FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, CYCLE A

Fortunate are those who are poor in spirit...»

Today, we can read this Gospel, so well known by most of us but, at the same time, so surprising. With this fragment of The Beatitudes, Jesus offers us a model of life; some values that, He says, are the only ones that can make us truly happy.

Surely, happiness is what we all are looking for in our life. And if we would ask anyone how is he trying to be happy, or where does he look for their own happiness, we should probably get many different answers. There would be those who would claim they only find happiness in solid Christian family principles; others, in being healthy and have a job; others, who revel in friendship and leisure time..., and then, there would be those more influenced by our consumer society, who would claim that happiness consists in having plenty of money to be able to acquire as many things as possible and, most than all, to reach the highest possible social status.

The beatitudes Jesus is proposing us are not, precisely, those our today's world is offering us. The Lord says that «fortunate» will be those who are poor in spirit, the gentle, those who mourn, those who hunger and thirst for justice, the merciful, those with a pure heart, those who work for the peace, those who are persecuted for the cause of justice... (cf. Mt 5:3-11).

This message by the Lord is addressed to those who want to live a life of unselfishness, of meekness, of desire for justice, of preoccupation and interest for the problems of their fellow men, and cast aside all the rest.

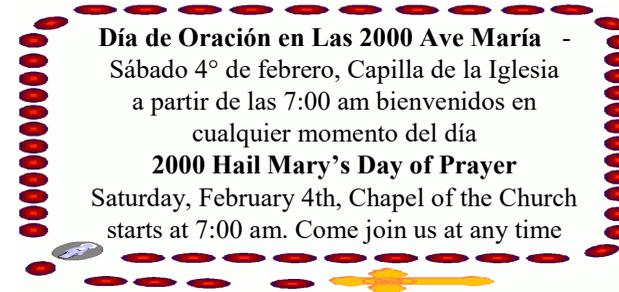

We can make a lot of good by praying, or by fraternally correcting those who criticize us for believing in God and belonging to the Church! Jesus clearly points it out in the last beatitude: «Fortunate are you, when people insult you and persecute you and speak all kinds of evil against you because you are my followers!» (Mt 5:11).

St. Basil says: «Beauty, nor stature, nor honors bestowed by all mankind, nor kingship itself, nor other human attribute that one might mention, do we judge great, nay, we do not even consider them worth praying for, nor do we look with admiration upon those who possess them, but our hopes lead us forward to a more distant time, and everything we do is by way of preparation for the other life».

No hay jóvenes malos, hay jóvenes que no saben que pueden ser buenos y alguien tiene que decirselos.
San Juan Bosco

Our School boiler is not working and is in need of repair. I am asking your help with donations for the work that is being done. So far we have paid a total of $5,737.32 in parts. Please consider donating as much as you can to subdue this expense. God Bless You!

Dear Parishioner: As I'm sure you have noticed our collections are very low, the school is not rented and; we need your help! The Church continues to struggle and at times finds itself unable to meet its financial responsibilities. Your weekly contributions make it possible for our parish to continue to flourish and prosper; without there is no St Anthony's Church! We know many of our families are also struggling and understand the financial burdens of life, but if everyone gives "just a little extra" we will be the thriving parish we once were. God Bless You!

Congratulations to all the students accepted to the Class of 2027 at Morris Catholic. At Morris Catholic, we are committed to helping students grow into persons of character, active members of their community, and committed lifelong learners. In the spirit of Catholic Schools' Week, we will continue to welcome students and families who have recently begun to consider a Catholic education with our rolling admissions process. We are also accepting transfer applications for grades 10 and 11 for the 2023-2024 year. Do not hesitate to reach out to our Admissions department if you would still like to experience a campus tour or shadow day. Contact admissions@morriscatholic.org or 973-627-6674 ext. 322 for more information.
