Once a man was driving along the country road lost his way. Looking for some person to receive fresh direction, he went ahead and discovered a farmhouse with a man working in the field and an elderly woman sitting right in front of the house doing some little odd things. The old man in the farm was whistling clearly and loudly and he was certainly looked out of tune. To overcome his curiosity and also to find directions the man went there to him and asked for directions which he got instantly. Then he asked why he was whistling all the while and it must be part of his work. The man said that he has been married for 45 years and the couple has been happy together. But suddenly his wife lost her sight and became helpless. In order to acknowledge his closeness to her and his presence, he whistles all the while and she knows he is close to her.

A member of a monastic order once committed a fault. A council was called to determine the punishment, but when the monks assembled it was noticed that Father Joseph was not among them. The superior sent someone to say to him, "Come, for everyone is waiting for you." So Father Joseph got up and went. He took a leaking jug, filled it with water, and carried it with him. When the others saw this they asked, "What is this, father?" The old man said to them, "My sins run out behind me, and I do not see them, and today I am coming to judge the error of another?"

Pastor and Farmer: "Do you smoke, drink or curse?" The pastor asked the old farmer. It was a hesitant, "Well, every once in a while." "You know, John, I don't smoke, drink, or cuss..." "Yessuh, pastor, but you don't farm either..."

Gary Dearing told a story about his Air Force Colonel, who served as inspector general of his command, and paid particular attention to how personnel wore their uniforms. "On one occasion the Colonel spotted a junior airman with a violation. 'Airman,' he bellowed, 'What do you do when a shirt pocket is unbuttoned?' The startled airman replied, 'Button it, sir!' The Colonel looked him in the eye and said, 'Well?' At that, the airman nervously reached over and buttoned the Colonel's shirt pocket."
