Mass Intentions for All Souls Day Mass

Again this year, Father will include your intentions for your loved ones during the All Souls Mass on November 2nd at 7pm.

Envelopes like the one here can be found in the back of church and at the ramp door. List the name(s) of your intentions on the envelope and drop it, along with your payment, in the collection basket. (No online giving options are available for this.) Each intention. Checks made payable to St. Colman. Please do not combine with your offertory checks as this is a separate back account.

Intentions received in the Parish Office by Monday, October 25 will be included in the bulletin the following weekend and included in the Mass Intentions at the 7:00pm all Souls Day Mass.

In offering the Precious Blood of Our Lord, in union with all the Masses said throughout the world, we extend to the faithful departed souls in Purgatory the greatest act of charity and the greatest benefit.

Every Sacred Sunday Mass Journal

In 2017, two college roommates put their heads together and asked themselves, “How can we help others to dive deeper into the liturgy and the sacrifice of the Mass?” This journal was the response. The Journal helps us to prepare our hearts for Mass, to record and reflect on the living Word of God and to live out the Gospel.

- ♦ Prepare for Mass with full Mass readings for each Sunday and Holy Day Mass of obligation.
- ♦ Simple 4-part journaling template helps make scripture study and prayer a habit.
- ♦ Scripture Speaks: re-write and reflect on a verse from the weekly readings.
- ♦ Weekly Intentions: offer up prayer of thanksgiving and a prayer request.
- ♦ Reflect on readings, take notes on the homily or journal about how God is speaking to you through the Mass.
- ♦ Go Forth: commit to growing your faith with one action that week.
- ♦ Live out the Gospel.

Rebecca Elrich is taking orders now through October 31. Cost will be around $40 depending on the number of journals we order.

To reserve your copy, email reled@stcolmanwch.org. This also would make a wonderful Christmas gift!

You can learn more about the journal at <https://everysacredsunday.com/journal>

Senior Lunch, This Thursday, October 14 at Noon

Sign up in the back of church or call the Parish Office by this Monday, October 11 if you plan to attend. No cost but we do need to know if you are coming so that we can have adequate food supply. You don't have to be a "senior" to attend. Menu will be Chicken Pot Pie, salad and dessert.

Sponsor Coffee & Donuts

There are still Sundays to sponsor for Coffee & Donuts! Instead of using a "donations" jar on Sunday mornings, we are inviting you to be a sponsor of coffee & donuts for one Sunday a year. The sponsorship is $50 (even though that doesn't cover the total cost of coffee and donuts). You will not be required to get supplies or serve them. We are just asking for your monetary help. Matt and Molly Pettit will continue to set up and serve Coffee & Donuts — although they welcome your help if you want to do so!

Sponsoring is SO EASY! Simply put your $50 check made payable to St. Colman with "Coffee & Donuts" on the memo line in the collection basket or give through the Online Giving portal. Tina will manage the sponsorships each week and list them in the bulletin.

Thank you to those of you who have already sponsored a Sunday! Dates are now available from February-May! (some Sundays are cancelled for scheduled events in the Parish Hall). Tina will assign your sponsorship on a first-come, first-donated basis unless you prefer a specific date. Include a note if so, in the envelope with your check. Friendly reminder.... Please do not combine this with any other contributions. Thank you!

Vocations Awareness Week: November 7-13

Come and See Weekend at the Pontifical College Josephinum

The Pontifical College Josephinum, in Columbus has scheduled a "Come and See" Live-In weekend for November 4 - 6, 2021.

The weekend has been set aside to allow young men (high school juniors, seniors, and college-aged students) to visit the seminary for a few days. Live-In participants will experience seminary prayer life, classes, communal worship, and interaction with current seminarians, faculty and staff. Live-In weekends include introductory presentations on discernment, student life, and the college seminary formation program.

The weekend begins with arrival at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 4, and concludes with departure at noon on Saturday, November 6. All meals and recreation are included. There is no charge to participate. For more information, contact Fr. Hahn, Director of Vocations, 614-221-5565, whahn@columbuscatholic.org or your parish priest.

Father and Son Discernment Campout

The Diocese of Columbus Vocations Office and Wilderness Outreach are sponsoring a discernment campout weekend for fathers and sons, October 15-17 at Tar Hollow State Park. Open to young men 7th grade and older and their fathers (or a father figure).

The weekend will include camping, hiking, trail work, prayer and worship, and discussions around the campfire about the meaning of Catholic manhood and the priesthood.

Space is limited and will be closed at 20 total participants. Cost is $25 per participant. All boys must be accompanied by a father or father figure. All adult men are required to be Protecting God's Children certified.

For further information contact Fr. Hahn, Director of Vocations, 614-221-5565, whahn@columbuscatholic.org or John Bradford at Wilderness Outreach at wildernessoutreach.net, wildernessoutreach2560@gmail.com or call or text, 614-679-6761.

Ushers Needed

We still need more ushers (men and women) on our usher team! Duties include assisting with the seating at full Masses (when needed), taking the collection and fielding general questions (like where is the restroom) of visitors.

Ushers also help with funeral Masses and weddings.

Please contact Bob Engle at 740.335.4786 if you are interested!

Mother's Group Began Meeting, October 9 at 9am in Colman Hall (basement classrooms). All mothers are invited to gather together to share experiences and grow in the faith. Child care will be provided. For more information, contact Justine Garland (740) 505-4528.

- ◆ $16/sleeve of 12 pretzels

Contact Tina in the Parish Office if you want to purchase.

The Women of St Colman of Cloyne Meeting Minutes

October 6, 2021

The October meeting was held in St Colman Hall at 7: 00 pm with 15 women in attendance. Refreshments were provided by Bridget Sollars, Sue Smith and Mary Kay Sollars.

President Carolyn Shoemaker called the meeting to order and Father Haddad prayed A Channel of Blessing to Others, reminding us how we can be a service to others. The minutes were read and approved. Treasurer Tina Garland gave the treasurer's report. Our current balance is $11,226.66.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

All Souls Reception: Mary Ann Van Meter has volunteered to chair the reception. MaryAnn will schedule a meeting with the volunteers to finalize plans.

Funeral Meals: Carolyn reported that 8 aprons have been ordered for the Funeral Committee. They are royal blue and stamped with Women of St Colman. These will be used for funeral meals only. Kathy Schriver volunteered to head the clean-up committee.

Giving Tree: Helen Grim will chair the Giving Tree committee. She will work with her committee to finalize plans for the November set up. The Christmas tree with gift tags will be in the back of the church November 20-21. Gifts are to be returned by December 4-5.

Religious Articles Sale: Due to low inventory from our provider, the fall sale has been canceled. We will look into a holding a sale in the spring.

Rummage Sale: No report

Senior Lunch: The first Senior Lunch for 2021 will be held Thursday, October 14th. Helen Grim reported that there is a sign- up sheet in the back of the church.

Words of Hope Card Ministry: Carolyn stated that she would like to see something in the bulletin every 6-8 weeks asking if there is anyone in need of encouragement that we could reach out to. It was also suggested that we work with the prayer chain group.

Old Business:

Parish Christmas party. Tina Garland reported the Christmas party will be held December 11th from 6:00 pm - 9:00 pm. The Women of St Colman will provide heavy hors oeuvres. There was discussion of holding a silent auction or raffle of gift baskets as a fundraiser for the tuck pointing project. There was also discussion of cakes or other desserts to be raffled off.

Collection /Donations for non-profit groups after our meetings. After discussion Gwynne Gibson moved that we no longer donate to non- profit groups after each meeting. Helen Grim seconded and motion carried.

Add something to agenda to foster our religion/faith sharing: Father Haddad read the a "Channel of Blessing to Others" prayer at the start of the meeting and" thinking of you" cards were offered to everyone in attendance to send a short note to someone in their lives that they haven't talked to in a while or just needs a word of encouragement.

New Business: Do we give mass stipend/offer funeral meal for non-members of our parish? Tina requested guidelines for how we handle these requests. After discussion Bridget moved that if the person has a connection to the church, we provide the service. Motion was seconded and passed.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, November 2nd, at 1:00 pm in the Parish Center Conference Room with Helen McHolan and Mary Murdock as hosts.

Father Haddad led us in The Glory Be and the meeting was adjourned.

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is a propitiatory sacrifice and is the means by which the reality of the Sacrifice of the Cross is made accessible in this current time. The question remains as to how this grace, these effects of the Sacrifice of the Cross, are made available. One way is certainly through assisting at Mass. In assisting at Mass one is praying attentively and is actually participating in the sacrifice at the altar by uniting oneself to that same sacrifice and thus perfecting the offering of oneself to God through that perfect offering, the perfect act of obedience, Our Lord's surrendering His life to the Father for our sake on the Cross.

In addition to uniting oneself to the Sacrifice of the Cross by assisting at Mass, Our Lord has given us the Sacraments us to have access to the graces he won for us as the true Victor at the Cross. Indeed, we initially participate in the graces of the Cross through baptism, receiving that first grace, sanctifying grace, by which we are freed from our original sin, made adopted children of the Father, and are made co-heirs to the Kingdom of Heaven. Indeed, when we are baptized, we are baptized into the death of Christ so that we might also rise with Him. Here we see the effects of the Cross made available through the Sacrament of Baptism. This means that those effects are intimately bound up with the Sacrifice of the Mass as it is that same sacrifice offered in un-bloody manner. Indeed all of the Sacraments and the graces they effect relate back to the Mass in this same way.

Here, we can now answer why we need to go to Confession despite the already propitiatory meaning of the Mass. While venial sins may be forgiven in a number of ways, an act of contrition, alms-giving, the reception of Holy Communion, et cetera, there is only one way to forgive Mortal sin after baptism, the Sacrament of Confession. Deriving the capacity to bestow grace and forgive sin from the Cross and relatedly the Mass, Our Lord has instituted this Sacrament to restore our relationship with Him once we have severed it by totally rejecting His love with our sin. As the blood of animals was used to pay for sin under the Old Law, so is Our Lord's Blood to pay for our sins in the New Law, but Old or New, one has always needed to confess one's sins to the Lord's minister, the priest. "I said, 'I confess my transgression to the LORD,' and you took away the guilt of my sin." (Ps 32:5)

Show your support for Kelli McDonald-Anderson by purchasing a t-shirt! Kelli had brain surgery to remove a tumor on August 3rd. Kelli was diagnosed on September 20th, 2021 with Astrocytoma brain cancer. She will start radiation and chemo on October 11th. Kelli has been a special education teacher for 7 years. Kelli and her husband Josh, have a beautiful baby girl named Palmer who is 5 months old. Kelli has handled each day since with such grace and if you know Kelli, with lots of humor as well. Not once has she let this journey bring her down! Kelli's positivity has been truly inspiring for all her friends and family. Let's all rally next to Kelli during this journey and show her all the love and support she has! All proceeds from the T-shirt sale will go to Kelli and her family for medical costs. Thank you everyone in advance for all your love and support. The comeback is always stronger than the setback!
