From The Pastor

Dear Friends in St. Dominic

In today's Gospel we read about how Jesus overturned the tables of the merchants and the moneychangers in the Temple at Jerusalem. In order to understand the relevance of Jesus' action, we must learn more about the activities that were going on in the temple area. Worship at the Temple in Jerusalem included animal sacrifice, and merchants sold animals to worshipers. Moneychangers exchanged Roman coins, which bore the image of the Roman emperor, for the temple coins that were needed to pay the temple tax.

Jesus' action at the Temple in Jerusalem is recorded in all four Gospels and is often understood to be among the events that led to Jesus' arrest and Crucifixion. The Gospel of John, however, places this event much earlier in Jesus' public ministry than do the Synoptic Gospels. In John's Gospel this event occurs at the very beginning of Jesus' ministry, after his first miracle at the wedding feast at Cana.

We must read the Gospel of John carefully, especially in its presentation of Jesus' relationship to Judaism. The Gospel of John tends to reflect greater tension and animosity between Jesus and the Jewish authorities than the Synoptic Gospels. The Gospel of John was the last of the four Gospels to be written, and its narrative reflects the growing divide between the Jewish community and the early Christian community. Thus, greater emphasis on the distinction between Christianity and Judaism is found in John's Gospel.

Reflecting upon the destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem (A.D. 70), John recalls Jesus' cleansing of the Temple and uses that story to interpret this later event. John explains to his audience, an early Christian community, that temple worship would no longer be necessary because it was surpassed in the passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus. With greater frequency than the other Evangelists, John intersperses post-Resurrection reflections of this Christian community in his narrative.

After clearing the Temple of the merchants and the money changers, John's Gospel tells us that the people asked for a sign of Jesus' authority to do such an audacious act. In response, Jesus predicted his death and Resurrection. Throughout John's Gospel, the language of signs is distinctive. Jesus' miracles are called signs, and the people look to these signs for proof of his authority. Here we learn that the sign par excellence will be Jesus' passion, death, and Resurrection.

During Lent we reflect upon the meaning of this sign for us and for our world. We might take this opportunity to consider the quality of our prayer and worship. In our prayers we seek to deepen our relationship with the person of Christ. In our worship with the community, we gather to experience anew the passion, death, and Resurrection of Jesus and its significance in our lives. Christ promises to be present with us when we gather for prayer.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

En el Evangelio de hoy leemos acerca de cómo Jesús volcó las mesas de los mercaderes y los cambistas en el Templo de Jerusalén. Para comprender la relevancia de la acción de Jesús, debemos aprender más acerca de las actividades que estaban sucediendo en el área del templo. La adoración en el Templo en Jerusalén incluía el sacrificio de animales, y los mercaderes vendían animales a los fieles. Los cambistas cambiaron monedas romanas, que llevaban la imagen del emperador romano, por las monedas del templo que se necesitaban para pagar el impuesto del templo.

La acción de Jesús en el Templo de Jerusalén se registra en los cuatro Evangelios y se entiende a menudo entre los eventos que llevaron al arresto y Crucifixión de Jesús. El Evangelio de Juan, sin embargo, ubica este evento mucho antes en el ministerio público de Jesús que lo que hacen los evangelios sinópticos. En el Evangelio de Juan, este evento ocurre en el principio del ministerio de Jesús, después de su primer milagro en el banquete de bodas en Cana.

Debemos leer el Evangelio de Juan cuidadosamente, especialmente en su presentación de la relación de Jesús con el judaísmo. El Evangelio de Juan tiende a reflejar una mayor tensión y animosidad entre Jesús y las autoridades judías que los evangelios sinópticos. El Evangelio de Juan fue el último de los cuatro Evangelios que se escribió, y su narración refleja la creciente división entre los judíos comunidad y la comunidad cristiana primitiva. Por lo tanto, mayor el énfasis en la distinción entre el cristianismo y el judaísmo se encuentra en el Evangelio de Juan.

Al reflexionar sobre la destrucción del Templo de Jerusalén (año 70 d. C.), Juan recuerda la limpieza del templo por parte de Jesús y usa esa historia para interpretar este evento posterior. John explica a su audiencia, una comunidad cristiana primitiva, que la adoración del templo ya no sería más necesario porque fue superado en la pasión, la muerte y La resurrección de Jesús. Con mayor frecuencia que el otro Evangelistas, Juan intercala reflexiones posteriores a la Resurrección de esta comunidad cristiana en su narrativa.

Después de limpiar el Templo de los mercaderes y el dinero cambiantes, el Evangelio de Juan nos dice que las personas pidieron un signo de la autoridad de Jesús para hacer un acto tan audaz. En respuesta, Jesús predijo su muerte y Resurrección. A lo largo del Evangelio de Juan, el lenguaje de los signos es distintivo. Los milagros de Jesús se llaman signos, y la gente mira estos signos como prueba de su autoridad. Aquí aprendemos que el signo por excelencia será la pasión, la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús.

Durante la Cuaresma reflexionamos sobre el significado de este signo para nosotros y para nuestro mundo. Podríamos aprovechar esta oportunidad para considerar el calidad de nuestra oración y adoración. En nuestras oraciones, buscamos profundizar nuestra relación con la persona de Cristo. En nuestra adoración con la comunidad, nos reunimos para experimentar nuevamente la pasión, la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús y su significado en nuestras vidas. Cristo promete estar presente con nosotros cuando nos reunamos para orar.

¡Atentamente suyo en Cristo
