Dear Parishioners,

St. John Chrysostom writes: "Nothing is more violent than meekness. For as a fire, which is blazing, is quenched when water is thrown on it, so too the soul which is burning hotter than a forge is extinguished by a word uttered in meekness."

February 4 is a first Saturday, so now is a good time to consider the "Five First Saturdays Devotion" and plan for getting them done! To facilitate this devotion, on first Saturdays the 4:00 Mass at Holy Cross is followed by 15 minutes of meditation on the mysteries of the Rosary.

Handouts explaining this devotion are available in the vestibule and on our parish website.

Fr Jim Dubrouillet

The topic for our retreat is Pope St. John Paul II's letter, On the Dignity of Women. This pastoral letter was written to all the women of the world. Come and hear what this great Saint has to say about the feminine genius and the very special ways in which women contribute to the family, the Church, and the world. Registration required, cost $20.00. Deadline February 26, 2023. Contact Pam Guderian at 864-477-9384.

GREETING CARD MINISTRY: We continue to send cards filled with wishes and blessings to the residents at the Willows. January "Thinking of you" cards have be delivered. Valentine's Day cards will be delivered in the beginning of February. If you have any cards you would like to add, please drop them by the church office or on the table outside Liz Kyle's office.
