Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

My Dear Parishioners and Friends of ABVM:

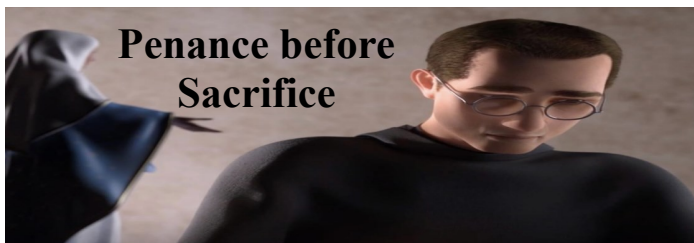

As you know on November 19th, 2023 we had a beautiful celebration for Eva May's 95th Birthday. That day, we made her day special and her great grandson Luca was baptized. Which was her birthday wish.

On Tuesday, March 5th, 2024 around the afternoon I received a nice call from Eva May's Daughter Bonnie. She expressed, that the family wants to keep in their memory that special 95th birthday as a life celebration of their beloved mother.

Bonnie on behalf of her siblings would like to express their appreciation and gratitude to the Church of Annunciation for being a family to Eva May all these years. Also for the prayers raised on behalf of her eternal rest.

We continue to pray for Eva May and all her beloved children.

Eva Rest in peace.
Your Son Priest Father Ricardo

By the use of the rose color indicating joy, the Church signals the conclusion of the first part of the Lenten season. During the past four weeks, our focus has been on penance and conversion, on turning back to God, who calls us to Himself. Next Sunday, the Lenten focus will shift. Next Sunday, we will begin to turn our attention to Christ's Passion as our liturgy ascends closer to Easter. In the first part of Lent, we worked for conversion in our lives. Now, we look more particularly toward Christ pouring out His life for us.

In the lifetime of Lent, Easter is still a long way off. We should be grateful that our liturgical period of penance, our exile from the promised land of Easter, is not literally a lifetime. The liturgical exile of the Jewish People in the sixth century before Christ was a true lifetime, seventy years according to Jeremiah.

In our first reading from Chronicles, the cause of the Babylonian Exile is shameful practices by the king and the people of Judah. The resulting lifespan of penance comes historically between the defilement and destruction of the temple and the construction of the Second Temple when sacrifice is resumed.

In the Christian life, too, penitence and exile are brought to an end with sacrifice. Penitence reaches its consummation with the gift of the Son of God so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life.
