Dear Parishioners,

Men about to be ordained to the priesthood are asked the following six questions:

- 1) Do you resolve with the help of the Holy Spirit to discharge without fail the Office of Priesthood in the presbyteral rank, as a worthy fellow worker with the Order of Bishops in caring for the Lord's flock?
- 2) Do you resolve to exercise the ministry of the Word worthily and wisely, preaching the Gospel and teaching the Catholic faith?
- 3) Do you resolve to celebrate faithfully and reverently, in accord with the Church's tradition, the Mysteries of Christ especially the sacrifice of the Eucharist and the Sacrament of Reconciliation, for the glory of God and the sanctification of the Christian people?
- 4) Do you resolve to implore with us God's mercy upon the people entrusted to your care by observing the command to pray without ceasing?
- 5) Do you resolve to be united more closely every day to Christ the High Priest, who offered Himself for us to the Father as a pure sacrifice, and with Him to consecrate yourself to God for the salvation of all?
- 6) Do you promise respect and obedience to me and my successors?

To most of these questions we answer "I do." To the fifth question, however, the answer is "I do, with the help of God." Of course, we need God's help to keep each of these promises, but we need extra help to offer ourselves as a pure sacrifice, consecrating ourselves to God. These are solemn promises made before God — they are vows! Please — keep praying for priests, that we will be faithful to vows.

To all the members of Holy Cross and St. Luke,

I would like to sincerely thank all of you for everything you have done for me. I am truly blessed to be able to call all of you my very dear parish family. I was born and raised at Holy Cross and I have called her my home parish for most of my life. I have so many fond memories of growing up here and I am so humbled, honored, and proud to be a "home grown" vocation from Holy Cross. It has been a wonderful experience these past six years in seminary and I want you all to know that your prayers and support have meant so much to me. As I begin my priesthood I will carry all the fond memories of my time with you at Holy Cross and St. Luke. I ask that you continue to pray for me and for all the priests in the Diocese of Charleston. Please also continue to pray for vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Please know that I will continue to keep you all in my prayers.

With much love,
 Father Jimmy Touzeau

A plenary indulgence has been granted to those who attend the first masses of Father Jimmy Touzeau.

In order to receive this plenary indulgence the following conditions must be met.

- Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin
- Receive Holy Communion
- Be in a state of grace i.e. Go to confession
- Pray for the intentions of the Pope. (Suggested one Our Father and One Hail Mary)
- Indulgences can always be applied either to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but they cannot be applied to other persons living on earth.

It is appropriate, but not necessary, that the sacramental Confession and especially Holy Communion and the prayer for the Pope's intentions take place on the same day that the indulgenced work is performed; but it is sufficient that these sacred rites and prayers be carried out within several days (about 20) before or after the indulgenced act.
