes de repente se convierten en "el vecino". ¿De qué manera podemos usar nuestro tiempo, recursos o dones con fines desinteresados en vez de con el fin de obtener algún beneficio personal? Sin importar en qué clase de vida demos testimonio de la Buena Nueva, todos tenemos una "familia" que debe consagrarse al servicio del Señor, nuestro Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura -- Josué urge a los israelitas a que sirvan a Dios o a los otros dioses. Ellos escogieron al Señor (Josué 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b).

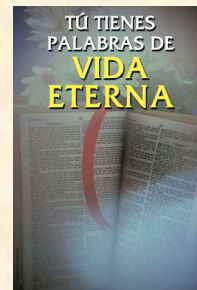

Salmo -- Gusten y vean qué bueno es el Señor (Salmo 34 [33]).

Segunda lectura -- Pablo reflexiona cómo los esposos y esposas deberán darse amor y reverencia mutua (Efesios 5:21-32 [2a, 25-32]).

Evangelio -- Después de hablar de dar su carne a comer, muchos de los discípulos de Jesús se alejaron. Los doce escogieron permanecer con él; "Maestro, ¿a quién acudiremos?" (Juan 6:60-69)

Estimados Amigos en Cristo:

Siento una profunda pena por los daños y negligencias de los sacerdotes y obispos recientemente revelados en el reporte Jurídico de Pennsylvania y las revelaciones escandalosas sobre el Arzobispo Theodore McCarrick. El horror repugnante y mal de estos pecados lastima a toda la iglesia hasta el corazón. Este servidor les pide perdón por lo que ha sucedido. Tengo que hacer reparación comprometiéndome a reforzar con mas vigor el esfuerzo local de servir al Pueblo de Dios en la Diócesis de Sacramento con la reverencia y dignidad que merece. Aquellos que han sido dañados y traicionados en el pasado sufren las consecuencias por años. Estas personas, con mas razón, merecen el cuidado de la Iglesia.

Los recientes reportes vergonzosos provocan cuestiones y preocupaciones entre muchos feligreses y la comunidad en general. Reconozco francamente los pegado y negligencias del pasado en Sacramento. Además de reconocer y aceptar los sucedidos pasados, junto con mis hermanos sacerdotes, mantengo todavía nuestro compromiso de cuidar por las victimas y tomar todas las medidas necesarias de evitar que suceda en el futuro.

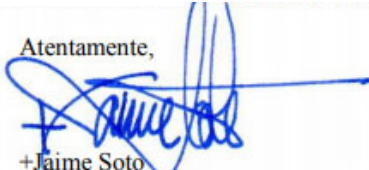

En los últimos diez años en Sacramento hemos logrado mucho en promover ambientes seguros para las familias encomendadas a nuestro cuidado. Mis hermanos sacerdotes y este servidor hemos sido diligentes para respetar la confianza que ustedes nos han brindado. Como su obispo, les aseguro que en la Diócesis de Sacramento:

- ♦ El obispo, los sacerdotes, los diáconos, y el equipo pastoral tomas en serio toda acusación de mala conducta sexual.
- ♦ Tengo una mesa de laicos, hombres y mujeres, que me asisten en las examinación de toda acusación.
- ♦ Cualquier acusación alegado conducta criminal siempre han sido y siempre será reportada a las autoridades legales y/o a la agencia gubernamental para la protección de niños.
- ♦ Todas medidas están tomadas para proteger a los parroquianos, especialmente niños y jóvenes; incluyendo la toma de las huellas digitales y revisión legal de antecedentes para todo el clero y laico trabajando con menores; entrenamiento para crear ambientes seguros se hacen para niños, equipo pastoral, voluntarios y clero; y cero tolerancia para cualquier persona con una acusación creíble de haber abusado un menor de edad.
- ♦ Victimas reciben el cuidado pastoral que necesitan.
- ♦ A cualquier persona con una acusación de abuso sexual por un miembro del clero, siempre les urge llamar al teléfono designado: 866-777-9133.

Por favor, oren por todos los que han sufrido por el abuso sexual, para que experimente el amor profundo de Dios y experimente Su gracia curativa.

Les pido también que recen por todos mis hermanos sacerdotes y diáconos quienes sinceramente se esfuerzan para alcanzar la santidad y servirles con devoción.

Mantengámonos unos a otros en la oración. Que la Santísima Virgen María, nuestra Madre de Misericordia, interceda por nosotros para que seamos purificados para la sabiduría y misericordia de su Hijo, Jesús.

Atentamente,

+Jaime Soto
Obispo de Sacramento
