Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Acto de Comunión Espiritual

Creo, Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar. Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo ardientemente recibirte dentro de mi alma; pero ya que no puedo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Y ahora, como si ya te hubiera recibido, me uno y me abrazo todo a ti
No permitas, Señor, que jamás me separe de ti
Amén

SRS families recently provided meals for over 185 families in our area. The St. Vincent De Paul Food Locker was overwhelmed and very thankful for the 1,846 cans of food to supply their families in need as wintertime approaches. As the holidays approach now as well, we will continue to look for ways that we can serve our surrounding communities. If your parish has a service initiative with which the SRS students might be able to assist, please don't hesitate to reach out (Jessica Loria, SRS Advancement Director, jloria@csd-sac.org) and let us know how we can help and be true disciples of Christ TOGETHER.

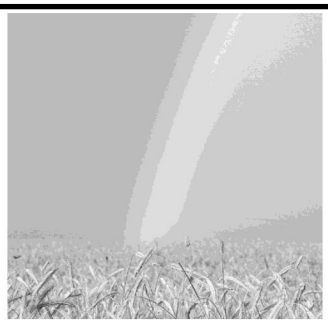
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time



In the story of the talents, the head of the household leaves the servants "talents" or money, which they are expected to foster and develop during the leader's absence. Today we think of talent as an innate ability or a skill. It is interesting that they were distributed "according to ability," which would express a certain intimacy as we realize that the master knew each one, and already had an idea of their capabilities. They were not given explicit instructions like "put this in the bank" or "invest this in your portfolio" or "take piano lessons." Rather, we are told that the goods were divided unequally. One received five, one received two, and the last received one.

BEAR MUCH FRUIT

When the head of the household returned, the outcomes were just as varied as we and our responses might be. Some people are multitalented, and capable of accomplishing many great things, like the servant who turned five into ten. Others may be more inclined to do one or two things very well and may excel in them. Still, there are some who may struggle in life, and their accomplishments are very small. But those who made use of their gifts were praised and told, "Well done, good and faithful servant." When it came to the second coming, the return of their master, they both made some effort. The only one in whom the head of household showed any disappointment was the one who made absolutely no effort, the one who was frozen by fear or indifference. As we journey toward the kingdom, there are not always clear instructions. We are simply asked to try, to give it our best effort. There is nothing in the passage to say that these servants didn't make mistakes along the way, but their master saw them and loved and praised them for their actions, their attempts, as God will do with us. And now you know the rest of the story.

Trigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En la historia de los talentos, quien era la cabeza de la familia deja a los sirvientes "talentos" o dinero, del cual se espera que administren y multipliquen durante la ausencia del patrón. Hoy pensamos que los talentos son una destreza o habilidad innata. Es interesante que esos talentos fueran distribuidos "de acuerdo con sus habilidades" y eso podría significar que hay una cierta intimidad de parte del patrón hacia ellos y que podría conocer sus capacidades. A ellos no se les dieron instrucciones claras como "pon este dinero en el banco", "inviértelo en donde te paguen intereses" o "con este dinero paga para tomar clases de piano". Más bien, se nos dice que los bienes se repartieron de manera desigual. Uno recibió cinco, otro recibió dos y el último recibió uno.

DA FRUTO ABUNDANTE

Cuando el cabeza de familia regresó, los resultados no fueron tan variados como nosotros o nuestras respuestas podrían ser. Algunas personas son multitalentosas y capaces de lograr muchas cosas, como el sirviente que de cinco obtuvo diez. Otros pueden estar más inclinados a hacer una o dos cosas muy bien y pueden sobresalir en ellas. Aún así, hay algunas que pueden luchar en la vida y lograr muy poco. Pero esos que hicieron uso de sus dones fueron elogiados y se les dijo: "bien hecho, siervo bueno y fiel". Cuando suceda la segunda venida, el regreso de su patrón, ambos habrán demostrado un esfuerzo. El único en quien el patrón mostró su desilusión fue por el que no hizo ningún esfuerzo, el que estaba como inmovilizado por el miedo o la indiferencia. En el camino hacia el reino, no siempre hay instrucciones claras. Simplemente se nos pide que lo intentemos, que hagamos nuestro mejor esfuerzo. No hay nada en el pasaje que diga que estos sirvientes no hayan cometido errores en el camino, pero su amo los vio, los amó y elogió por sus acciones, sus intentos, como Dios lo hará por nosotros. Y ahora ya conoces el resto de la historia.

Pray for Vocations

Let us pray for those who devote their lives to vocational ministry; we pray that they will not stop throwing out nets in Christ's name so that the Church would have the vocations it needs to fulfill its mission. Inspire and help the priests who work in seminaries and houses of formation so that they can give the Church saints, doctors, martyrs, apostles and witnesses of Christ imbued with new missionary zeal for the new evangelization. Remember to pray for an increase of vocations to the priesthood and remember also our wonderful priests who devote their lives to us each and every day.

Rezar por las Vocaciones

Oremos por quienes dedican su vida a la pastoral vocacional; rezemos para que no dejen de tirar redes en nombre de Cristo para que la Iglesia tenga las vocaciones que necesita para cumplir su misión. Inspirar y ayudar a los sacerdotes que trabajan en seminarios y casas de formación para que puedan dar a la Iglesia santos, doctores, mártires, apóstoles y testigos de Cristo imbuidos de nuevo celo misionero por la nueva evangelización. Recuerde orar por un aumento de vocaciones al sacerdocio y recuerde también a nuestros maravillosos sacerdotes que dedican su vida a nosotros todos los días.

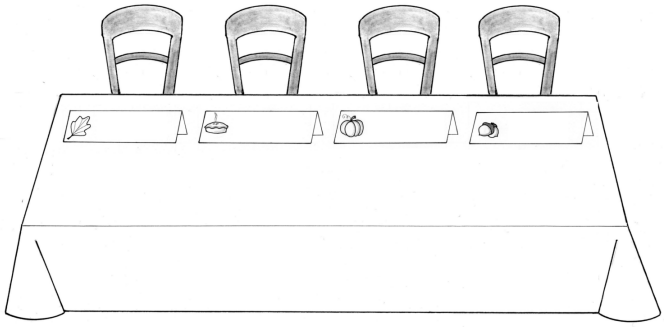
WE GIVE THANKS

On Thursday, November 26, our country will celebrate Thanksgiving Day. On this day we usually gather around a table with family and friends we love. There we share a meal and think about the blessings in our lives. Can you name the people and things for which you are grateful?

Imagine the people who will be sitting around your table on Thanksgiving Day. On the outside of this table, where people sit, write the names of those who will be with you and those whom you love but who cannot be there. Think about the many things for which you want to say thank you. On the table, write some of the blessings you have received from God.

Every week people of faith gather to celebrate our God who has been blessing people forever. But it is lovely to have a day when people of the whole nation, no matter what their religion, gather in gratitude. On Thursday, you might want to pray this psalm, written long ago by King David to sing his thanks to God.

We thank you, God, we give thanks;
we call upon your name,
we declare your wonderful deeds.
(Psalm 75:2)



God has given us talents and abilities.
Jesus said that if we use what we have, we'll be given more!
Draw and color a picture of yourself using your talent to serve others.

What is an indulgence?
"An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven." Christians obtain indulgences "through the Church who, by virtue of the power of binding and loosing granted her by Christ Jesus, intervenes in favor of individual Christians and opens for them the treasury of the merits of Christ and the saints to obtain from the Father of mercies the remission of the temporal punishments due for their sins." Indulgences can remove some (partial) or all (plenary) of the temporal punishment due to sin. You can obtain indulgences for yourself or for someone who has died.

What does "temporal punishment due to sin" mean?
Sin has a "double consequence."

1) "Grave [or mortal] sin deprives us of communion with God and therefore makes us incapable of eternal life" — this is the "eternal punishment" of sin (i.e., hell).
2) Every sin also "entails an unhealthy attachment to creatures, which must be purified either here on earth, or after death in the state called Purgatory. This purification frees one from what is called the 'temporal punishment' of sin."

These punishments are not "vengeance inflicted by God" but follow "from the very nature of sin."

What's the difference between an indulgence and confession?
In the sacrament of reconciliation, our sins are forgiven and our communion with God is restored — this is "the remission of the eternal punishment of sin, but temporal punishment of sin remains." An indulgence removes the temporal punishment.

How do you receive a plenary indulgence?
Here's what you do:

1) Perform the work to which the indulgence is attached (e.g., pray for the deceased person).
2) Go to confession.
3) Receive holy Communion.
4) Pray for the intentions of the pope (e.g., an Our Father and a Hail Mary).

Be free from all attachment to sin, even venial sin. Generally, you can go to confession and receive Communion within several days before or after the indulgenced activity. If any of these conditions is not fulfilled, or if your detachment from sin is incomplete, the indulgence will only be partial.

This year, in the current circumstances due to the "Covid-19" pandemic, the Plenary Indulgences for deceased faithful will be extended throughout the entire month of November, with adaptation of works and conditions to guarantee the safety of the faithful. The Apostolic Penitentiary, on special mandate of His Holiness Pope Francis, willingly establishes and decides that this year, in order to avoid gatherings where they may be forbidden:

a. the Plenary Indulgence for those who visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased, even if only mentally, normally established only for the individual days from 1 to 8 November, may be transferred to other days of the same month, until its end. These days, freely chosen by the individual faithful, may also be separate from each other;
b. the Plenary Indulgence of 2 November, established on the occasion of the Commemoration of all the deceased faithful for those who piously visit a church or oratory and recite the "Our Father" and the "Creed" there, may be transferred not only to the preceding or following Sunday or to the day of the Solemnity of All Saints, but also to another day of the month of November, freely chosen by the individual faithful.

The elderly, the sick and all those who for serious reasons cannot leave their homes, for example because of restrictions imposed by the competent authority in this time of the pandemic, in order to prevent numerous faithful from crowding into holy places, will be able to obtain the Plenary Indulgence as long as they join spiritually with all the other faithful, completely detached from sin and with the intention of complying as soon as possible with the three usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer according to the Holy Father's intentions), before an image of Jesus or the Blessed Virgin Mary, recite pious prayers for the deceased, for example, Lauds and Vespers of the Office of the Dead, the Marian Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, other prayers for the deceased dearest to the faithful, or occupy themselves in contemplative reading of one of the Gospel passages proposed by the liturgy of the deceased, or perform a work of mercy by offering to God the sorrows and hardships of their own lives.

¿Qué es una Indulgencia?
"Una indulgencia es una remisión ante Dios del castigo temporal debido a pecados cuya culpa ya ha sido perdonada". Los cristianos obtienen las indulgencias "a través de la Iglesia que, en virtud del poder de atar y desatar que le ha concedido Cristo Jesús, interviene a favor de los cristianos individuales y les abre el tesoro de los méritos de Cristo y de los santos para obtener del Padre de misericordia la remisión de los castigos temporales debidos por sus pecados ". Las indulgencias pueden eliminar parte (parcial) o todo (plenario) del castigo temporal debido al pecado. Puede obtener indulgencias para usted o para alguien que ha fallecido.

¿Qué significa "castigo temporal debido al pecado"?
El pecado tiene una "doble consecuencia".

1. "El pecado grave [o mortal] nos priva de la comunión con Dios y por lo tanto nos hace incapaces de la vida eterna" - este es el "castigo eterno" del pecado (es decir, el infierno).
2. Cada pecado también "conlleva un apego malsano a las criaturas, que deben ser purificadas aquí en la tierra o después de la muerte en el estado llamado Purgatorio. Esta purificación libera a uno de lo que se llama el 'castigo temporal' del pecado ".

Estos castigos no son "venganza infligida por Dios", sino que se derivan "de la misma naturaleza del pecado".

¿Cuál es la diferencia entre una indulgencia y una confesión?
En el sacramento de la reconciliación, nuestros pecados son perdonados y nuestra comunión con Dios es restaurada: esta es "la remisión del castigo eterno del pecado, pero el castigo temporal del pecado permanece". Una indulgencia elimina el castigo temporal.

¿Cómo recibe una indulgencia plenaria?
Esto es lo que haces:

1. Realizar el trabajo al que se adjunta la indulgencia (por ejemplo, rezar por la persona fallecida).
2. Ve a la confesión.
3. Recibe la sagrada Comunión.
4. Ore por las intenciones del Papa (por ejemplo, un Padre Nuestro y un Ave María).

Libérate de todo apego al pecado, incluso al venial. Por lo general, puede confesarse y recibir la Comunión varios días antes o después de la actividad indulgente. Si no se cumple alguna de estas condiciones, o si su desapego del pecado es incompleto, la indulgencia será solo parcial.

Este año, en las actuales circunstancias por la pandemia del "Covid-19", las Indulgencias Plenarias para los fieles fallecidos se extenderán durante todo el mes de noviembre, con adecuación de obras y condiciones para garantizar la seguridad de los fieles. La Penitenciaría Apostólica, por mandato especial de Su Santidad el Papa Francisco, establece y decide de buen grado que este año, para evitar reuniones en las que puedan estar prohibidas:

a. La Indulgencia Plenaria para quienes visiten un cementerio y recen por el difunto, aunque sea mentalmente, normalmente establecida solo para los días individuales del 1 al 8 de noviembre, podrá trasladarse a otros días del mismo mes, hasta su finalización. Estos días, elegidos libremente por los fieles individuales, también pueden estar separados unos de otros;
b. la Indulgencia Plenaria del 2 de noviembre, establecida con motivo de la Conmemoración de todos los fieles fallecidos para quienes visitan piadosamente una iglesia u oratorio y rezan allí el "Padre Nuestro" y el "Credo", puede trasladarse no sólo al anterior o al domingo siguiente o al día de la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, pero también a otro día del mes de noviembre, libremente elegido por los fieles.

Los ancianos, los enfermos y todos aquellos que por motivos graves no puedan salir de sus hogares, por ejemplo por las restricciones impuestas por la autoridad competente en este momento de la pandemia, para evitar que numerosos fieles se amontonen en lugares santos, podrán obtener la Indulgencia Plenaria siempre que se unan espiritualmente a todos los demás fieles, completamente desprendidos del pecado y con la intención de cumplir cuanto antes con las tres condiciones habituales (confesión sacramental, comunión eucarística y oración según las intenciones del Santo Padre) , ante una imagen de Jesús o de la Santísima Virgen María, recitar piadosas oraciones por los difuntos, por ejemplo, Laudes y Vísperas del Oficio de Difuntos, el Rosario Mariano, la Coronilla de la Divina Misericordia, otras oraciones por los difuntos fieles u ocuparse en la lectura contemplativa de uno de los pasajes evangélicos propuestos por la liturgia del difunto, o realizar una obra de misericordia ofreciendo Ir d las penas y las dificultades de sus propias vidas.
