From the Pastor’s Desk...

From an unpacked desk...

I cannot begin to communicate how pleased I am to have been assigned here at St. Colman. All things certainly happen under God’s providential care, and He “maketh his sun to rise upon the good, and bad, and raineth upon the just and the unjust” (Matt 5:45). I don’t presume to be either just or unjust, but I will say the Holy Spirit must have a special love of me, or something, to have placed me in such a wonderful community. I have only been here a few days, but the people I have met have convinced me further that this is a community which is caring, generous, and desirous of growing in the love of Christ. I am grateful to Bishop Brennan and the Holy Spirit that I have found myself in such a pleasing situation.

I know that these are not the best of times to meet, with the ever-present threat of COVID-19. I know to some it seems an annoyance, and to others a real hazard and danger. Either way, it has affected all of our lives dramatically. While this pandemic is still happening, we will have to deal with whatever comes our way as best we can. For this, there is no roadmap or previously established best practices. I do wish we could carry on with Mass and the parish life as usual, but sadly I know we cannot, for the time being. We must entrust ourselves to God’s loving wisdom and know that He will bring us through this difficult time.

Despite the difficulties we face, my hope is to meet all of you and to get to know each of you personally. I am hoping (and expecting) that together we will be able to grow closer to Our Lord Jesus Christ and the Salvation He brings. God Bless all of you.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. C. M. Haddad
