I want to wish you all a very blessed Christmas! What a wonderful time for sharing and giving: God shared and gifted us with His Son, and we share and give to others. I hope your gatherings and festivities with family and friends are truly joyful and grace-filled. They provide wonderful opportunities for us to share our expressions of care, good wishes, and love to those who are so important in our lives. Thank you all for the many cards, greetings, and gifts you have shared with me. Your generosity and thoughtfulness are most appreciated. And may each day of the year ahead be filled with joy and peace for all.
