From Palm Sunday onwards, the gospels tell us what Jesus did every day for the rest of His life. Holy Week is a space of time transcending time. It takes us through a sequence of divine moments that become one. The next seven days echo the six days of Creation. Luke's Passion narrative ends with the women who followed Jesus to the tomb. They return to their lodgings and prepare spices and ointments for His burial. But first: They rested on the Sabbath in accordance with the commandment.

Our redemption echoes the work of Creation – six days and on the seventh day, God rested. Jesus begins His redemptive action on Palm Sunday. Holy Week is a space of time transcending time. It participates in work that involves a sequence of divine moments. It calls for our presence.

On Palm Sunday, the Church confronts us and confuses us with the mystery of Holy Week. Previously, Jesus had always gone up to Jerusalem quietly. He had silenced the gratitude of the beneficiaries of His miracles. But this Passover, His hour had come. On this Passover, Jesus allows His followers to make Him the center of interest.

Today, in a single liturgy, two contradictory, separate events are observed. We experience the exultation of His entrance into Jerusalem and then listen to the crushing anguish of His passion. It is good for us to be with Him – step-by-step. Day by day. Then we rest and wake up to Easter.

Fr. Ricardo Ortega.

MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK!

Over and over, we have proved that we are not an ordinary group of people. We have accomplished so much over the years because we function as a team of many hands with one mind lightening our work. By donating just $3 more, you can make a huge impact and help us continue to grow and serve our community. Every contribution, no matter the size makes a difference.

We can do this!

Many thanks for all your generous support. If it were not for God's mercy and you, this Parish would not exist.
