Funeral Music Planning Guide

MUSIC FOR THE SACRED LITURGY

Music at a Catholic funeral proclaims Christian hope and draws all present into prayer. All music must be appropriate for the funeral liturgy and approved by the Director of Music.

PLANNING AND SELECTION • For a Funeral Mass, the family chooses music for the Offertory, Communion, and Recessional. A prelude is optional. • For a funeral liturgy outside Mass, the family chooses the Recessional. A prelude is optional; there is no Offertory, Communion, or Mass setting. • Other selections may be used with approval from the Director of Music. • The parish cantor sings the Entrance and Communion Antiphons, the Song of Farewell, and the procession chant to the place of committal.	DIRECTOR OF MUSIC Peter Brown peter.brown@sjwsp.org MUSIC PROVIDED BY THE PARISH Entrance and Communion Antiphons; Song of Farewell; and May the Angels Lead You into Paradise for the procession to the place of committal.
