More Than Ever

A Catholic Support Group for Parents Estranged
from Adult Children

Saturdays August 2nd – October 4th
8:45 – 10:00

It has become increasingly common for caring parents to find themselves estranged from an adult child in spite of heartfelt and sincere attempts at reconciliation. The pain and distress from the loss of relationship can leave people feeling isolated and alone. We are beginning a support group at SJM on August 2nd for parents to find hope and healing through shared experiences, spiritual guidance, and prayer in a safe and encouraging setting.

For more information contact Anne Lyons annelyonslmft@gmail.com

St. Stephen Ministry

St. Stephen Ministers provide Christ-centered care and support to those experiencing the many difficulties of life including grief, divorce, cancer, unemployment, spiritual crisis, and other challenges. This one-to-one, confidential care is provided for members of our parish and the surrounding community.

Our St. Stephen Ministers are ready to bring Jesus' love and care to those in need and would like to be there to listen and care as you sort through your feelings.

To find out more about St. Stephen Ministry or to receive a St. Stephen Minister's care, contact one of the St. Stephen Ministry Leaders, Darlene McClure or Deacon Jeff McClure at darlenejeff@sbcglobal.net

Questions of the Week

Invite Parishioners to Reflect and Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

Abraham's treatment of the three strangers modeled the value of hospitality in the ancient world. What are some ways you show kindness and warmth to others?

Second Reading:

Paul found reasons to rejoice despite suffering for his faith in Christ and his mission to the Gentiles. How do you find joy and hope in difficult situations?

Gospel:

Jesus teaches Martha that her anxiety and worry can be calmed by listening to his words. How can you be present this week to an anxious friend or co-worker?
