From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

After preaching about prayer with its two essential qualities: confidence in God and persistence in our prayers on the Seventeenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, I continue offering my prayers these days for you and your family members. As Fr. Clark has given me this privilege of writing the Pastor's Letter this week, may I continue giving thanks to God with you for our wonderful parish and her focus on the "Family of Families" through prayer.

Many people today are said to be abandoning prayer. One simple reason for this is that they have never experienced the power that prayer brings. Those who have never experienced the benefits of prayer will continue to abandon prayer for the rest of their lives. If we ask God for so little, it may well be because we so little feel the need for Him. Do I want to know God's will more than anything else? This question is the entry way into a more fruitful prayer life. My spiritual director once said to me: "Make sure to focus on these two P's every day as a priest: Prayer and Peace." This advice continues to stay with me through all the ministries that we have done here at St. Thomas More. Firstly, we must spend enough time in prayer and faithful listening to the voice of God through the Sacred Scripture to become more open to God's will with complete trust and obedience. This is a sign of our confidence in God. Secondly, our first concern is not our desired result. I believe that our first concern is always God and the fidelity of our relationship with Him, and then the result of our desires will come quite naturally. This is the peace we ought to seek, "Seek First the Kingdom of God" (Mt. 6:33)

"Seek First the Kingdom of God" - Sooner or later, we will have to put God first in our life, that is to say, our own true spiritual development must become the only thing that really matters. When we know what must be first, we get rid of a great deal of the unnecessary junk that we sometimes carry around. We will be less focused on running after the things that do not really matter and only waste our time and energy, when once we have put God first. Sooner or later, we will have to put God first instead of putting the "things of God" first in our lives. Our life then will become simpler but richer and infinitely more worthwhile. "Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?" (Isa. 55:2) - How often in our lives have we disregarded Isaiah's question and admonition? How often do we feel dissatisfied when putting the wrong focus in life? Seeking God first is not just good advice; it is the only way to a joyful and faithful life in companionship with the One who made us and loves us without limit.

As we come to receive Jesus at Mass this week, let us remember one another in our prayers and continue putting God first in our lives. Let us, in the moment of silence either before and after the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, say to God, "apart from you, Lord, we can do nothing."

"I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing." (John 15:5)

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Thuc Nguyen

Eucharistic Miracles

Living Cells in Buenos Aires Miracle- Part 3

At the same church of Santa Maria in August 1996, a third eucharistic miracle occurred. Once again a soiled consecrated Host was placed in water to dissolve but did not dissolve. Instead, the Host developed several reddish areas, with a bloody appearance. The parish priests informed Bishop Bergoglio who instructed that the Host be professionally photographed. Initial photographs revealed that the Host was still visible with frayed edges surrounded by a reddish substance. One week later additional photographs revealed a transformation – the Host was broken down into very small particles and immediately below and interconnected to the small particles was the darker-colored substance. The sample, still in water, was returned to the tabernacle for three years!

In 1999, the bloody-looking substance remained unchanged and scientific investigations were started. Forensic pathologist Dr. Robert Lawrence found the presence of white blood cells in the sample, which were "active, living white cells at the time they were collected." He was shocked to learn that the sample had survived in water for three years stating, "White blood cells would be expected to be dissolved in just minutes to an hour or two at the most." It was scientifically impossible. Just as in the case of the1992 bleeding Host of Santa Maria, this sample also contained living white blood cells! What was the significance of the living cells? What else did the researchers find in the sample? More results in next week's bulletin.

Del escritorio del P. Clark

Acércate a tus siervos, oh Señor,y contesta sus oraciones con incesante bondad,que, para aquellos que se glorian en ti como su Creador y guía, puedes restaurar lo que has creado y guarda a salvo lo que has restaurado. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Después de predicar sobre la oración con sus dos cualidades esenciales: la confianza en Dios y la persistencia en nuestra oración en el Décimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, sigo ofreciendo mis oraciones en estos días por ustedes y sus familiares. Como el padre Clark me ha dado el privilegio de escribir la Carta del Párroco esta semana, puedo continuar dando gracias a Dios con ustedes por nuestra maravillosa parroquia y su enfoque en la "Familia de familias" a través de la oración.

Se dice que muchas personas hoy en día están abandonando la oración. Una simple razón de esto es que nunca han experimentado el poder que trae la oración. Aquellos que nunca han experimentado los beneficios de la oración continuarán abandonando la oración por el resto de sus vidas. Si le pedimos a Dios tan poco, puede ser porque sentimos muy poca necesidad de Él. ¿Quiero saber la voluntad de Dios más que cualquier otra cosa? Esta pregunta es la puerta de entrada a una vida de oración más fructífera. Mi director espiritual me dijo una vez: "Asegúrate de enfocarte en estas dos cosas todos los días como sacerdote: Oración y Paz". Este consejo continúa conmigo a través de todos los ministerios que hemos realizado aquí en St. Thomas More. En primer lugar, debemos dedicar suficiente tiempo a la oración y a la escucha fiel de la voz de Dios a través de la Sagrada Escritura para estar más abiertos a la voluntad de Dios con plena confianza y obediencia. Esta es una señal de nuestra confianza en Dios. En segundo lugar, nuestra primera preocupación no es nuestro resultado deseado. Creo que nuestra primera preocupación es siempre Dios y la fidelidad de nuestra relación con Él, y luego el resultado de nuestros deseos vendrá con toda naturalidad. Esta es la paz que debemos buscar, "Buscad primeramente el Reino de Dios" (Mt. 6:33)

"Buscad Primeramente el Reino de Dios" - Tarde o temprano, tendremos que poner a Dios primero en nuestra vida, es decir, nuestro propio desarrollo espiritual verdadero debe convertirse en lo único que realmente importa. Cuando sabemos qué debe ser primero, nos deshacemos de una gran cantidad de basura innecesaria que a veces llevamos. Estaremos menos enfocados en correr tras las cosas que realmente no importan y solo desperdiciaremos nuestro tiempo y energía, una vez que hayamos puesto a Dios primero. Tarde o temprano, tendremos que poner a Dios primero en lugar de poner las "cosas de Dios" primero en nuestras vidas. Entonces nuestra vida se volverá más simple pero más rica e infinitamente más valiosa. "¿Por qué gastáis vuestro dinero en lo que no es pan, y vuestro trabajo en lo que no sacia?" (Isa. 55:2) - ¿Cuántas veces en nuestras vidas hemos desatendido la pregunta y amonestación de Isaías? ¿Con qué frecuencia nos sentimos insatisfechos cuando ponemos el enfoque equivocado en la vida? Buscar a Dios primero no es solo un buen consejo; es el único camino hacia una vida gozosa y fiel en compañía de Aquel que nos hizo y nos ama sin límites.

la transfiguración del señor

6 de agosto

Mientras venimos a recibir a Jesús en la Misa esta semana, recordémonos unos a otros en nuestras oraciones y sigamos poniendo a Dios en primer lugar en nuestras vidas. En el momento de silencio antes y después del Santo Sacrificio de la Misa, digámosle a Dios: "separados de ti, Señor, nada podemos hacer".

"Yo soy la vid; vosotros son las ramas. El que permanece en mí y yo en él, ése da mucho fruto, porque separados de mí nada podéis hacer". (Juan 15:5)

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Padre Thuc Nguyen
