in a Fictional New York Times Bestseller

Add Theo of Golden by Allen Levi to your Summer Reading List!

The novel follows the enigmatic yet kindly actions of Theo, an elderly Portuguese man who arrives in the southern town of Golden and discovers 92 pencil portraits displayed at a local coffee shop. He embarks on a mission to purchase these portraits and give them to their subjects, whom he considers to be the works' "rightful owners," and his "bestowals" create profound connections across the community before his true identity is revealed.

The novel explores themes of:

- Cultivating connection through art and kindness
- The transformative power of being truly seen
- Finding redemptive value in sadness and joy

There will be some light refreshments and great conversation. We promise to start and end on time. Feel free to bring a friend. RSVP using the QR code. Questions to Mary Rohe at marymax44@yahoo.com
