LITURGY

PARISH FAMILY VOCATION CROSS Needs A Home For A Week

Families who have taken the Vocation Cross into their home for a week are experiencing grace-filled moments from their prayer. You too can experience these blessings. Please prayerfully consider reserving a week that you can participate. It is a great time to talk as a family about priests, deacons, sisters and brothers you know and admire and to pray in thanksgiving for those who generously share themselves in Church ministry.

There are opportunities for the entire year, listed on the signing sheets in the vestibule of the church.

Can You Help?

If you have any questions please feel free to contact our Liturgy Coordinator, Lynne Brys at 916-783-5211 x7006.

Thank you & God Bless

Looking ahead ~ Priests on Retreat in October

Fr. Michael B, Fr. Michael E. and all the priests in our Diocese will be attending a Priest's Convocation / Retreat October 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11. Please keep them in your prayers.

Please note there will be no morning Masses celebrated during that time.

On Wednesday, October 9th, there will be no Confessions at 5:00 pm nor Spanish Mass at 6:30 pm.

Although, the church will be open for those who would like to pay a visit from 8 am – 4 pm. If you find the front door locked, please check in the parish office for assistance.

St. Francis of Assisi Feast Day

On October 4th, the Church honors a great friar from Assisi, Italy. St. Francis of Assisi is the patron saint of the environment and animals because he loved all creatures and allegedly preached to even the birds.

Blessing :

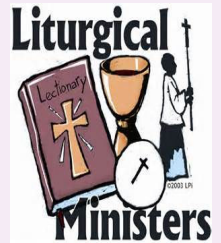

Parishioners are invited to bring their cherished pets for an outdoor Prayer service to be done in front of the church at 5:30 pm on Friday, October

4th. Deacon Mark Van Hook will offer each of the animals present a blessing to commemorate this feast day. Or if you prefer, you can bring a photo of your favorite pet to the blessing.

Has the Holy Spirit been reaching out to you to Serve? Are you ready to say "yes"?

If you are interested in how you can fully participate in the Liturgy at St. Rose of Lima Parish by serving as an:

- ◇ Altar Server
- ◇ Extraordinary Minister
- ◇ Reader
- ◇ Audio / Visual Ministry
- ◇ Music Ministry

Please contact our Liturgy Coordinator, Lynne Brys at lbrys@strosechurch.org or 916-783-5211 x7006 for more details.

Serving the Altar of Mercy
AN ALTAR SERVERS RETREAT

Ideal for new & returning Altar Servers

Saturday, September 21, 2019

8:45am to 3:00pm

Marello Youth Retreat Center

6530 Wells Avenue in Loomis

$45 per person. Includes Lunch!

This day retreat offers Altar Servers an opportunity to take some quiet time away and reflect once again on the great mysteries we celebrate throughout the year in the Holy Mass.

Altar Servers have a special role in the parish community through their service at Holy Mass.

Therefore, it is important to maintain a good relationship with God through prayer and friendship as children of God.

This retreat will present valuable time to break open/study the spirituality of the Altar Server and their duties assisting at Holy Mass.

Registration Deadline is September 18.

Call (916) 652-6155 or visit www.marelloyrc.org for more info.

St. Rose of Lima ACTS

St. Rose of Lima Marriage Enrichment Ministry

In the fall of 1999, at the request of Fr. Michael McKeon, the St. Rose Marriage Enrichment was established by Ralph and Licia Barsotti. The purpose of forming this ministry was to offer couples both a spiritual and social environment in which to strengthen their relationship before reaching the "troubled marriage" stage.

"Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things."

1 Cor 13:4-7

St. Rose of Lima Parish Marriage Enrichment Ministry is planning a kick off / informational meeting for couples that are interested in joining the ministry. As soon as we know the number of couples who are interested in joining, we will schedule the time and date for the meeting. Please call for more details, please contact one of us couples: Ralph & Licia Barsotti 916-782-6747 or Frank & Evy Arcuri 916-791-0136 or John & Tracy Pittman 916-783-8643.

"The Sacrament of Matrimony signifies the union of Christ and the Church. It gives spouses the grace to love each other with the love with which Christ has loved His Church; the grace of the Sacrament thus perfects the human love of the spouses, strengthens their indissoluble unity, and sanctifies them on the way to eternal life."(CCC1661)

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians share a love for the Byzantine liturgy because it is during the Eucharist that the Church is most true to its identity, expresses its integrity, and discovers its vocation. Eastern Catholic and Orthodox Christians celebrate essentially the identical liturgy, with only very slight variations. It is a fairly complex ritual weaving together three separate layers of prayers: a liturgy prayed in the sanctuary by priests, often hidden by a curtain or screen; a liturgy sung by the assembly and led by a deacon in front of a screen formed of painted icons; and a third layer of private prayer by the priest, who prays in support of the deacon and the faithful. It is an eyes-wide-open experience, gorgeous in visuals, and filled with the sound of God's people singing prayer. The energy of the worship centers on the presence of Christ, largely through an awareness of heaven touching earth when the Church gathers to celebrate.

In the late twentieth century, Latin Rite Catholics were encouraged to embrace a style of worship that was full, conscious, and active, a value that has never been lost in the East. The liturgy has great impact in its beauty, in its poetry and contemplation, and by the actions of bowing, signing with the cross, and chanting that are required of the assembly. Contact with the Eastern Church reveals some key values that have been obscured in our own Church and are slowly being recovered.

POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekends scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges.

For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with timid deliberations and unsure plans. Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to let the good you do be voluntary. Jesus instructs great crowds traveling with him--including us--on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples lifelong labors.

Works of Mercy

Corporal Works of Mercy

BURY THE DEAD

Plague-ridden bodies no longer litter the streets. Modern funeral practices have taken the details of caring for the dead off our hands. But the personal expression of sympathy, the hug or handshake at the vigil or funeral service, or the donation of food are important to the grieving. The ceremonies remember the dead, but we are expected to support the living in their sorrow.

Works of Mercy

Spiritual Works of Mercy

FORGIVE OFFENSES

Forgive the sharp criticism, the angry retort so easily and thoughtlessly said. Physical injuries heal faster than mental or spiritual ones; dwelling on a wrong only increases its size, breeding hatred, the antithesis of Christ's love. Injuries, voluntary or involuntary, are inescapable; forgiveness heals them.

Cursillo Men's Weekend

Are you seeking a closer walk with Christ? A better understanding of your faith? Join us for the Men's Cursillo Weekend, September 19 – 22, 2019, at the Jesuit Retreat Center in Applegate. The Cursillo Movement encourages piety, study, and Christian action. The weekend has been attended by millions of Catholics worldwide and is fully endorsed and encouraged by the Magisterium of the Church. It involves many things including prayer, Mass, study, learning, laughter and fellowship. Join the weekend for three days and move to the "4th day" by regularly meeting with others who have lived a weekend. For more information please contact Deacon Mike Turner at mj_turner@sbcglobal.net, Pat Miles at Patrick.miles@dot.ca.gov or visit the Sacramento Cursillo Website (sacramentocursillo.org). Con algo de suerte, los placeres del verano continuarán aún después del fin de semana del Día del Trabajo: recreación estimulante (quizá con un chapuzón en la alberca) o relajación agradable en la terraza (con sabrosas parrilladas al aire libre). La verdad es que, para algunos de nosotros, este año el Día del Trabajo se adelantó demasiado. Con clases escolares que ya empezaron hace tiempo, los horarios para las comidas y el ir a dejar a los niños a la escuela necesitaron reajustarse para coordinar los deportes de los chicos con los compromisos de los adultos. Algunos programas de catequesis y actividades parroquiales ya también empezaron. No debe extrañarnos que las Escrituras de este fin de semana parezcan un poco como desafíos posteriores al verano. Por ejemplo, el libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda que los creyentes en Dios nunca pueden contentarse con tímidas deliberaciones y planes inseguros. Pablo desafía a un seguidor de él y además amigo de toda la vida, Filemón, para dejar que lo bueno sea voluntario. Jesús enseña a grandes multitudes que viajan con él, incluyéndonos, en tres cosas necesarias para que todos los verdaderos discípulos lo logren.
En este anticipado fin de semana de otoño, nuestras Escrituras describen las labores de toda la vida de los discípulos.

Vigésimo Tercer Domingo
del Tiempo Ordinario

8 de septiembre de 2019

Por la mañana sácanos de tu misericordia, y toda nuestra vida será alegría y júbilo.

-- Salmo 90 (89):14

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1976 un grupo de madres argentinas comenzó una vigilia silenciosa en frente de las oficinas gubernamentales en la Plaza de Mayo. Vestían de negro, con un pañuelo blanco en la cabeza y protestaban la desaparición de sus hijos. Poco a poco esta protesta de madres se fue expandiendo a El Salvador y otros países donde agentes del gobierno hacían desaparecer a los que obraban por la justicia y el bienestar del pueblo. En Latinoamérica la Virgen de los Dolores que viste de negro y llora la muerte de su hijo quien estaba en la flor de la vida se ha transformado en la Madre de los Desaparecidos. Ella acompaña silenciosamente en la protesta de tanta latina que ha perdido hijos, maridos y hermanos a autoridades injustas o cobardes. La vigilia de las Madres de la Plaza de Mayo terminó en enero de 2006 cuando por fin se encontraron con un gobierno que busca a los desaparecidos con ellas. Lamentablemente en muchos lugares las madres de los desaparecidos todavía no pueden contar con las autoridades civiles. Con ellas María se une en protesta silenciosa.
