Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping.

— Father John Muir

We're excited to share news about our upcoming faith formation registration! Keep an eye out for the announcement in our parish newsletter and bulletins. This program serves as a beautiful journey towards sacramental preparation for children in 2nd and 7th grades. If you're a parent considering this spiritual path for your child, we encourage you to reach out to Katerina. Simply send her an email at sjmfamilyfaithformation@gmail.com to arrange a chat, where you can discuss any inquiries or concerns and get a deeper understanding of what sacramental preparation entails.

But that's not all - we're also pleased to offer a faith formation program for children from Kindergarten through to 6th grade.

Tailored for those who may not be preparing for a sacrament but are keen to dive deeper into their faith, this is a great chance for your child to blossom in their spiritual understanding within a nurturing and educational setting. We warmly invite you to consider these programs as a way to enrich your child's spiritual growth.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world. (Wis 2:24)

Psalm:

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading:

Not that others should have relief while you are burdened,
but that as a matter of equality
your abundance at the present time should supply their needs,
so that their abundance may also supply your needs,
that there may be equality. (2 Cor 8:13-14)

Gospel:

He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha kum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (Mk 5:41)
