TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

TWENTY SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CARE FOR EACH OTHER

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness." Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The "ecumenical movement" (from the Greek word meaning the "the whole inhabited world") began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians. In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council's Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians "separated brethren," a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as "outside the Church." A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years.

The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry. Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship.

10 DAYS ROSARY

October is the Month of the Rosary -

Since 1571 The Rosary is such an important tool for prayer in our lives that the entire month of October has been dedicated to the Rosary.

Please join us in praying the Rosary at 5:30pm every evening beginning Monday, October 3rd through Friday the 7th and then Monday, October 10th through Friday, October 14th. We will be praying outside in front of our Blessed Mother Mary at the Grotto

REQUEST FOR THE HOLY EUCHARIST AND VISITATION

You may know a parishioner who is a relative or friend who due to illness, accident, or recovering from a medical procedure, is unable to attend Mass. Whether short or long term, these faithful need not be deprived of their place of prayer and reception of Holy Communion. St. Michael's Extraordinary Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound represent our Parish in visitation to Baptist Nassau Hospital, the local nursing/assisted living facilities, and private homes. Anointing of the sick or Visitation requests should be directed to the Parish Office at 261-3472.

Formation

Catechetical Sunday 2022

Fr. Jose commissioned the Catechists involved with RCIA, SMA and Religious Formation, at the 10 am Mass this past Sunday. "This is my body given for you" is the theme selected by the United States Council of Catholic Bishops.

Religious Formation off to a blessed start: Father Jose's moving homily at Mass, creative new ideas shared at our parents meeting and closing prayers with students presenting their Saint of the Week Lesson on St. Michael. Thanks to everyone who attended and to all ministry volunteers who helped make the evening happen. Thank you.

Lisa Sala (Director of Religious Formation)

Change for Life

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN

The St. Michael Respect Life Ministry is sponsoring a Baby Bottle Campaign in support of the new Women's Help Center in Nassau County. They are a local pro-life pregnancy resource center which helps at-risk women and families in Northeast Florida. Please be sure to pick up an empty Baby Bottle from Respect Life members when exiting the church following all Masses next weekend (Oct 1st and 2nd).

We kindly ask that you fill it with any loose change, cash, or check (made out to Women's Help Center, Callahan) and return it the following week (Oct. 8th and 9th) prior to Mass, at the front entrance of the church. 100 percent of your donated money will directly help at-risk women and families in Nassau County. Thank you for supporting such an important cause in the Sanctity of Life!
