The Joy of the Magi

Wise men from the East arrived in Jerusalem asking where the infant king was. There had been something in the night sky which had caught their attention. When they came to the palace, Herod was alarmed. Could this be the return of the line of David? Would there be an insurrection against the Herodian dynasty? This fear of the newborn king, which led to mass murder, is contrasted with the joy of the magi who found the child when the star rested over the place in Bethlehem where the baby lived.

In Bethlehem, the magi met Jesus Christ, the true light who enlightens all. These gentiles came to worship, and worship is what they did. They presented gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

We can give Jesus, in our own lives, gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. We can use our skills, our time, and our wealth to help those in need. We can perform the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. We can take up our crosses and die to selfishness. No conversation is recorded between the wise men and the Holy Family. They worshipped and gave gifts. We are today's wise men when we follow Jesus, worship, and give gifts.

Holy Days of Obligation

In the Catholic Church, Holy Days of Obligation are the days on which the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass. They also abstain from unnecessary works, "which hinder the worship to be rendered to God, the joy proper to the Lord's day, or the suitable relaxation of mind and body." (Canon 1247 of the Code of Canon Law).

All Sundays are obligatory for the faithful to participate in the Mass.
