SAINT MATTHEW
Apostle & Evangelist
Wednesday, September 21st

Matthew (or Levi), the tax collector, is called to be an evangelist to proclaim the good news by word and deed.

According to the bishop Papisa (c.125), the Church's canonical text of Matthew draws upon the Aramaic traditions associated with his name. Composed c.85, the gospel is generally arranged in an alternating pattern of narrative and discourse. Intended for a largely Jewish-Christian audience, it seeks to portray Christianity as consistent with the Jewish tradition and a continuation of it. Tradition holds that Matthew preached in Judea and in Ethiopia where he was martyred; symbolized by the winged human being; mentioned in the Roman Canon; patron of accountants and customs officers.

Saint Pius of Pietrelcina, Priest
Friday, September 22nd

"Padre Pio" was born Francesco Forgione in 1887 in the small Italian village of Pietrelcina. A Capuchin priest who had received the stigmata, he spent fifty years at the monastery of San Giovanni Rotondo, where he was much sought after as a spiritual advisor, confessor, and intercessor. Despite such notoriety, he would often say, "I only want to be a poor friar who prays." His life was devoted to the Eucharist and to prayer. He died 23 September 1968 at age eight-one. Pope John Paul II announced the inclusion of his Memorial in the General Roman Calendar in June 2022. He is considered the patron saint of civil defense volunteers and Catholic adolescents.
