A Message from the Pastor

Dear Friends in St. Dominic.

This week-end scriptures tell us that only grace gives lasting value to our actions. A branch cannot bear fruit unless it is connected to the tree. Christ reminded us of this truth at the Last Supper, when he told his Apostles that he was the vine and they were the branches, so they should always stay united to him. His encounter with Mary and Martha in the Gospel teaches us the same lesson, a lesson that Martha really needed to learn. Martha needed to learn that what we do for Christ has to flow out of what we are for him: true and devoted friends.

It is easy to overload our agenda with so many activities and commitments (even good and beneficial ones) that we lose sight of our real goal in life: to know, love, and imitate Christ more each day. Only that will give real meaning to our lives. Only that will enable us to help others find meaning. Only that will fill us with the steadily increasing joy we long for.

Jesus is not saying that we should not do things, serve others, work hard, and honor our commitments. No! Jesus does not reprimand Martha for her activity. He reprimands her for being so worried and anxious about all those activities. She has become so caught up in getting things done, that she has lost sight of why she is doing them. She is like a branch desperately trying to bear fruit by its own power.

The result is predictable - frustration, anger, impatience, losing her temper. Unless we are plugged into Christ and his grace, unless we constantly feed our souls with his words, unless everything we do flows out of our friendship with him - the one thing necessary - none of our actions, even the good ones, can have lasting value. And only lasting value will give peace to our hearts.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

Este fin de semana las escrituras nos dicen que sólo la gracia da un valor duradero a nuestras acciones. Un sarmiento no puede dar fruto si no está conectado al árbol. Cristo nos recuerda esta verdad en la última cena, cuando le dijo a sus apóstoles que él era la viña y ellos eran las ramas, por lo que siempre debe mantenerse unidos a él. Su encuentro con María y Marta en el Evangelio nos enseña la misma lección, una lección que Martha realmente necesitaba aprender. Martha tenía que aprender que lo que hacemos por Cristo tiene que fluir de lo que somos para él: amigos verdaderos y devotos. Es fácil sobrecargar nuestra agenda con tantos actividades y compromisos (aunque buenos y beneficiosos), que perdemos de vista nuestro objetivo real en la vida: conocer, amar e imitar a Cristo más cada día. Sólo que dará verdadero sentido a nuestras vidas. Sólo que nos permitirá ayudar a otros a encontrar significado. Sólo que nos llenará de la Constante el aumento de la alegría que anhelamos.

Jesús no está diciendo que no debemos hacer cosas, para servir a los demás, el trabajo duro, y honrar Nuestra compromisos. ¡No! Jesús no reprendió Martha por su actividad. Él la reprende por siendo tan preocupada y ansiosa por todos aquellos ocupaciones. Ella ha llegado a ser tan atrapados en hacer las cosas, que ha perdido de vista el por qué ella está haciendo las cosas. Ella es como una rama desesperadamente tratando de dar fruto por sus propios medios.

El resultado es predecible - frustración, ira, impaciencia, perder los estribos. A menos que estén conectados en Cristo y su gracia, a menos que alimentar constantemente nuestras almas con sus palabras, a menos que todo lo que hacemos fluye fuera de nuestra amistad con él - la única cosa necesaria ninguna de nuestras acciones, incluso los buenos, puede tener un valor duradero. Y solo un valor duradero dará paz a nuestro corazón.

Atentamente suyo en Cristo
Rev. Roger Estorque

The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord

WATCH YOUR POSTURE

Our posture is often a tip-off to our hospitality and reverence for the Lord. Note the actions of Abraham as he greeted the Lord in the presence of three men who appeared near his tent. He ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them. He bowed to the ground as he met them. He and Sarah, his wife, hastened to prepare a meal and bring food and water to their guests.

In the Gospel story, Jesus' friend Mary sat at his feet in order to listen to him speak.

How do we welcome and reverence the Lord? What do our actions show? Do we remember the Lord's presence in the Blessed Sacrament? How do we welcome the Lord in the scripture readings? How do we acknowledge his presence in our brothers and sisters, both at Mass and afterwards?

Whether we kneel, stand, or sit in the Lord's presence, may our hearts and minds always be attuned to him.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The French Revolution is hardly a "treasure" in our story, yet in 1789 it began to dismantle the way the world was organized: feudalism. The collapsed society had three basic divisions: those who work, those who fight, and those who pray. There wasn't a great deal of movement among the ranks, yet one way to move out of the workers and the fighters was in the direction of the folks who prayed. These were the First Estate, the clergy.

One of the key persons in any manor or village was the priest. He could read, at least a bit, and so was the source for pronouncements and news from government and Church. He was assigned to celebrate the sacraments frequently and in conformance with certain rules.

Seminaries did not exist before the Reformation. Astute Protestant reformers then forced the Catholic world toward a more educated and able clergy. Before that, young men apprenticed with a priest to learn the essentials, and would be presented to the bishop for ordination. Other priests emerged from the university system, where students were required to be invested as clerics. Still others were monks, ordained not so much for ministry outside the monastic walls, but to offer Mass only for the intentions of the community's benefactors.

CUIDA TU POSTURA

Nuestra postura es muchas veces un indicio de nuestra hospitalidad y reverencia por el Señor. Observa las acciones de Abraham cuando saludó al Señor en presencia de tres hombres que aparecieron cerca de su tienda. Corrió desde la entrada de la tienda a saludarlos. Se postró en tierra a su encuentro. Él y Sara, su esposa, se apresuraron a preparar una comida y llevarle alimento y agua a sus invitados.

En el relato del Evangelio, María, la amiga de Jesús, se sentó a sus pies para escucharlo hablar.

¿Cómo le damos la bienvenida y reverenciamos al Señor? ¿Qué demuestran nuestras acciones? ¿Recordamos la presencia del Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento? ¿Cómo le damos la bienvenida al Señor en las lecturas de las Escrituras? ¿Cómo reconocemos su presencia en nuestros hermanos y hermanas, tanto en la Misa como después?

Ya sea que nos arrodillemos, nos pongamos de pie o nos sentemos ante la presencia del Señor, que nuestro corazón y nuestra mente esté siempre en sintonía con él.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

América es un continente nacido del mestizaje que tomó a los europeos, los indígenas y los africanos para engendrar algo nuevo. Normalmente pensamos en el mestizaje de sangre que produjo nuevas razas latinoamericanas. Pero también existe el mestizaje cultural que produce nuevos elementos latinoamericanos. Uno de estos es el sarape, hijo de la tilma pre-colombina y el manto español. Este mestizaje en tela tiene sus principios en el siglo XVIII con una proliferación de talleres en Zacatecas, Saltillo y otros lugares. Esta cobija colorida, de algodón o lana, fue desarrollada para añadir color y belleza a los charros de siglos pasados.

A través de la historia el sarape ha sido usado por vaqueros, jinetes, soldados y revolucionarios. Hoy día el sarape, jorongo, frazada, gabán o cobija se ha convertido en símbolo de tradición mexicana y se encuentra decorando hogares, restaurantes e iglesias. México no es el único país que ha desarrollado un mestizaje en tela, también Guatemala, Colombia, El Salvador y otros más tienen sus telas y tapetes particulares que mezclan los colores y los diseños para celebrar el talento y la creatividad del mestizaje latinoamericano.
