Homebound Ministry

Our Homebound Ministry needs additional ministers to assist in bringing Holy Communion to our elderly, sick, and disabled parishioners. The number that our ministry now serves has increased.

The persons we visit weekly are unable to attend Mass on Sunday and receive Holy Communion regularly. Generally we visit the homebound at a prearranged time on Tuesday mornings. With a few more ministers, each minister or team will only have to serve at most one morning a month.

We have found this to be a very rewarding ministry and have training available to those interested in participating in this ministry. Please consider volunteering.

For more information, please contact the Parish office at (916) 786-5001 or sjmarelloparish@yahoo.com or call or e-mail Yvonne von Brauchitsch at (916) 740-4394 or dyvonb@surewest.net

Vocation Cross

Jesus calls each of us to build up His Church. In the parable of the Good Shepherd, he reminds us that "The harvest indeed is great, but the workers are few", and He exhorts us to pray to Our Heavenly Father to send laborers into the harvest.

Jesus' invitation is every bit as true today as it was when He sent His disciples to preach the Good News to whomever they met. We can respond to His call by praying to Our Heavenly Father for vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and dedicated religious life.

We invite every family in our Saint Joseph Mareello community to join us in taking home the Vocation Cross for one week. Each Sunday, at the end of mass, the vocation cross is offered to those who wish to take it home for the week...make sure to get you hand up if you want to be chosen! Then, having taken the cross home, gather each day as a family and recite the Vocation prayer for that day found in the vocation booklet given with the cross. Return the Cross the next Sunday so it can be given to another family. You may keep the booklet.

May Our Heavenly Father bless our parish, our diocese and His church with men and women who will give themselves to Him in service of others.
