Speaker

Joanna Jullien

A member of SJM parish since 2004, Joanna is a mom of two grown sons. She left a career in technology in 2004 (when her younger son hit middle school) to focus on learning how to parent children with mobile devices in the home. In 2013 she organized parenting workshops for SJM parents and the community. Today she serves as a healthcare education professional at a private university, and continues to offer ministry workshops to help parents address the very real anxieties and pressures of the cyber-powered popular culture that can lead us to stray from the Providence of God's love in the family.

The fundamental premise of her training refers to what God says about hope in Jeremiah 31:16-17:

Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work will be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.
