Orange Eucharistic Procession, Saturday, October

18, 2025. You are warmly invited to join us for our Annual Orange Eucharistic Procession, a powerful day of prayer, unity, and grace within our community. We will begin the day with Holy Mass at 8:00 AM at St. Francis Catholic Church. Immediately following Mass, we will begin our solemn Eucharistic Procession with a police escort.

Our pilgrimage will include: A 30-minute prayerful stop at St. Therese Church. Continued procession to St. Mary Catholic Church. Upon arrival at St. Mary, we will conclude with a Holy Hour and Benediction led by Bishop David Toups, followed by refreshments. In a special spiritual opportunity, Bishop David Toups has issued a Decree of Promulgation: All who participate in this Eucharistic pilgrimage and enter through the main doors of St. Mary Catholic Church on this day may receive the Jubilee Indulgence, as St. Mary is the Mother Church of the Eastern Vicariate in the Diocese of Beaumont. Let us walk together in faith and witness to the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist.

October And The Rosary

The Month Of The Holy Rosary

The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary and this is a reminder of the promises for those who pray this contemplative prayer with Our Lady. It is a sign of predestination.

#20201004MB-55ED

Mark Your Calendar! We joyfully invite you to join us for our Annual 10-Day Rosary Devotion, a sacred time of prayer, reflection, and spiritual renewal.

Dates: Saturday, October 19th – Tuesday, October 28th, 2025.

Time: Daily at 6:30 PM, except on Saturday, October 25th, rosary be at 4:00 PM

Let us come together as a faith-filled community to honor Our Blessed Mother, deepen our connection with Christ, and lift our hearts in unity and hope. Whether you come for one evening or all ten, your presence will be a blessing. We look forward to praying with you!

St. Louis De Montfort said: “It is through the most Blessed Virgin Mary that Jesus Christ came into the world, and it is also through her that he will reign in the world.”

Hail Mary, Mother of God,
Pray for us

GOOD NEWS

Here is a quick self-test: Name three things in your life for which you are grateful. Finished? If you were able to name three things easily, your spirituality is probably in a good place. If you had difficulty, your spirituality may be in need of some work. Spiritual writers have long noted that living day by day with a sense of gratitude is one of the signs of holiness. Yet, a number of attitudes can get in the way of our being thankful. One is anger; it unsettles and focuses our attention on one issue, keeping us from seeing a bigger picture filled with blessings. Another is living with continual wanting; incessant desires for more prevent us from recognizing the beauty and goodness of what already is. Fear too keeps us from being grateful; it obliterates all the goodness that is present and focuses on an unknown and uncertain future that may never be.

Therapists have advised that, at the end of each day, people should take time to name three things that happened that day for which they are grateful, as doing so will often ease depression. Our religious tradition has been encouraging this for 2,000 years. Not all depression is due to life circumstances; some is the result of chemical or hormonal imbalances. But, if our sadness is the consequence of life events, naming three positive occurrences from each day not only brings a balance to our attitudes but also brings us to deeper faith, recognizing a power greater than ourselves at work in our lives. That power is God.
