Dear Parishioners,

October 2nd was the feast of the Guardian Angels. We should be aware of four choirs of guardian angels — out of the nine total choirs. The choir of “Angels” serve God as guardians to individual humans. The choir of “Principalities” guard groups of people by territory or activity. They guard the people of South Carolina, as well as artists, filmmakers and scientists. The angels in the “Powers” choir guard history. The “Virtues” guard the major objects in the universe: stars, planets, comets.

When you pray for personal guidance from your personal guardian angel, throw in an intention to the guardian “Principality” angels who do their best to guide our cities, state, and nation — especially as we approach important elections!

Fr. Jim
