Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we begin our celebration of the liturgical season of Advent as we prepare our hearts for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, both at the end of time and in His Nativity. We welcome Fr. Patrick Baikauskas, O.P., who will preach at all the Masses this weekend and lead us in our Advent Mission on Monday, December 4th (10am, repeated at 7pm) and Tuesday, December 5th (10am, repeated at 7pm). We hope you can join us for one or more of these mission sessions.

Also, please make plans to attend our Advent Reconciliation Service this coming Thursday, December 7th at 7pm. We will have several priests from around the deanery who will be here to assist in hearing confessions. This is a great way to prepare your hearts for our celebration of Christmas and the coming year!

This coming Friday, December 8th is the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception which is a Holy Day of Obligation. We will have Masses at 6:30am, 12pm, and 7pm in the Church.

We have a lot of great events planned for Advent this year in addition to our Parish Mission and the Reconciliation Service. I have included an Advent calendar of events for you in this bulletin so you can plan to join us for these wonderful opportunities for prayer and fellowship.

Last week at all the Masses, I shared the news that Bishop Vásquez has approved Deacon Manseung Han's request to transfer to the parish of St. Paul Chong Hasang in Harker Heights. Deacon Han has prayerfully been discerning God's call to serve the Korean population in this parish. I am grateful for Deacon Han's service to our parish. His family will remain parishioners here at SVDP and Deacon Han will still visit when his schedule allows. Deacon Han asked me to share the following note with all of you:

Dear parishioners, I was reassigned by Bishop Joe Vásquez to St. Paul Chong Hasang Parish in Harker Heights as of December 8th. I thank Fr. Tom for helping me prudently discern the will of God for the last several months. I was truly honored to serve at this great parish, and I appreciate all your support and prayers over the last 9 years. I will keep this beautiful parish and you all in my prayers and see you sometimes as a SVdP parishioner. My wife Rosa will continue to serve at the Korean Bible Study Group here. Blessed be God forever. In peace, Deacon Han.

We will have a reception for Deacon Han after the 9:30am Mass this Sunday in the plaza outside the Church. Please stop by and thank Deacon Han and wish him well on his next assignment.

Have a safe and blessed week!

In Christ,
Fr. Tom

VOCATION DISCERNMENT MINISTRY

Discernment is a process of discovering God's call to love and serve Him through prayer, reflection and discussion. Discerning a vocation (to priesthood, the permanent diaconate or religious life) calls one to listen more closely to God speaking to the heart.

Diaconal Formation

We also pray for the men in our diocese currently in formation for the permanent diaconate, including parishioner Robert Tavarez who is in formation for the class of 2025 and Joe Bulger and Daniel Kloke for the class of 2028. Thank you for discerning God's call!

As we begin this season of advent, we also think about giving to others. The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is grateful for the many ways in which our parishioners share their gifts to support our neighbors in need. One way to share with others is by placing useful clothing, working appliances, gently worn furniture and other items in the bins at the back of our property. We ask that you put these items completely into the bins as those materials that are exposed to the elements are often damaged and must be discarded. If you have an item that cannot be placed in a bin, we ask that you deliver it directly to the store at 901 W. Braker Lane, Austin or call (512) 442-5652 to schedule a store pick-up. Next week, we'll share more about what happens to the items you place in the bins. Thank you for your generosity.

12/5 - MISSION SESSION 2, 10 AM
REPEATED AT 7 PM

Fr. Patrick Baikauskas, O.P

Fr. Patrick Baikauskas is a Dominican Friar of the Province of St. Albert the Great. He is the Vice President of Institutional Advancement and serves as the Director of the Center for Community Engagement and Evangelization, for the Aquinas Institute of Theology, in St. Louis, Missouri.

Ordained in 2008, Fr. Patrick began serving Saint Thomas Aquinas - The Catholic Center at Purdue University (and the largest parish in the Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana) for 14 years – 10 years as pastor. The center experiencing exciting growth under his leadership, growing from 200 students actively involved in parish life to nearly 3000. The number of resident parishioners expanded from 250 to 1500. The center also expanded ministry opportunities from less than ten to nearly 50.

In 2016, Pope Francis named him a Missionary of Mercy – an appointment that was recently made permanent. He was named one of 60 priests to serve as preachers for the Eucharistic Revival in the U.S. In addition to his duties at Aquinas, he also serves as a chaplain at the Catholic Student Center at Washington University. Fr. Patrick had a long career in public service, working for several elected officials, including a congressman, three governors, and the President of the United States.

We are excited to welcome Fr. Patrick, to St. Vincent de Paul parish as we begin our Advent journey to more fully open our lives to the true and living presence of our Lord, who came as an infant in Nazareth, who comes to us in the Eucharist, and who will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Gospel Weeklies

Matthew 11:11-12

“For the Son of Man is to come, and he will save those who are hungry for him, but those who hunger for him will never be satisfied.”

In the Blessed Sacrament, Christ is truly the Emmanuel,
that is: ‘God is with us.’ Day and night, he is in our midst. He dwells with us full of grace and truth.

—Saint Paul VI, Mysterium Fidei

It is always nice to visit a friend. Friends are there when we need them—to help us, counsel us, support us, and sometimes just listen to us. It is nice to know that friends are there when we need them.

Jesus is like that too. He is there for us in the tabernacle, really and truly. In the celebration of the Holy Mass, Jesus becomes present under the forms of bread and wine. When Mass is over, what is left of the Eucharist is placed in the tabernacle. That means that Jesus is really there for us to visit anytime. God is truly with us. Our friend Jesus is there to help, counsel, support, and just listen. And if we give Jesus some quiet time, he will speak back to us in the depths of our hearts and help us to solve whatever problems or concerns we might have. Just like you do with other friends, give some time to Jesus.

If the sacred liturgy holds first place in the life of the Church, the Eucharistic Mystery stands at the heart and center of the Liturgy. It is the font of life that cleanses us and strengthens us to live not for ourselves but for God and to be united to each other by the closest ties of love.

—Saint Paul VI, Mysterium Fidei

Immaculate Conception

A common misconception is that the Immaculate Conception refers to Jesus being conceived without Original Sin. In fact, as we see in the full title, Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, it is the Church’s belief that the Blessed Virgin Mary was conceived in the usual way BUT was preserved from original sin from the first moment of her conception, “by a singular grace and privilege of almighty God and by virtue of the merits of Jesus Christ, Savior of the human race, preserved immune from all stain of original sin” (CCC 491).

God did this because he had chosen Mary to be the Theotokos (God-Bearer), in order to give her divine Son a pure “tabernacle” in Mary’s womb. We see hints of this in Scriptures. Elizabeth exclaims, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!” (Lk 1:42). The angel Gabriel greets Mary with the words, “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you” (Lk 1:28).

Grace is a free gift of God enabling us to respond to God’s call. Sanctifying grace perfects our soul so that we may live with God and act by God’s love (CCC 2000). Through original sin, we lose sanctifying grace. However, God preserved sanctifying grace in Mary from the start. Mary still possessed the gift of free will and chose to say yes to God in the incarnation of her Son, Jesus. She continued to say yes to God in response to God’s grace and remained sinless throughout her life.
