CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17

-St. Joseph Marello

From the Desk of Fr. Brian

Greeting brothers and sisters of St. Joseph Marelo Parish. It has been a while since I wrote about St. Joseph Marelo and I plan on doing so again very soon. However, I wanted to take the opportunity to express my great gratitude and joy to God and to all of you for the opportunity to be your pastor over this past year. It has truly been a blessing in all respects. Particularly over the past few weeks, I have been able to notice our truly family spirit and your willingness to share your treasure, time and talent. Specifically:

Saturday, May 24: Arts in the Garden: a very successful event in which your artistic talents and skills were on full display for all to see and enjoy. Talk about sharing talents!

Friday, May 30: Solemnity of our Holy Patron, St. Joseph Marelo: This celebration was particularly important because it was preceded by a Triduum of prayer and reflection in which we were able to appreciate even more our Patron and guide, St. Joseph Marelo, as we continue our journey as Pilgrims of Hope (a special thank you to the Friday morning clean-up crew and the Vocation Committee, for the nice receptions after our two masses...talk about sharing time!)

Weekend of May 31 & June 1: Fr. John Attulli, OSJ, was welcomed into our parish and we were able to hear his experience of our mission in India and then to support the same with our very generous donations. Talk about sharing treasure! (Total over $10,000!)

Finally, a parish event in which the sharing of all three was on full display: our Parish Picnic on Pentecost Sunday! What a glorious day it was and what a wonderful time we had! A very great thank you to our Ad-hoc Picnic committee for the organization and for the many volunteers who assisted in all aspects of the picnic. An awesome display of our desire to serve and to celebrate our faith together. Well done all!

In that spirit of serving and celebrating, we will be restarting an initiative with the charitable organization, The Gathering Inn, which seeks to assist people who are in need of housing and other basic needs. Representatives of the organization will be with us this weekend to speak about their service and how we can assist them in their efforts. Another opportunity to share our treasure, time and talent!

God bless.

Fr. Brian, OSJ

Homebound Ministry

Our Homebound Ministry needs additional ministers to assist in bringing Holy Communion to our elderly, sick, and disabled parishioners. The number that our ministry now serves has increased.

The persons we visit weekly are unable to attend Mass on Sunday and receive Holy Communion regularly. Generally we visit the homebound at a prearranged time on Tuesday mornings. With a few more ministers, each minister or team will only have to serve at most one morning a month.

We have found this to be a very rewarding ministry and have training available to those interested in participating in this ministry. Please consider volunteering.

For more information, please contact the Parish office at (916) 786-5001 or sjmarelloparish@yahoo.com or call or e-mail Yvonne von Brauchitsch at (916) 740-4394 or dyvonb@surewest.net
